Only one drunk, and he a Canadian, was disposed of in the police court yesterday.

A marriage license was yesterday granted to Adam Alex Prentice and Ida May Nixon.

The annual ball of the Bluff City Hose company takes place to-night at Bloom & Nixon's hall.

The employes of the Council Bluffinsurance company had a dance and social last evening.

Either the crooks have all left the city or the chief is not following up the may or's proclamation. No arrests yesterday

The Pottawattamic County Bible Society has requested all churches in the city to take up a collection for the society on the third Sunday in November. The man Holmes, charged with the larceny of a knife and pair of shears from Skelton, Hendricks & Rice's tailoring establishment, was discharged by Justice Schurz yesterday. A man can't afford to be sick much it this country. One doctor's bill was filed yesterday against the estate of a mar claiming about $375 for attendance dur-ing the last month of the fatal i'lness.

Deputy County Clerk Warren has brought back with Jim some of the potatoes grown near Valentine, where he lately visited his son. He claims thirty of them weighed fifty-seven

The remains of Mr. Campbell were interred in Fairview cemetery yesterday having been removed from Des Moine by his daughter, Mrs. Gilbert, who desired to have them laid beside those of other relatives here.

Joseph Boge has commenced an action in behalf of his daughter, Emma Bege aged thirteen years, claiming of J. S. Rand $10,000 for slandering her. It is claimed that Rand made some statementinjurious to the young girl's reputation for chastity, and hence the suit.

D. Goldstein, of 228 Middle Broadway, opposite the city building, is having pawnbroker's sale of unredeemed goods and is offering some great bargains in diamonds, jewelry, watches, overcoats. etc. Saving money is making money always, and he gives a big chance to

The unhappiness of another wedded couple was put on file yesterday in the form of a petition of Dora Coles, askims to be divorced from Ed. Coles. She states that she was married to him in this city in February, 1880, and that he deserted her in the following April, and has kept away ever since.

It is predicted that there will be best away ever since.

The unimapplies of the Rectum for that position, Colonel Daily being named among the probables, and Jacob Sims is also being spoken of as one liable to be nominated by the Republicans.

It is predicted that there will be Rectum a Specialty.

DR. A. J. COOK, has kept away ever since.

The examination of G. Lorring, who is charged with maliciously cutting up two pair of pantaloons in Skelton, Hendricks & Rice's tailoring establishment, was be gun before Justice Abbott yesterday, and is to be concluded to-day, there being some witnesses for the defense who could not be got yesterday.

M. G. King has had a complaint filed against had for carrying concealed weap-ons. It is claimed that while on the rounds lighting the lamps on Vine street, he pulled out a revolver and shot at a dog so carelessly that the bulle barely missed hitting a child. His case has been set for hearing before Justice Naughan on the 6th inst., he having given $100 bonds to appear then.

D. C. Bloomer, G. H. Jackson and George Schindele have been appointed as a committee to prepare articles of incorporation for the association to build an Odd Fellows temple here. Another committee has been appointed, consisting of S. Eiseman, M. F. Rohrer, S. S. Keller. W. G. Oliver and L. Hammer, to secure grounds for the building. It looks now as if the proposed temple was to become a matter of fact, as well as talk.

The charge of malicious trespass pre ferred against Fenerhanken was yester-day examined into by Justice Abbott. The complainant was Ezra Mott, who claimed that the defendant tore down a little house belonging to him and carried the lumber away. It appeared that Mott had bought the lumber of Fenerhanken, and having failed to pay for it, the latter took the house, but as the building was on public ground, instead of private property, the Justice held that it was not intimating that possibly an action for lar-ceny might stick, however.

Yesterday the question of who is to pay for filling up the street railway track last week. came to a very practical turn. In filling up and raising the track near John Short's property on Broadway, the men began to take some dirt from the street fill in front of Mr. Short's proporty. He quickly called on them to desist, but they claimed to have received instructions from the city authorities. the dirt. He very forcibly informed them that instructions or no instructions he should never allow them to stick a shovel in there, and he stood so firmly by that decision that the dirt was got elsewhere.

POLITICAL PRATTLE,

New Ones Trying to Climb Onto the Judicial Woolsack, work, in trying to settle the question of who is to be the winner of the judicial wreath. Judge Reed's promotion to the blighted his life by listening to the tempter and sowing to the wind to reap Supreme bench has caused no little rallying to the front among those who are aspirants for the position left vacant, and calling out the warm support of friends. Petitions are being circulated, many sly conferences held and all sorty of opinions expressed and conjectures made.

Judge Reed will in all probability put in his resignation before long, but it will not take effect until January 1. The appointment to fill the warry or the district borner. fill the vacancy on the district bench will probably be made by Governor Sherman before January 1, so that the no selected may have time to arrange his other business matters. All conjectarea seem to harmonize in the one thought, that Judge Loufbourow, of the Circuit Court, will be appointed in Judge Reed's place, thus leaving the real va-cancy on the Circuit bench, and be scramble seems to be after this. In the city there are three named for that position, W. S. Mayne, Capt. Hight and N. M. Pusey, and each has more confident than those of the two other gentlemen, but still there are numerous predictions that one of the trio will get there. H. C. Watkins of Glen-wood; one of the firm of Watkins & Wilfor the Circuit Court, in the advent of Judge Loufbourow's appointment to the District bench. Mr. Watkins' friends have circulated a petition for the appointment of that gentleman, and it is said that he has a strong backing in Mills and Frement court. and Fremont counties, and some support iere, among those who think that in probate business especially he is very fine J. E. Weaver, of Harlan is among those named also, and his friends claim that he has a strong backing in Shelby, Audubon, Cass, Carroll and Green counties, but the knowing ones here do not seem is shown as a strong backing in Shelby. his chances as good as those of Watkins. The question of locality seems to figure largely, and to bring out much talk about what is to be done politically next year. The rest of the district seems to feel that Pottawattamie county s getting its share, and many here feel that it cannot ask much next year, if a Council Bluffs man is appointed to the bench. There are numerous home aspirants for Republican honors for next year, whose names have already been nentioned. Council Bluffs, or Pottawattamie county, is looking for the next Congressman from the district. Although very early, yet the talk of Judges has brought it out. Some of State Senstor Carson's friends see in him the next Congressman, while the present Democratic Congressman, Mr. Pusey, who was elected by Republican votes, will not probably be satisfied with one term. Then there is the District Attorneyship, for which it is understood Mr. Connor, the present attorney, will not strive very much, and the chances are it will fall into other hands. Already Council Bluffs folks are naming home talent for that position, Colonel Daily very strong struggle among the three Council Bluffs candidates for the bench, that the Governor will hardly deem it politic to select one of them, but will avoid any such trouble and select a man from some other part of the district. If so, he will leave this city and county a freer chance to go for some of the other fruit which is to drop from the limbs next

Those interested in the political figurng are all busy as bees, as it is not often that one event so causes the probabilities of another year's doing to be discussed so earnestly and so far in advance.

The community was startled this week by the arrest of one of its best known clerks in the town, the details of which our community was surprised and shocked yesterday by the discovery that Harry Eisenhower, a clerk in Mr. Roman's hardware store, had been arrested on a charge of grand larceny. After his arrest Eisenhower confessed his guilt and threw himself upon the mercy of his employer. He acknowledged having taken goods, including cutiery, shelf-hardware, etc., to the extent of $200, and shipping them east to relatives or friends for disposal. The exact amount stolen cannot se accurately ascertained, but is believed big or satchel, of which the express agent of that place was recently robbed, from time to time and the value of their contents were known only to the culprit. Information that led to his arrest was given by Mrs Rumsey, who keeps a boarding house on Broadway, was gone, of course, but the papers, way bills, etc., were left in the bag. Several detectives are at work on the case, but the thief has not been captured and no clues are yet made public.
