THE NECESSITY

FOR THE SPECIALIST,

DR. H. WAGNER,

Has long been acknowledged and more so at this day than any other. The vast field of medical science is ever increasing, and its numerous branches are brought nearer and nearer to perfection, and no one man can any longer grasp them all Hence the necessity for dividing the labor. And it is true beyond all doubt that disease, affecting the gento-urinary organs need special study more than any-hing else, if we would understand and know how most them properly.

reat them properly.

DR. H. WAGNER is fully aware that there are DR. H. WAONER is fully aware that there are many physicians, and some sensible people, who will condemn him for making this class of diseases a specialty, but hels happy to know that with most persons of refinement and intelligence a mere enlightened view is taken of the subject, and that the physician who devotes himself to relieving the afflicted and saving them from worse than death, is no less a philanthropist and benefactor to his race than the surgous or physician who by does annileation excels in goon or physician who by close application excels in any other branch of his profession. And fortunately or humanity, the day is dawning when the false phi-anthrophy that condemned the victims of folly or crime, like the lepers under the Jewish law, to die uncared for has passed away.

Plain Facts Plainly Spoken.

At one time a discussion of the secret vice was en At one time a discussion of the secret vice was entirely avoided by the profession, and medical works of but a few years ago would hardly mention it.

To-day the physician is of a different opinion; he is aware that it is his duty—disagreeable though it may be—to handle this matter without gloves and speak plainly about it; and intelligent parents and quardians will thank him for doing so.

The results attending this destructive vice were formerly not understood, or not properly estimated; and no importance being attached to a subject which by its nature does not invite close investigation, it was willingly ignored.

me importance being attached to a subject which by its nature does not invite close investigation, it was willingly ignored.

The habit is generally contracted by the young while attending school; older companions through their example, may be responsible for it, or it may be acquired through accident. The excitement once experienced, the practice will be ropeated again and again, until at last the habit becomes firm and completely enslaves the victim. Mental and nervous affictions are usually the primary results of soll-abuse. Among the injurious effects may be mentioned lassitude, dejection or ir usefullity of temper and general debility. The boy seeks seclusion, and rarely joins in the sports of his companions. If he be a young man he will be little found in company with the other sex, and is troubled with exceeding and annoying bashfulness in their prosence. Laselvious dreams, emissions and cruptions on the face, etc., are also prominent symptoms.

If the practice is violently persisted in, more serious disturbances take place. Great palpitation of the heart, or epileptic convulsions, are experienced, and the sufferer may fall into a complete state of idiocy before, finally, death relieves him.

To all those engaged in this dangerous, practice, I would say, first of all, stop it at once; make every possible effort to do so; but if you fail, if your nervous system is already too much shattered, and consequently, your will power broken, take some nerve tonic to aid your in your effort. Having freed yourself from the habit, I would further counsel you to go through a regular course of treatment, for it is a great mistake to suppose that any one may, for some time, be tevery so little, give himself up to this fascinating but dangerous excitement without sufficing from its evil consequences at some future time. The number of young men who are incapaciated to fill the duties enjoined by wellock is slarmingly large, and in most of such cases this unfortunate condition of things can be traced to the practice of sel

IN SPLENDID SHAPE.

That is What is Said of the Deaf and Dumb Institution.

In speaking of the Deaf and Dumb Institution located here The Register

We are glad to know that the institution is now in splendid shape and under eminently competent and experienced management and control. It commenced its existence with a board of four trustees, with the Secretary of State as exofficio member. It is now managed by a board of but three members, which is less cumbersome and perhaps better, as three men are better than one in this case. The present board of trustees is 600. as follows: Hon, B. F. Clayton, of Macedonia, President; J. H. Steubenrauch, of Pella, Vice-President; Louis Weinstein, of Burlington. These men were re-elected by the last general assem-

In the selection of Professor and Mrs. Hammond as superintendent and matron of the institution the board has shown great wisdom, and in their acceptance of the positions the institution has been indeed fortunate. They have devoted all the years of their adult life to this peculiar work, and are thoroughly conversant with the minutest detail, being trained to it from childhood, Prof. Hammond has had fifteen years experience as a teacher in the Illinois, Indiana and Arkansas institutions—five years in each—being superintendent of the latter institution.

He entered the Illinois institution, the largest in the world, immediately upon graduating from Beloit college, and his ten years as teacher and five years as superintendent have been eminently successful. In the spring of 1827 the Huntress (on which Mr. Mix was an apprentice to the engineer) and Tecumseh backed out of New Orleans together, the Huntress beating the Tecumseh to Portland, making the run in eight days and eight hours. In May, 1827, the Tecumseh cane up in eight days and four hours, beating her time the month previous four hours. In 1834 the Tuscarora came up in seven days and two hours. In the spring of 1837 the Rudolph came up in six days and twenty-two hours. In May, 1837, Mr. Mix was engineer of the Emperor, when she crie up in six days and fifteen hours. In 1838 the Diana and Edward Shippen came out, both very fast and built precisely alike. In the spring of 1839 the Diana made the trip in six days and eight hours. Later in the season the Shippen made the trip in five days and eighteen hours. Capt. Mix did his last boating during the war.
