

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Thursday Morning, Nov. 8. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier... Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See Joseph Reiter's fall goods... Fred W. Lee, of Chicago, was an Ogden yesterday.

J. A. Middleton, of Boston, arrived at the Ogden yesterday... Much sport is promised at the matinee at the driving park Saturday.

The Bachelor club is preparing to give a social and oyster supper at an early date.

Sidney Williams and T. R. Gomey, of Colfax, Iowa, were at the Pacific yesterday.

The pipe for the water works is coming right along now, and it is expected to be all laid soon.

Leave to wed was yesterday given to J. W. Darr, of Cheney, Neb., and Sarah Stocker, of Marengo, Iowa.

The board of education is discussing the advisability of having another school house near the Wahash freight depot.

The banks of the city closed at noon yesterday in respect to the memory of Charles E. Dix, late cashier of the Savings bank.

Constable Clatterback went out to Caron yesterday to bring in a colored woman, Anna Scott, who is violently and dangerously insane.

An ordinary beer wagon got stalled on Broadway yesterday, and yet there are citizens who do not think it is best to pave the streets.

The electric light machinery was shipped from Boston on the first of the month, and is expected to arrive here within a few days.

This evening Miss Ella Miller, a returned missionary from Burmah, will give a free lecture at the Baptist church.

Rev. Richard Armstrong, pastor of the Methodist church, was badly hurt last evening. He was taking down some decorations in his church after a festival had been held.

One of Broadway's retail merchants is having a great deal of trouble with his boy, who is only about seventeen years old, and who is said to get beastly, ugly drunk, abusing his father, and causing a commotion generally.

The third of the Royal Arcanum social is to be given at their hall Friday evening. Only those fortunate enough to have secured season tickets are admitted.

S. T. Walker & Co., of this city, are mentioned as likely to get the State printing. An old established firm with excellent facilities for doing good service to the state in that line.

Charles Reese, a colored barber at Neola, was arrested there and brought to this city yesterday, to answer to a charge of adultery, it being claimed by Ed. Burke that Reese was the fellow who induced his wife to stray from the path of virtue.

Conductor Bennett, who has served long and faithfully as conductor on the street car line, has resigned his position. In the course of a week, possibly by next Monday, the street car company expects to do away with all conductors and put in boxes, in which passengers can deposit their own fares.

Judge Aylesworth has decided one question in the case of Colby vs the Cedar Rapids insurance company. There was in the policy a charge providing that it could not be assigned except the company consented and the secretary of the company shall so endorse on the policy.

REMOVING THE REMAINS. The body of Charles F. Dix started for the grief-stricken Eastern home.

Yesterday afternoon there were brief funeral services held here over the remains of Charles E. Dix, the cashier of the Savings bank, who shot himself while temporarily insane.

The Crawford County Bulletin narrates the following mysterious death: Last Thursday morning, Henry Gustav Holling, aged 19 years, was found dead in Mr. Edward Mundt's barn.

THE GRAND JURY. The Coming Terms of the District and Circuit Court.

The District Court opens its term in this city December 3. It is the last term of the District Court at which Judge Reed will preside, as on the first of January he is to leave that bench for the higher one of the Supreme Court.

The following is the list of the grand jury, chosen last spring, and who held over. They are expected to report on the first day of the term:

M. D. Hardin, Council Bluffs; W. H. Bair, Valley township; F. T. C. Johnson, Norwalk; A. W. Coffman, Knox; A. C. Bergman, Pleasant; Wm. Besley, Macdonald; J. F. Purdy, Peter Bechtel, D. Holst, John Evans, Council Bluffs; A. J. Wyman, Keg Creek; Wm. Wilson, Council Bluffs; W. H. McGinnis, Hazel Dell; Eugene Stuppell, Hardin; Basil Fox, Rockford.

Under the new arrangement the first term of the district court next year is to be held the first Monday in January, the 7th, in Shelby county, and as it is generally understood that Judge Loofbrow is to succeed Judge Reed, this will be his first term in that event.

The last term of the circuit court this year is to be held in Fremont county December 17th, and the first term of the circuit court with the new judge, who ever he may be, will be held February 7th in Crawford county. The first term of the circuit court in Council Bluffs with the new judge will be the second Monday in February.

Gas fixtures at Bixby's, 333 Broadway.

PERSONAL. F. F. Ford, who has recently entered with Mr. Keith into the loan and real estate business at Sioux City, is in the city for a few days' stay.

Mr. Ives, of Des Moines, one of the attorneys engaged for the defense of Holly Lewis, was in the city yesterday, and left last evening for home. W. R. Vaughan accompanied him to Des Moines, expecting to be gone only a few days.

James S. Bradford, of Cleveland, O., is at the Pacific.

A. H. Wheelock, of Moline, Ill., is at Bechtel's hotel.

Olin Knox, of Macdonald's, was among those who enjoyed a full feed at Bechtel's yesterday.

B. F. Cadwallader, of Creston, Iowa, visited the Bluffs yesterday, and dined at Bechtel's.

O. A. Rogers, of Cedar Rapids, one of the officials of the insurance company of that place, was in the city yesterday.

W. C. R. Andrews and wife, of Chicago, who formerly resided here, have been spending a few days at the Ogden. Mr. Andrews, who is general western agent for the Grand Trunk and other lines, was here on business, and also had an opportunity to greet some of his old time friends, Judge James, Judge Larimer and others. He was warmly welcomed by his old friends.

STRANGE RUMORS. Is the Union Pacific Reaching Out for More Streets?

It now appears that the Union Pacific is not satisfied with being given Union avenue, but is looking forward to still greater acquisitions. It is stated that some of their surveyors have been out on the Washington avenue, locating a possible extension in that direction, and that the company is planning for a line running eastward out of this city. It is well for the citizens of Council Bluffs to be on their guard. The interests of the city are paramount to those of the Union Pacific, and the giving of Union avenue has shown that the city cannot expect any great returns for any grant given to that company. Few of the premises advantages have been thus far gained, and it is well for aldermen and citizens to keep on the alert for some further planning on the part of the Union Pacific.

The new Catholic Church. The foundation of the new Catholic church is now completed. The work is massive and expensive, and the building which is to be erected thereon will be in proportion, making one of the finest church structures in this part of the country, the cost to be $40,000. The foundations have cost $10,000, and about one half of this amount has been already paid, leaving $5,000 to be provided for. Rev. Father McMenomy, who has this great enterprise in hand, is interviewing the business men and those interested in having fine church property in Council Bluffs, and there seems a willingness on the part of many to help the cause along. By raising the $5,000 now it would help the enterprise to a permanent success, for there is enough in the other property offered for sale to complete the church as soon as it can be sold. Council Bluffs needs better churches, and needs them badly, and such a great improvement as that now going on should practically interest all.

I wish to extend sincerest thanks and life-long gratitude to my many noble friends, and particularly Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. A. Miller for the watchful care and tenderness shown my late husband during his last hours. LIZZIE M. CLARK.

of the leading men in his township, and all the readers of The Bulletin will tender their heartfelt sympathies in his sad bereavement. We learn that the body will be exhumed and a post-mortem examination made, which it is hoped will unravel the sad mystery of his death. Since the above was received, a post-mortem examination was made, and the man's skull was found fractured and other marks of violence were found on his person, which led to the belief that the man had been foully dealt with. Four men have since been arrested, and are now being held at Leavenworth, awaiting the action of the grand jury, now in session.

THE NEW DYEWORKS. F. R. Hurlbut has opened, at No. 34 Pearl street, a steam dyeing and French dry cleaning works. Plumes and tips, velvets, silks, satins, gents' clothing, merchant's shelf worn goods, all made as good as new.
