FROM BLIZZARDS TO BLAZES

A Blowhard of Tremendous Power Sweeps the Lakes and Eastern States.

General Havoc Mounts the Bosom of the Gale and Pulls the Lines for 48 Hours.

A Fire in Shenandoah, Pa., Proves a Costly Plaything for the Hurricane.

While Two Factories Ascend in Smoke at Charleston, S. C.

BLIZZARDS. TORONTO, November 12.—Dispatches from various parts of Ontario indicate the storm was very severe last night.

At Hastings the spire of the church was blown down, and the church was otherwise damaged. Sawmills were unroofed and fences blown down.

At Belleville, Robertson's block was unroofed and other houses damaged. Chimneys, fences and trees were blown down in all parts of the city. The gale was accompanied by lightning, thunder and a fearful down-pour of hail.

When the gale struck the Metropolitan hall, in which the Salvation Army meeting was being held, the rattling of the scenery, caused by the wind, created a panic. Three women fainted. A rush was made for the stairs, down which a great many people scrambled. No one severely hurt.

CHICAGO, November 12.—A fierce gale from the west and southwest prevailed on Lake Michigan all day yesterday and last night. It is less violent to-day, but the lake is still rough, and vessels experienced much difficulty in making port.

Thus far no serious damage is reported here, but there are grave apprehensions for the safety of a number of vessels. The barges Transfer, C. O. D. and Wolverine, arrived at this port this afternoon from Grand Haven in a badly demoralized condition, having lost a portion of their equipment and cargoes.

The schooner Leo and Wmmer kept company with the mill steamers, and have not been heard from since.

The new city dock, Bell's dock, Rose's dock and Bay View dock were swept into the bay and destroyed. The loss individually and to public property is very large.

NEW YORK, November 12.—A terrific wind and rain storm raged all day doing immense damage. A frame house at Rougemont was blown down and an old woman and a girl severely injured, the former it is thought fatally. All traffic on the river is suspended.

NEW YORK, November 12.—The city experienced a fierce gale to-day. Much damage was done in the afternoon, the wall of a foundry in course of erection, at East Ninety-first street, was blown down. A laborer was caught under the falling wall and severely injured. To-night large trees on Seventh avenue and Twelfth street were blown down and fell upon a passing street car, crushing through the roof and breaking windows. No passengers were hurt.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., November 12.—A fire broke out this morning at Haynes street, on the corner of Main and Center streets. The wind was blowing a hurricane at the time, and continued during the afternoons. The building was soon enveloped in flames, which communicated to the adjacent buildings on Center street. The flames then communicated to the block on the opposite side of the street. At 6 o'clock 16 street fronts were destroyed, including the United States hotel, Odd Fellows' hall, Herald office row, opera house, The Mining Herald and The Saturday Evening News offices. Assistance was telegraphed for, which was responded to from Pottsville, Ashton, Tanawaka and other places. Over 200 families are homeless, having lost everything. Loss estimated at $750,000 to $1,000,000. It is impossible to give the amount of insurance.

CHICAGO, S. C., November 12.—A fire broke out this morning on Haynes street in the Wilbur clothing manufactory, spreading to Robertson, Taylor & Co.'s wholesale grocery. Both buildings were gutted. Loss estimated at $60,000. Eight women and one boy were employed in Wilbur's factory, most of whom jumped from the third story window, sustaining serious injuries.

Breaking a Priest's Will. MILWAUKEE, November 12.—Wm. Magdalena, Ed. August, Albert Walter, Ella and Mattie Schroudenbach with Caroline Staps, Tillie J. Rice and Henry Leow have brought suit in Grant county, Wis., against Mary Caroline Fries, superior of the school of sisters of Notre Dame, this city, for a share in the estate of Chas. Joseph Francis Schroudenbach, priest of Baltimore, who left a fortune of $125,000 the greater part of which was willed to the Milwaukee institution. The complainants allege fraud on the part of the housekeeper who kept all relatives from the priest, and they charge undue influence in that she took $8,000 in cash and household furniture.

Capture of Noted Counterfeiters. NEW YORK, November 12.—Inspector Byrnes learned, two months ago, that Wm. E. Brockway, N. B. Foster and Lewis Martin, the most noted counterfeiters in the country, were preparing to counterfeit securities of some kind. The men were watched and it was found that they met daily at the St. James hotel and remained together for hours. Brockway also visited the offices of bankers, lithographers and printers. Last week the gang was seen carrying their bags into a house in Lexington avenue. Detectives obtained entrance to the Lexington avenue house, arrested Martin and Foster. The same hour other detectives raided Martin's room in the St. James hotel and Brockway's room on 110th street. In each place counterfeiting implements were found. Brockway was also arrested. In Lexington avenue were found die stamps, plates type and batteries. The counterfeiters had already struck off spurious $1,000 seven per cent. construction mortgage bonds, due in 1901, of the Morris & Essex division of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railway Company, and $1,000 six per cent gold bearing bonds, series of the Central Pacific Railway Company. Even United States Internal Revenue stamps and bonds were also counterfeited. It is believed some spurious bonds have already been placed on the market. Biggs is one of the best known forgers in the United States, now under sentence of thirty years for United States bond forgery, which he will have to serve. The others are also well known. Foster is a native of Bradford, Ill. He has been a counterfeiter since youth, and belongs to a family of counterfeiters.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

The Corn Crop Reported Forty Million Bushels Less than Last Season.

The Yield, However, Sufficient to Fill a Medium Sized Crib.

CAPITAL NOTES. THE CORN CROP. WASHINGTON, November 12.—The November report of the department of agriculture gives the local yield per acre in the October final report, the condition of corn, which averaged 78, was interpreted to mean a product close to 1,600,000,000 bushels. The average yield per acre appears to be 23 and 1-10 bushels, 1 1/2 bushels per acre lower than the yield of 1882. This gives the result practically identical with that of October. The exact figures would be 1,577,000,000 bushels. In a revision of the season's returns, this result will not be materially changed. The product will therefore be about 40,000,000 bushels short of the previous crop, notwithstanding the increase in area. The potato crop is large, amounting to 175,000,000 bushels.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS. ON TO MADRID. BELLEN, November 12.—Crown Prince starts for Madrid the 15th. He will go to Genoa by way of Munich and will embark thence on a German man-of-war, Saturday, to Spain.

WHOLESALE EMIGRATION. DUBLIN, November 12.—The Irish Times says a syndicate in London is discussing the project for a ship canal across Ireland.

The Freeman's Journal publishes the full text of the circular proposing wholesale emigration from Ireland, which it is alleged the government issued, though the authorities disavow any connection with the paper. The Freeman's Journal declares the scheme is but a continuation of the policy under which the Irish were kidnapped and transported to the West Indies in the days of Cromwell.

PROTECTION AT HOME. LEYDEN, November 12.—At the national fair trade conference at Leamington, Robert P. Porter, ex-Secretary of the United States Tariff Commission, spoke at great length in favor of protection.

A CRUSADE ANTISEMITIC. Lord Mayor Fowler, in refusing to allow Dr. Stocker, chaplain of the court of Germany, to lecture in the Mansion house, stated that he could not disregard the feelings of the Jewish community by giving prominence to Dr. Stocker, who has excited hostility against the Jews. Carl Bland writes the newspapers that every man with a spark of humanity ought to protest against Stocker's crusade against the Jews.

Teller's Plan. WASHINGTON, November 12.—Secretary Teller has under consideration the plan endorsed by Commissioner Dudley to prevent such scandals as have recently been brought to light in the practice of certain pension attorneys. The suggestion is that only members of the bar regularly admitted to practice and in good standing be allowed to appear before the department.

A Story Denied. CHICAGO, November 12.—An Ogden, Utah, dispatch, published a few days ago, announced the death near there of the grandson of Commodore Wilkes, of the United States navy. The statement was to the effect that a young man who had been employed on a sheep ranch had lost his way among the mountains and died from exposure. Commodore Wilkes makes a denial of the story and says there is no such person as the one described in the dispatches.

A Barge Ashore. CLEVELAND, Ohio, November 12.—The Steam Barge John J. Johnston with nine hundred tons of ore, from Escanaba to Cleveland, is ashore here in bad condition. The crew was taken off by the life saving crew.

Supposed Trichinosis. CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 12.—Times Star, Akron, Ohio, special says: R. F. Palmer's family have been all taken violently ill, it is supposed with trichinosis from eating hard cheese. Two of them will probably die.

Snowing in New York. NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The first snow of the season began this morning but was little more than a flurry. It is snowing hard at Albany. There is a driving snow storm at Utica, and telegraphing is troublesome.

TELEGRAPH NOTES. All banks of Des Moines announce that they will adopt the new Central time. Saturday night the rag and paper warehouse of T. E. C. Wheeler, Peoria, burned. Loss $17,000, insured.

During a heavy wind yesterday afternoon the schooner Adahalla capsized off Milwaukee and went to the bottom. The crew were all saved.

Last night, near Franklin, Va., the residence of Jas. L. Biggs, one of the delegates Biggs of North Carolina, was accidentally burned. Biggs perished in the flames. His wife and child were rescued with difficulty. Mrs. Biggs was severely burned in an effort to save her husband.

THE IRON HIGHWAY.

The Responsibility of the Pullman Company to Sleeping Passengers Settled in Illinois.

A Crazy Mob of Strikers in Panama Wreck a Passenger Train.

Suit Against the Northern Pacific: A Change of Officials.

RAILROAD MATTERS. A SUIT AGAINST THE PULLMAN COMPANY. PITTSBURGH, November 12.—In the Supreme Court this morning the judgment of the lower court was affirmed in the suit of Gardner vs. the Pullman Palace Car company. The case attracted widespread attention. Gardner secured a verdict for $300, having been robbed of valuables while sleeping in Pullman cars. The Supreme Court's opinion held that the company while not liable in action as an inn-keeper or common carrier, yet a reasonable and proper degree of care is imposed on them. The main object in taking passage in such is to permit passengers to sleep, and while in that less condition the duty rests on the company to provide reasonable care and caution against the valuables of passengers being stolen from his bed or from the clothes of the person. This is not a case of robbery by force and violence, but by stealthy larceny.

RAILROAD STRIKE IN PANAMA. PANAMA VIA GALVESTON, November 12.—The strike among the laborers and freight handlers of the Panama railway culminated in the wreck of a train. Some miscreants removed a few fish plates and replaced the rails. The engine passed over all right, but the tender displaced the loose rails. The baggage and two passenger cars were turned over and precipitated down an embankment into a swamp. Curt, agent of the road, and Conductor Crutchley, in the baggage car, escaped, the latter with a severe shaking up. The strikers fired on the train. Many were seriously injured; no one killed.

SUIT AGAINST THE N. P. NEW YORK, November 12.—A member of the Northern Pacific syndicate says a new suit against the company was brought by Daponta, who had ten shares of common stock of Northern Pacific transferred in his own name Saturday. No importance is attached to the suit, which will be tried in the United States courts.

CHANGE OF OFFICIALS. ST. LOUIS, November 12.—It is stated here that W. A. Woodard, late superintendent of the Hannibal and St. Joe, has been appointed to fill the position of the late J. W. Rustin, who was succeeded by Geo. W. Rustin, on the Texas and St. Louis narrow gauge.

Bank Clearances. BOSTON, November 12.—Reports from 25 of the leading clearing houses in the United States for the week ended November 10 give the total clearances at $893,301,576, being a decrease of 27.7 per cent as compared with the corresponding week last year, and a decrease of 12.7 against last week. The exhibit is decidedly unfavorable. The same causes which operated unfavorably on the clearings last week produced a similar effect this week. The general merchandise movement, both east and west, is far below its ordinary proportions.

The Medill Memorial. CHICAGO, November 11.—The Chicago Press club held a memorial meeting this afternoon, and unveiled the portrait of the late Samuel J. Medill, managing editor of the Chicago Tribune, and president of the Chicago Press club. There was a large gathering of the older journalists of the city to pay the tribute of respect to the memory of a man alike admired for his journalistic ability and sterling personal qualities. An eloquent memorial address was delivered by Congressman Finerty, and several feeling tributes were uttered by other members of the city press.

Steamship on Fire. NEW YORK, November 12.—The steamship Tallahassee, of the Ocean Steamship Company, of Savannah, Ga., sailed from that port Friday with 3200 bales of cotton and a quantity of turpentine. She had a crew of forty-seven men and thirteen passengers. When off Highlands, at 6:45 o'clock last evening, she was discovered on fire in the forward hold. Every effort was made to extinguish the fire, but without success. The boat was then headed for Pier 33, where she was docked and the fire put out. The loss will be heavy. No lives lost.

Terrific Blows. CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 12.—During a furious gale last night when Joseph Lamb, night watchman at the woolen mills on Wilson avenue, was making his rounds, examining upper doors and windows, he was blown off the outside stairway across the narrow street and hurled to the ground, thirty feet. His back was broken and he subsequently died.

TORONTO, Nov. 12.—A violent gale last night leveled telegraph wires, trees, fences etc. Considerable snow fell this morning. The weather is cold.

General Sherman at Home. ST. LOUIS, Mo., November 12.—Gen. W. T. Sherman arrived this morning from New York. There was no reception at the depot. He drove direct to his residence at the Garrison where he passed the morning receiving visitors. He will be tendered a reception to-night by Frank Blair Post G. A. R., and will then attend the McCullough performance at the Olympic Theatre.

Those Northern Pacific Bonds. NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—E. Ellory Anderson, on behalf of J. A. Bradford, has obtained an injunction returnable Wednesday from Judge Donahue restrain-ing the issue of $20,000,000 second mortgage bonds by the Northern Pacific railroads company.

SHERMAN AT HOME.

A Warm and Enthusiastic Welcome to the Old Commander in St. Louis.

The Grand Army Turn Out to Greet Him at His Home.

A Brief But Eloquent Address on the Glories of the Past and the Prosperity of the Present.

ST. LOUIS, November 12.—Several posts of the Grand Army of the Republic waited on General Sherman at his residence to-night and serenaded him, the United States arsenal band furnishing the music for the occasion. Some 500 veterans were in procession, and about as many more outsiders were present. On appearing in response to a call the general was cordially greeted. Ex-Governor Thos. C. Fletcher made a brief speech, tendering a most hearty welcome to their old commander. In reply the general said he was glad to see so many of his old comrades present and thanked them for their hearty greeting. He had returned to St. Louis with the intention of making it his home and he expected to spend the remainder of his days here. In former visits to St. Louis, notably in 1861, when the growlings of war made every man suspicious of his neighbor, he was called on by the President to fulfill his oath of office to defend his country from foreign and domestic enemies, and he appealed to the assembled comrades to attest to the fact that the oaths had been fulfilled. He said Pennsylvania was the Keystone State when the Union was a single arch resting, one end on Massachusetts, the other on Georgia. With prosperity the country had grown into a grand arch dipping into the Pacific and Atlantic oceans with Missouri the keystone of the vast arch. He was too old to share with his listeners the pleasures of life but he should watch them from the retirement of his home. He would welcome friends from Louisiana as well as Massachusetts, and from a common Union that would endure forever. St. Louis had many cherished memories, and he hoped all would join hands together and go on until they receive the last call. He thanked the veterans present, and extended the freedom of his house to them.

Tells the Truth. "This medicine I can highly recommend. It has cured me of the blood purifier we have ever used." Chas. A. Burr, 15 Court St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Destroyed by Fire. LACROSSE, Wis., Nov. 12.—A fire at Tremplau Sunday destroyed the Butler house and several frame buildings adjacent to a store on the levee. The wind was blowing a hurricane. The loss is $10,000, partially insured.

DYSPEPSIA

Does not get well of itself; it requires careful, persistent attention and a remedy that will attack the cause and tone up the digestive organs till they perform their duties willingly. Mrs. Roworth, of Amherst, N. H., writes many "sure cures" without benefit, found that Hood's Sarsaparilla hit the nail on the head and restored her to health. After the agonies experienced by the dyspeptic, as distressing before or after eating, loss of appetite, irregularity of the bowels, wind or gas and pain in the stomach, heart-burn, sour stomach, etc., causing mental depression, nervous irritability and sleeplessness. If you are discouraged of good results from Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has cured hundreds, it will cure you if you give it a fair chance.

Send for a free copy of the Sarsaparilla. I was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after several years, which had taken the first bottle for health, commenced in improvement. She is now taking the fourth bottle, and her health has steadily and permanently improved, and I firmly believe it will be a permanent cure. Prepared by C. I. HOOD & Co., Lowell, Mass. Price $2.00 per bottle. Sent by Druggists.
