

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Tuesday Morning, Nov. 13.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier... $3.00 per year. By Mail... $10.00 per year.

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See Joseph Reiter's fall goods... Additional locals on seventh page. Cheap Railroad Tickets at Bushnell's. The creek was frozen over yesterday morning.

Look out for the lithographs of Sauahbrah in the show windows to-day. The brick work is now completed on the new building of the Council Bluffs iron works.

The new building of the Sandwich manufacturing company has got as far up as the second story. The Round Table meets this evening at the residence of Mr. H. W. Tilton, 219 Sixth avenue.

The Neola Reporter has changed hands. W. H. Mullane selling his interest to H. T. Irwin, of Defiance. Thirty Italian-Swiss arrived last night on the Northwestern road. They were on their way to the Pacific coast.

The Congregational social this week is to be entertained by the Honorable Bachelors at the residence of Mr. G. D. Rice, a short distance out of town. The plan for a city hospital seems to have fallen into some dusty corner. It should be got out and put in active operation. Council Bluffs needs a hospital.

The members of the Methodist church at Macedonia have started a subscription for a public library and have raised $50 already. Eli Clayton has charge of the enterprise. The admission to Sauahbrah's unique entertainment Thursday night has been put by the managers of the Home of the Friendless at twenty-five cents, so that all may enjoy it.

The carriers of the postoffice are arranging to give a ball at an early date for their own benefit. Their services are duly appreciated by the public, and the benefit will doubtless be a rousing one. More fun is promised at the Driving park Thursday afternoon, if the weather permits. A race has been arranged between Paul Boquet's horse Dave and Ranger, whose correct name is said to be Black Frank. The latter is to be driven to wagon and Dave to sulky.

The announcement that the new opera house would be open for Sunday inspection seems to have been unauthorized; at least the doors were closed. The fresco work is being done now, and it will take two weeks or so longer to finish that. When the opera house is finished it will be a surprise to many, for it promises to exceed in beauty and convenience the expectations of most. Everybody should buy a ticket for the masquerade ball to be given at Bloom & Nixon's hall on the evening of the 19th, by Abe Lincoln Post G. A. R. There are a number of the widows and orphans of deceased soldiers who live in this city, and the ball is for their benefit. Those who attend will not only have a good time, but will be helping a most worthy cause.

J. L. Dugot has been appointed by Judge Reed receiver for the Mutual Iowa Live Stock Insurance company. He is a thoroughly experienced insurance man, and will doubtless do the best possible to adjust and close up the affairs of the company. The company started in business in May, 1882, and was organized and received its charter in November following. It has made many changes in its management, but it has been losing money, and has got so crippled that it has become necessary to appoint a receiver. It was a very strong or prosperous institution, and its decease will not surprise any one.

City Council. At a meeting of the city council held last evening the railroad companies were ordered to raise their track along Sixteenth avenue ten inches. A resolution was passed for the appointment of a committee to memorialize the legislature for the passage of a bill authorizing all cities of the first class to issue improvement bonds. James J. Brown was given the contract for filling Fifth avenue from Union avenue to Ninth street at 35 cents per cubic yard. Permission was given to the Western Edison Electric Light company to set poles and string their wires, or to run their wires underground, at their discretion.

THE NEW DYEWORKS. F. H. Hurlburt has opened, at No. 34 Pearl street, a steam dyeing and French dry cleaning works. Flannels and tips, velvets, silks, satins, gent's clothing, merchant's shelf worn goods, all made as good as new. Real Estate Transfers. The following deeds were filed for record in the recorder's office, November 10, reported for the Bee by P. J. McMahon, real estate agent: Amelia Bloomer to Mary B. Swan, lots 4, 5, 6, 7, 10, 11 and 12, block 3, Stutsman's second add--$100. Ira A. Sprague to Charles C. Sprague et al, part of lots 1, 2 and 3, block 15, Williams' first add--$802. Hans Meeser to Fervis Thies, sec 1, ne 1/4, 6, 7, 40--$120. D. H. Frisbie to J. P. Goulden, part of sec 24, 75, 44--$662.60. L. D. Woodman to A. B. Rayburn, lot 11 and part of 12, block 17, Macedonia--$40. Wm. A. Smith to R. G. Harlow, sec 1 and 2, ne 1/4, 31, 77, 39--$2,378. Thomas Officer to R. M. Farr, lots 8, block 8, Hall's add--$60. Total sales, $6,802.40.

POLICE PICKINGS.

A Number of Cases Attract the Attention of the Courts.

William Gray, arrested at the transfer on the charge of having picked a lady's pocket, has been discharged, it appearing that as he entered the car he found the pocketbook and as he heard the lady complaining of the loss of her pocketbook he stepped up to hand it to her, when he was arrested. The lady did not appear to prosecute and the fellow was set free.

A man giving his name as Frederick, was locked up for being drunk. He denied the charge and claimed that he was working at the water works, and in his employment got his clothes very muddy, and that while up town in this condition the policeman thought he must be drunk, because of his appearance, and arrested him. Judge Aylesworth's heart was touched, and he bade him to go his way without even a trial.

Mike Cassaday was the name given by one fellow, who pleaded guilty to being drunk, and not being able to pay, was sent back to work it out.

George Williams was arrested on the charge of larceny. It was claimed that he, in company with another young man, went into Mr. Z. T. Lindsey's boot and shoe store, and while looking at the goods, Williams got away with a pair of shoes, but investigation showed that it was the other man who took the shoes, and Williams was discharged.

There was a slight "difference of opinion" which arose in front of the Creation house yesterday afternoon and in settling it. Bill Holder is said to have hit John Rhoderick a bad blow in the eye. Holder was arrested.

The examination of James Hough, charged with the larceny of a $20 gold piece from Mr. Stelter, of upper Broadway, was commenced yesterday before Justice Abbott, but adjourned until next Friday evening to accommodate some of the parties concerned.

Further suspicion has fallen upon Gus Loring, who was recently arrested for maliciously cutting up two pair of pants, along in Skelton, Hendricks & Rice's tailoring establishment. He has been rooming with two other men, and yesterday they missed him and also two overcoats. One of the overcoats was afterwards found in a second hand store, where it was sold for a dollar. Loring is said to have gone to Dunlap, and telegrams were sent out yesterday for his arrest if found.

MATTERS AT MALVERN.

The Bee Gathers a Number of Interesting Items from that Place.

MALVERN, November 9.--The damp weather stays with us. R. J. Donner on Wednesday picked up his bed and well not exactly walked, but took his departure for Colorado City, Texas, where he will engage in the sheep business.

Thieves effected an entrance to the grain office of J. F. Evans & Co., on Wednesday night, but obtained little booty. Miss Emma Bartlett spent Sunday with friends at Glenwood.

Rev. Edmunds is quite ill with a complaint of the lungs. The M. E. pulpit was filled on Sunday last by Rev. Edwin Parks, President of Simpson Centenary College at Indiana, this State. Miss Edith Evans returned Saturday from Denver, where she has been visiting for several months.

James Rockafellow died on Saturday morning of yellow fever. Services will be held at the house, after which the remains will be interred at Hastings. John Bentley and wife arrived here from Dakota on Tuesday last. He will remain here till the Dakota blizzards have breathed their gentle zephyrs and flown to other climes.

Hugh Stoddard, lately from Chicago, has cast his lot among the clerks at L. W. Boehner & Co.'s, forming a valuable addition to the force. The packing company on Saturday made a shipment of two cars of lard to St. Louis, the first of the season. Postmaster Snyder sojourned at the State capitol on Friday and Saturday of last week.

The fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Hunter was celebrated on Monday evening by a goodly gathering of friends and relatives. On Thursday, November 1, by Rev. McAfee, Miss Martha Myers and Mr. Wm. Mitchell were united in marriage. Mr. Mitchell, who is an old citizen of Glenwood, asserted the superiority of his judgement by tarrying at Malvern in his search for a suitable companion. A tear for the belles of Glenwood.

Cut rates to all points at McAllister's ticket office, 505 Broadway, Council Bluffs. MASONRY AND THE CHURCH. Tabor Congregationalists Look Upon Secret Orders with Distrust.

The Tabor Congregational church, at a recent meeting, passed some interesting resolutions concerning Masonry, which are thus given in full: WHEREAS, Differences of opinion exist as to the advisability of admitting members of Masonic and other secret orders to membership in this church; therefore, by the Congregational church of Tabor, be it

Resolved, That we, as a church, disapprove of secret oath-bound orders in general, and of the Masonic system in particular, believing the last-named especially to be anti-Christian in tendency and productive of great evil. Resolved, That we are convinced that some members of secret societies are honest Christians according to their light, and give credible evidence of piety and Christian character.

Resolved, That all persons are qualified for admission to this church who give credible evidence of piety and Christian character, and consent to our Confession of Faith and Covenant. Resolved, That while active membership in a secret order is a real, and in the opinion of some, a sufficient objection to admission to this church, yet that we, as a church, do not deem it sufficient of itself, but that our church officers are hereby instructed to employ all due caution to ascertain the beliefs of candidates belonging to secret orders, in order to discover whether such candidates have a conscience void of offense, as touching their oaths and obligations to this order.

WANTS DAMAGES.

A Brakeman Wants Ten Thousand Dollars for a Thumb and Two Fingers.

Edward E. Butler, a young man aged about twenty, who has been in the employ of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway as a brakeman on freight trains, running between Council Bluffs and Perry, has commenced suit against that company for $10,000 damages, which he claims on account of his hand being smashed while coupling. He says that the engine was uncoupled to run up to the tank after water, and that the tender was in such a bad condition that the water ran over, and down onto the coupling. This was in January last, and the weather being cold the water froze quickly, and as he took hold of the link to make the coupling, his glove froze to the link so that he could not pull out his hand in time to save it. He claims that the engineer backed recklessly, and that, though he signaled him to slack up, he did not do so. On account of all these circumstances, he thinks the company should pay him $10,000, as he lost one thumb and two fingers by the squeeze. Stafford & Denning are his attorneys.

"Judge Jay returned to Des Moines on Wednesday last, where he will at once commence the erection of his new and handsome residence. He expects to have the house enclosed this winter, and, when completed, will at once move his family therein."--Sidney Union.

Edwin Foote, of Helena, Montana, arrived in the city Saturday, looking after some business matters here and giving greeting to his old friend Capt. Price. Mr. Foote was formerly county clerk at Savanna, Mo., and is now among the big stock men of Montana, having a large range and many herds of cattle.

Home of the Friendless Benefit. Sauahbrah is to give one of his unique entertainments at Dohany's hall next Thursday evening. He presents 300 crystal scenes, displayed by the scripto-conn, very life-like, representing his native country, India. He has also a number of hundred dollars worth of costumes which he will also display, giving a showing of the dress worn by the various classes of that country. He presents also the manner of cooking, eating, and other customs of the people, sings their songs, tells their stories, and, in fact, gives the audience all the benefit of a real visit to India, crowding the evening with interest. The entertainment is not a lecture, but rather a series of tableaux vivants representing India, as one only can bring up there. The proceeds are to be for the benefit of the Home of the Friendless, which needs not to be commended to the hearts of the people, as they have already shown their belief in it and love for it in many ways.
