PREDICTING DISASTER. VIENNA, November 23 .- The Presse oublishes a recent letter from Major Seckendorf, with Hicks Pasha. Seckendorf depicts the misery of the troops owing to the scarcity of water. Mahdi, he wrote, possessed 15,000 breech-leading rifles, 14 guns and numerous excellent cavalry, and adherents possessed of fanaticism, and would fearlessly ride to death. Hicks Pasha has 10,000 men, 6,000 camels and many pack horses and mules. The baggage proved a great impediment. The letter concludes: "If our cavalry suffices for outpost duty, success is possible; otherwise the issue will be very disastrous. If we are defeated not a soul will return, and the entire Soudan will be irretrievably lost, since all the natives will believe Mahdi the Messiah.

THE WHOLE COUNTRY IN ARMS. Cairo, November 23.—Col. Coettogan, ith Hicks Pasha, sent a Khartoum to Gen. Sir Evelyn Wood, confirming the previous reports of the disaster to Hicks Pasha's army. He says the whole country has risen. The goveenment asked Baker Pasha to send 000 gendarmes to Suakim to help clear the desert, but Baker refused to send them, thinking they were required in upper Egypt. It is stated that Turkey ffered to send 20,000 troops to re-estab lish Musselman authority in Soudan. Intense excitement prevails everywhere in Egypt. The country is not safe above the second cataract of the Nile. The Khedive has ordered the evacuation of the military posts on the Blue Dr.Felix LeBrun & Co Nile and White Nile. THE CROWN PRINCE IN MADRID. MADRID, November 23.—The crown 29th. prince of Germany arrived at noon. The streets were crowded and many houses were gayly decorated. The weather is splendid. From the depot to the royal palace, a distance of two miles, the streets were lined with troops. The depot was tastefully decorated. As the train entered the guard of honor presented arms, the royal salute was fired and the band played the german national anthem. King Alfonso, wearing the uniform of a Colonel of the German Uhlans, met the prince when he alighted from the train. Besides notable persons there was a deputation of German residents carrying banners. THE NEW YORK COUPON FRAUDS. NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Another chap-ter has been added to the history of the coupon frauds in the finnce department of the city government by which the city was swindled out of $120,000. Inspector Byrnes arrested Thos. Enos on the charge of receiving stolen goods. Enos has been regarded as a gentleman of means. He was an intimate friend of Mr. Wm. B. Carroll, late coupon clerk of the finance department, through whose deals the frauds were brought to light. Enos was the man who sold the coupons. It is supposed he received the coupons from Carroll and perhaps also some from others in the comptroller's office whose names have not been made public. The police followed Enos two months before the capture. Inspector Byrnes says there is now a fair prospect that all communications is going on between guilty persons will be brought to justice. Carroll shared the proceeds of the sale of the coupons with Enos. Others doubtless received a share, and in the course of time will be found out. THE EFFECT OF WAR IN CHINA. WASHINGTON, November 23. - The strained relations between France and China, and the effect hostilities will have upon the interests of the United States. were subjects of consideration at the cabinet meeting.

Surgeon Robert Murray has been appointed surgeon general of the army. President Arthur and Secretaries Folger and Lincoln will attend evacuation day ceremonies in New York.

THE PROTEUS COURT.

Sergeant Larmar testified before the Proteus court that Captain Pike told him when the vessel reached Cape Sabine he felt disposed to delay several days, but, Garlington discovering land to the north, urged a forward movement. It will be remembered Garlington was ordered to take advantage of every lead and push northward as rapidly as possible. Ser geant Kenny testified the crew of the Proteus was good for nothing as sailors or anything else. He believed they in-tended to steal Garlington's boat. He had been cautioned to "look out" for himself. NATIONAL BANK STATISTICS. The second chapter of Comptroller Knox's report shows 262 national banks organized for the year ending November first, the largest number organized since 1865. Of these 132 were in the western states, 40 in the middle states, 36 in the southern states, 11 in the Pacific states, lred track laborers employed between 26 in the territories and only 7 in the Crestline and Pittsburg, on the Pittsburg, eastern states. The number of national banks in operation November first was 2,522, the largest number in operation at port Illinois has advanced from the sixth to the fifth place in national bank capital, Alaska's Representative.

of the vegetable kingdom known to medical sci-ence as Alternitives, Blood Purifiers, Diurcties and Tonics, such as Sarsaparilla, Yellow Bock, Stillingia, Dandelion, Juniper Berries, Mandrake, Wild Cherry Bark and other selected roots, barks and herbs. A medicine, like anything else, can be fairly judged only by its results. We point with satisfaction to the glorious record. Hood's Sarsaparilla has entered for itself upon the hearts of thousands of people in New England who have personally or indirectly been re-lleved of terrible suffering which all other remedies

Mesops C. I. Hood & Co.: Gents—Please send me by expless two bottles Hood's sursaparilla and a few Cook Books for distribution. Your preparation has worked wonders in the case of my wife, who has been troubled with sick headache and biliousness for years. She only took one-tail teappontul at a dose, and has not been so well for five years as now. She found that within a week after taking it she fell very much better, and is now entirely free from those severe headaches. She has not laken any of any avecum since last spring, and what little she had is lent to do others goed, and we must have it in the house. Yours truly, HOMER B. NASH, Pittshold, Mass.
