THE DAY IN CHICAGO.

Special Dispatch to THE BEE.

CHICAGO, November 27.—Great activity ruled in the board of trade markets to-day. Throughout it was a bull day to the close of the entire session. The ball was opened at the 9:30 bell, with heavy buying in corn. The May option led the upward movement, advancing before the immense purchases from every section of the country nearly 2@. The total advance in seven days is 7@. The January and February futures were also heavily dealt in and share in the improvement to the extent of 16@. Wheat awoke about 11 o'clock from its lethargy of the past few weeks. January option rose from 97@ to 98@ in the morning session. Hog products were very lively and like everything else advanced, but did not recover yesterday's figures, and in fact of 45,000 hogs received. There was little check to the direct advance in everything and the day closed with a host of bulls jubilant and confidently predicting yet higher prices. One general market, speculation is awakened and certain markets in the future appear reasonably certain.
