THE A, B, C, UNION,

Composed of Grocery Clerks of New

For the Avowed Purpose of Robbing Their Employers,

An Elaborate Plan by Which Fortunes Were to be Made by All.

But Which Was Spoiled by Discovery and Arrest.

Special to St. Louis Republican. NEW YORK, December 4.-Henry Fulle, a grocer at Second avenue and Forty-fourth street, has been doing a rushing business lately, but has been puzzted by the meagreness of his cash balance. He questioned his nepnew, Herman Myers, who is a clerk in the store, but got no satisfaction. Finding that Myers was spending a great deal of money, he locked Myers up for two days in a room over the store. On the third in a room over the store. On the third Now in Jail at Fremont for Horsebalance. He questioned his nephew, uine months ago formed a union which the styled the A, B, C, union. The president was Christian Krooss, a milkman, who supplied with milk the grocers whose clerks belonged to the union. The union was a strictly secret organization with pass words and grips. Each member solemnly bound himself to steal $125 a month from his employer and give the money to Kroes, who was the banker as well as the president. Kroos bound himself to keep the money for one year for them and return it at the end of that time, keeping $25 out of every $100 for his trouble. In the event of the inability of any of the members to steal $125 in any given month, they were to pay over $400 at the end of every three months or forfeit all their rights in the enterprise. It was agreed that the members who were in good the gang. standing at the end of the year, having squared up their accounts by the payment of $1,500 during that time, were to divide the accumulated money Krooss prepared a sort of table of probabilities by which he demonstrated that a certain number would drop out at the end of the sixth month, more by the ninth month, and one or two from time so that each member in good standing would have from $2,500 to $3,000. This

ANOTHER THIEF. Myers, after relating this story, said that he was a member of the union, but that Herman Tietzer, another clerk, bad

THE CHIEF'S HOUSE. hen the detectives paid a visit to Chrisian Kroos' house at 8 o'clock on Monday night. They were told that he was not at home. They insisted on searching the house and found him in a back room up stairs. Krooss was held in $1,500 bail at the Yorkville policecourt to day. He and his brother Henry own three houses at One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, was thought possibly they might attempt worth $75,000 and have other property. to get hold of them. Henry Krooss went upon his brother's bail bond, Christian, the prisoner, signing also, as the property is held in partnership. Krooss refused to make any statement.

MYERS' STORY.

Herman Myers is a round-faced young man of 19. He told the following story: I was walking with Henry Precht on Sunday, October 20th, when he asked me altogether. Precht was one; he was the term of the district court of Brown comsecretary. Then there was Mrs. Papenhausen's clerk, John Fast; a clerk for unless you draw the check." "Then he said the union paid sick members $2 a day from each member, or so day the first month and $1 a day from each, or $25 a day after that. He asagreed to keep still. Then Kroose asked hand there is a strong probability that the balance of the party will follow suit.

He said, 'pretty well,' and planked down two piles of $300 each, one pile for himself and the other for his partner, who worked its Potential and the other for his partner, who worked its Potential and the other for his partner, who worked its Potential and the other for his partner, who worked its Potential and there is a strong probability that the balance of the party will follow suit.

AMUSEMENTS. partner, who worked in Papenhausen's store, but has since been discharged. Then Ahrens' clerk paid $300, and Krooss put the money in his pocket. Then all swore to keep secret and never tell any thing relating to the union, and all blew through a horn to bind it.'

cnown cattle man, and J. J. Hamlin, exstock inspector at Valentine, engaged in bloody shooting affray, about one mile outh of our usually quiet village, which resulted in the death of Mr. Hamlin. It appears that these two parties had not seen on friendly terms for some time, albough they married sisters; the cause of the trouble being that Hamlin has several times daring the past summer beat his wife to such an extent that she was ompelled to seek safety with her broth er-in-law, but each time, however, would go back to her brutish husband only to se pounded and whipped again when her iege lord had a "bad heart." Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith had earnestly asked Mrs. Hamlin to remain with them, offering her a home as long as she wished to remain, and it was on this account that the quarrel began, It has been expected for some time by our citizens that the affair would end in "a killing bee," as all knew that Hamlin was "a bad man from the west." A few days ago Mr. Smith and his wife and small child visited the castern part of the state, returning home Monday evening. December 3d. Ham. Monday evening, December 3d. Hamlin, it appears, expected them on Mon-day's train, so he went to O'Niell and boarded the west bound train, first mak ing sure that Smith and his family were on board. The Keeper of Uncle tam's Treasury St. Paul Pioneer Pre a December 3.

arrived in Minnespolis this morning, on his way from Omaha, and spent thanks giving with his son, Henry F. Wyman, who is a clerk in the real estate office of Corser & Barnes. A Pioneer Press re porter called on Mr. Wyman at the resand he had very little opportunity or inclination to take part in active politics. In regard to the fight for speakership he said he was not prepared to give any decided views as to the relative chances of the prominent men, but his private opin on was that Randall would s nominated. He had very strong inthe answer was. "They are in jail here fluences behind him in the railroads and other strong corporations and capitalists, and was a shrewd manipulator. He is a better organizer than Carlisle, and the latter would find it hard to hold his adherents against the combined influence which Randall would be able to bring to bear "But," added the treasurer, "this is a fight among the other crowd, and I have not interasted myself sufficiently to speak with any degree of certainty concerning the out come." Mr. Wyman said he had been grossly misrepresented by The Chicago Times, when he was in Chicago a .ew days ago, as that paper made him say that Springer had no strength in the present contest, and cut no figure in the result, when the truth was, Springer's name was not men-tidence in the result of 1884, and said he regarded the prospects of the republican party as more favorable than in the last campaign. Of course, much depended upon the candidate selected, but if the party made no serious mistakes between now and then, and put up a man who represented the true principles of republic-anism, there was little doubt of the result.

CONCERNING THE CURRENCY. Asked if he had given Comptrolle Knox's report particular consideration in regard to the threatened contraction of the currency, he said he had seen as abstract of the report, but had not reait. He thought it was plain, however, that if the 3 per cent bonds were called in the national banking currency would be greatly contracted, although to what extent and as to what effect it would have He thought it was plain, however on the business interests of the country he was not prepared to give an opinion That was a matter which could not be estimated at present. If congress should remove the I per cent tax on national banking capital the banks might be able to use the 4 per cents as a basis for capital, but unless some legislation was had to retire them, it was probable that very many of them would retire their circula The premium on 4 per cents at present is about 22 per cent, while : for cents are par or a fraction more. The banks could hardly afford to pay this difference unless some legislation was had o help them. It was not probable that the state banks could afford any relief, as the internal revenue tax of 10 per cent was an obstacle in the way MONEY AND BUSINESS.

As to the general business of the coun ry, Mr. Wyman thought it was in a very realthy condition. Business men in the rast seemed to be doing well, and little complaint was heard. Monday is plenty, and the government could easily borrow $200,000,000 at 2 percent-If it needed it. Eastern capitalists had been slow to invest largely in some portions of the west, but they are now gaining confidence in its future, and there were millions of money ready to pour into the promising fields to the northwest, and the develop ment of this great territory would not be delayed for want of money. He had not visited the northwest since 1854, and his last visit to Minneapolis was twenty-four years ago. He smiled as he remarked: "I can see some changes here since my last visit." The treasurer leaves for Washington this morning.

DR R. I, MATTICE,

THE NECESSITY FOR THE SPECIALIST,

DR. H. WAGNER,

lastong been acknowledged and more so at this day han any other. The vast field of medical science is ver increasing, and its numerous branches are rought nearer and nearer to perfection, and to one man can any longer grasp them at lence the necessity for dividing the labor. And it is tue beyond all doubt that disease, affecting the gento-minary organs need special study more than anyhing else, if we would understand and know how reat them properly.

hing else, if we would understand and know how reat them properly.

DR. H. WAUNER is fully aware that there are many physicians, and some sensible people, who will ondenen into to making this class of diseases a specialty, but help happy to know that with most percent of refluement and intelligence a more enlightened view is taken of the subject, and that the physician who sixteen of the subject, and that the physician who sixteen of the subject, and that the physician who sixteen of the subject is the subject and axion the property of the subject is the subject of the aving them from were than death, is no less a phi-arithropist and benciacter to his race than the sur-cent or physician who by close application excels in my other branch of his profession. And festurately or humanity, the day is dawning when the false whi-sufficient that or humanity, the day is assumed when the table phi-santhrophy that condemned the victims of John or rime, life the fepers under the Jewish haw, to die meared for has passed away.

To all those engaged in this dangerous, practice, I would say, lirst of all, stop, it at once; make every possible offort to do so; but if you fall, if your nervous system is already too much shattered, and consequently, your will-power broken, take some nerve tonic to aid you in your effort. Having freed yourself from the habit, I would further counsel you to go through a regular course of treatment, for it is a great mistake to suppose that any one may, for some time, be t every so little, give himself up to this foscinating but dangerous excitement without suffering from the swil consequences at some future time. The number of young men who are incapacitated to fill the duties enjoined by wedleck is alarmingly large, and in most of such cases this unfortunate condition of things can abandoned years ago. Indeed, a few months' practice abandoned years ago. Indeed, a few months' practice of this habit is sufficient to induce spermatorrhoa later years, and I have many of such cases under treat ment at the present day.......

Middle Aged Men.

There are many at the age of 30 to 60 who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sestiment will often be found, and sometimes small carticles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many meny men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal-weakness. Shall We Reform ?

Specific remedies for all diseases is the theory practice at present of educated and experience physicians, and in all large communities they have their specialties, to excel in which they direct their studies and practice. Dr. Wagner is a successful illustration of this modern school of specialties and his unprecedented success in the treatment of private diseases is as wonderful as it is flattering. — Prof. J. Sinuse.
