

THE DAILY BEE.

Thursday Morning, June 5.

PRINTERS WANTED.

A number of good printers can find steady employment at this office.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A large number of foreigners are seen daily arriving in this city and going out through the state.

The Monte Christo company passed through this city yesterday enroute to San Francisco, where they open next week.

The entertainment for the benefit of the Jewish Sunday-school, takes place this (Thursday) evening, at Central hall. Doors open at 7:30; concert at 8 o'clock sharp.

Yesterday about 3 o'clock p. m. the Raymond excursion party occupying eight Pullman sleeping cars, passed through this city enroute to their homes in Boston.

Yesterday was pension day and a large number of papers were presented at the office of the county clerk. Clerk Leavitt says no fee is charged and he is glad to have all come.

The ladies aid society will give an ice cream and strawberry festival at 6:30, Thursday, June 5, on the Lake shore lawn, immediately following the corner stone services. All are invited to attend and partake.

Officer Flynn shot a dog in the court yard yesterday. Seven leaden messengers were fired into his carcass before he would stop his yelping, and compose himself in death. The shooting attracted a large crowd.

In police court yesterday three distributors of the peace were fined $5 each and costs. Three vagrants were sentenced to ten days each in the county jail, on bread and water. A fourth party charged with vagrancy was discharged.

Yesterday Sheriff Miller and Deputy Sheriff Peirout went out to the stock yards in answer to a telephone message from Ponka, a saloon-keeper, and arrested a man by the name of Grow, who is charged with stealing money from behind Ponka's bar, and also assaulting him.

The Madison Square "Rajah" company arrived in this city yesterday, and are quartered at the Millard. The company is made up of such people as Marion Elmore, who played "Chiepa" here a short time since, H. M. Pitt and E. M. Holland.

The Congregationalists are preparing an entertainment for Friday night of a very delightful character. Madams Squires and Estabrook, and Messrs. Wilkins, Estabrook, Northrop and Devel will furnish the music. Miss Ella McFadden, the talented young elocutionist, will read a number of selections.

During the absence of Major H. B. Burnham, Judge Advocate of the department, Lieutenant Colonel E. C. Mason, 4th Infantry, Acting Assistant Inspector General of the department, will take charge of and conduct the affairs of his office.

The commanding officer, Fort Bridger, Wyo., will send in charge of a medical officer, and such escort as he may deem necessary, 2nd Lieutenant James M. McCarty, 9th infantry, pronounced by a board of medical officers to be of unsound mind, to the insane asylum at Washington.

The quartermaster's department will furnish the necessary transportation, and the subsistence department communication of rations for the necessary number of days in advance, at the usual rates, it being impracticable to carry cooked rations.

A dispatch from Detroit last evening says: Rev. Millsaps, dean of Omaha cathedral, who came to Detroit on Saturday, and spent Saturday evening and Sunday quietly with Dr. Dr. Worthington, departed for home yesterday. He brought with him information that Worthington desired the relative balloting in the recent diocesan convention in Nebraska, and the bishop-elect will now consider the matter in all his bearings before announcing his decision.

A saloon-keeper named Penner who does business at Twenty-fourth and Cumings street, appeared at the city jail at 11 p. m. Wednesday with his face badly cut and bleeding, and reported that his wife had beaten him with a bottle, when he pushed her out of the saloon and told her to go home. She had lain down on the floor and screamed, and the crowd supposed that he had hit her. He came down to square himself on the record. "Do you want her arrested?" asked Deputy Marshal Gorman. "No, but I'm going to get a divorce," was Penner's reply.

L. E. Gardner was yesterday brought in from Harlan county, where he was arrested for selling malt liquors without first having obtained a license therefor. He was taken before the district judge where he pleaded guilty to the offense charged. He was fined $50 and costs, but being unable to pay it was allowed by the court to go home.

ROBBED OF $1,000.

A Wisconsin Man Robbed of $1,000 Yesterday Morning.

Two Confidence Men Work the Express Dodge to Perfection.

Wednesday there arrived in this city an old man named J. M. Pratt, of Sheboygan, Wisconsin. He put up at the European hotel and yesterday morning about 6 o'clock he got up and went to the B. & M. depot to await the departure of the train for Riverside, his destination.

While sitting in the waiting room, a nice young man entered and at once struck up a conversation with the old gentleman. The young man was going to Riverside and was well acquainted with the old gentleman's son who is in business in Riverside. Of course the old man thought he was all right.

Pretty soon the old man and his young acquaintance entered the car. They had been there but a short time when a large man with an express book entered and demanded some express charges of the young man. The young man didn't have the money, but he had a $1,000 gold certificate, and the old gentleman quickly consented to let him have $1,000 in greenbacks for it. The young man left the car to see about the express, and as yet has not returned.

It is funny that such a confiding old creature as the old man should ever awaken to a realization of the fact that he had been robbed, but it did finally dawn upon him that such was the case, and then there was a howl around that depot. The old man jumped and raved but it was no good. The bird had flown.

The old man has the bogus certificate which will ever be a reminder to him of that fine young gentleman he met in Omaha. The old man was taking the $1,000 in his son in Riverside and consequently it did not belong to him. He left this afternoon to go back to Sheboygan to get another $1,000 to replace that which he lost. They had better send a guardian with him next time or somebody will get the other $1,000.

ARMY ORDERS.

Acting Assistant Surgeon Frank J. Ives, U. S. A., is relieved from temporary duty at these headquarters and will report to the commanding officer Fort Niobrara, Neb., for duty.

The travel directed is necessary for the public service. During the absence of Major H. B. Burnham, Judge Advocate of the department, Lieutenant Colonel E. C. Mason, 4th Infantry, Acting Assistant Inspector General of the department, will take charge of and conduct the affairs of his office.

The commanding officer, Fort Bridger, Wyo., will send in charge of a medical officer, and such escort as he may deem necessary, 2nd Lieutenant James M. McCarty, 9th infantry, pronounced by a board of medical officers to be of unsound mind, to the insane asylum at Washington.

The state fair of Nebraska, to be held in Omaha, will begin September 8th and close the 12th.

A very fine programme of races has been prepared for the state fair this fall. The premiums for racing aggregate $4,100, which, doubtless, will attract a large number of good horses.

THE "RAJAH."

The Madison Square Company at the Boyd Last Evening.

The "Rajah" was presented at Boyd's opera house last night by the Madison Square company. The audience was not a large one, owing no doubt to the fact that the weather is becoming somewhat too warm for theatre goers. The play presented last evening, however, was such as to deserve a far better audience, although a more appreciative one would be hard, indeed, to find.

In the "Rajah" company, as in all other companies under the management of the Madison Square theatre, the artists have been selected with great care and the parts have been cast only after a great deal of study. The company is a very evenly balanced one and not a single weak character is among their number.

The "Rajah" is a light easy going comedy, considerably after the style of the "Professor." It is a play which is well calculated to please, but never tire and it will never miss calculation in the hands of such people as Mr. H. M. Pitt, Mr. E. M. Holland, Miss Marie Burroughs and Miss Elmore.

Mr. Pitt in the "Rajah" is an admirable picture of a type of character which has long since been recognized as accurate—the impassive, cool, indolent English gentleman, who, apparently, is without force, mental vigor, or courage, but who, when occasion requires it, displays a remarkable amount of each. He acted the part well throughout, his nonchalance being delightfully accurate, and as clearly defined as a photograph.

Miss Marie Burroughs as "Gladys Wynocot" made a decided hit and was in great favor with the audience. The same may be said of Marion Elmore, as "Emilia Jekyll."

Mr. George Bruns as "Buttons," scored a big hit and his appearance upon the stage was the signal for an outburst of laughter. The other characters were all well sustained, making a very evenly balanced and satisfactory performance.

WELDE MEYER.

It is now undoubted that Wie Die Meyer's Catarth Cure is the only treatment that will absolutely cure Catarth—fresh or chronic. "Very efficacious, Saml. Gould, Weeping Water, Neb." One box radically cured Mrs. Mary Kenyon, Bismarck, Dakota. "It restored me to the pursuit of my profession," Rev. G. H. Tahlor, 149 Noble street, Brooklyn. "A perfect cure after 30 years suffering," J. D. McDonald, 719 Broadway, N. Y., &c. &c. Thousands of testimonials are received from all parts of the world. Delivered, $1.00. FLASHES FROM THE DIAMOND.

Four of the Union Pacific Resign—A Good Game This Afternoon.

A new impetus was given base ball in Omaha yesterday by the resignations of Bandle, Carroll, Whitney, and Dwyer from their situations as clerks in Freight Auditor Young's office. These players have taken this step on account of certain regulations laid down in this office prohibiting them from playing ball at certain times when they wished to. Salisbury, who also fills a position in this office, will resign so soon as his arm is able to do effective work on the ball field. These four players will now go into active practice as professional ball tossers.

This afternoon, at 4 o'clock, the first contest with a professional team, the Rock Islands, will take place. This is one of the strongest nines in its association and has some good players in it, notable among whom are Larkins, first base, who played with the U. P. last season, to be again who two years ago played with the Spaldings, of Chicago, and last season managed the Council Bluffs team.

The following are the players and their positions: Bandle catcher, Rockwell pitcher, Funkhouser first base, McKelvey second base, Whitney third base, Dwyer short stop, and Carroll left field, Jamieson left field, and Durkes centerfield.

A good game is looked for and the boys are expected to keep up their former reputation of never disappointing their admirers.
