Stocks—the market opened firm, and on purchases for out of town account prices rose to 1½%. Before midday, on sales to realize, a reaction took place, and still later on reports that an effort to reduce rates on east bound freight had not been successful, a decline of 1½ to 2 ensued. Union Pacific advanced 1½ early in the day on the announcement that the government directors' report would be published to-morrow and will indicate the action of their present administration. Compared with last night, closing prices are ½ to 1½ lower, except Rock Island, Jersey Central and Erie, which are ½ to ¾ higher.
