

SICK AND DESERTED.

A Girl Brought From Denver to Omaha and Deserted by Her Seducer.

Yesterday about 4 a. m., in Carrie Mullen's house of ill-fame on Capitol avenue, a girl by the name of Jennie Kessler gave premature birth to a child. The history of this girl is sad one and the man who brought her to her present condition is worse than a brute.

The girl tells her story as follows: She was a servant girl in Denver and met a young man by the name of William Quinn. Quinn was a smooth-tongued fellow and finally under promise of marriage accomplished the girl's ruin. A few months found the girl in a delicate condition and Quinn left Denver, telling her that he would come to Omaha and make a place for her and then would send for her.

He came to Omaha and was engaged as bartender for Wood, the Fourteenth street saloonkeeper, who had such an escapade with his Denver mistress in this city a few days since. Subsequently Quinn wrote to the girl to come to Omaha and she did so, arriving in this city last Monday. Quinn did not send her any money, and she was obliged to pay her own fare from Denver to this city. Quinn did not meet her at the depot, but sent a hackman, who took her to the Cozzans hotel. She remained there one night, when the same hackman called and took her to the Cozzans hotel. Here Quinn called upon her and told her that it was too expensive to keep her there, and that he would take her to a place where she would have company and good care. The next day the hackman called and took her to Carrie Mullen's, where she has since been.

The girl received nothing but abuse at the hands of the Mullen woman and yesterday she was taken ill. She was placed in a cold room without any attendance and there alone passed through the pangs of child birth. Dr. Gibbs was called and attended to the suffering girl as best he could. Later in the morning two police officers called at the house and the Mullen woman ordered them to take the girl away at once, saying that if she was not moved to-day that she would throw her out into the street. The Mullen woman said that the girl was not a sporting woman and that she would have nothing to do with her.

The man Quinn, who is responsible for all of this trouble, has shipped out and nothing can be found of him. Superintendent Pierce, of the poor farm, has been notified and as soon as the girl is in condition to be moved she will probably be taken to the poor house. The Mullen woman is not a woman but has more of the instincts of a beast.

A CHRONIC BEAT.

A. St. Julian Skips out and Leaves Everybody He Owes.

For several months there has been a man by the name of A. St. Julian running a restaurant at the corner of Fifteenth and Capitol avenues. The restaurant was named after its owner and was called "The St. Julian." The place has done a very good business, but the old seed who has been running it has evidently been working to sell down a few dollars regardless of the consequences and probably has done so.

He has run in debt everywhere that he could find anybody to trust him and it has been his motto never to pay a cent if he could possibly get out of it. All of a sudden this chronic dead-beat leaves his property to a second party and transfers his property to a second party and leaves the city. This transfer was made yesterday morning, and many persons who had meal tickets which had not yet been used are left out in the cold. When they went to dinner yesterday they were informed by the new proprietor that their tickets were no good and if they wanted dinner they would have to put up the cash for it.

Not only has St. Julian beaten all the dealers he could find to trust him, but he has roped in the newspapers for good sized advertising bills, and notwithstanding that persistent efforts were made to get even with him, it was like trying to get ahead of a windmill.

He has gone and his name will be pasted upon the walls of time as a chronic dead beat, and wherever he may go it will be well for the citizens of such places to beware of him.

Pat Comfort Turns Up.

Mention was made in the Bee a few days since that Mrs. Pat Comfort and her family of children had arrived in Omaha and were in destitute circumstances and that the husband and father, who was supposed to be working in this city, could not be found. Mrs. Comfort was ill and was taken to St. Joseph's hospital and the children were consigned to the tender care of Superintendent Pierce at the poor farm. Yesterday Pat turned up and went to see his wife and children. He came to the street at Harris' & Fisher's packing house and had got out of employment and was penniless. He has gotten possession of his children and is now trying to scrape together a few dollars with which to obtain quarters and gather together his family under one roof.

Police Court.

In police court yesterday three strong, able bodied young men were charged with vagrancy. They gave the names of E. E. Lane, N. Smith and Louis Simon. They were accompanied by an elderly man, who was also charged with vagrancy. They all pleaded guilty and were sentenced to ten days each in the county jail on bread and water.

A Brilliant social Affair.

Last evening at his residence corner of Twenty fourth and Davenport streets an elegant reception was given by Mr. E. B. Chapman, the well known wholesale grocer and his charming young bride, Miss Pauline Hax, of St. Joseph, Mo. The guests began to arrive at 8 o'clock and the reception continued until 11:30. The toilets of the bride and her sister, Miss Bertha Hax, as well as some of the guests, were very beautiful. After congratulations and best wishes of all kinds to come they all enjoyed a beautiful lunch. The tables as well as the house, were beautifully decorated with flowers and myxlas. Mrs. Hammond, the mother of the groom, made everybody feel at home at once; after having a pleasant social time, the guests departed carrying with them many pleasant remembrances of the happy occasion.

OMAHA'S COUNCIL.

A Letter to the Nebraska City Press by an Omaha Man.

The following letter, written by an Omaha correspondent to the Nebraska City Press, may prove interesting to many and particularly to the city council:

OMAHA, Neb., January 20, 1885. QUERIES ARE QUERIES, but that which is queried to me in this coming and incoming city. The first city of Nebraska and the Great West, holding a reputation and an attractive power alike to all classes from the white man to the Chinaman, from beauty to a beast. Like many another city, possessing, yet failing to hide from the popular eye, its physical and lower tendencies, its scandals, its churches and Christianity, its dives and wickedness. Like many another city, having within its own limits, yet hardly acknowledging its political rivalries, its self made men, its romantic robberies, its peculiar contracts for public works, its sub rosa "squabbles," and last but not least, "City Dads." I am speaking of city dads in a general sense, a reader of human nature to take a glance over the "motley crowd." In this world brains win—hence Omaha has brilliant, energetic, intelligent and poetic a crowd of political sharks and knaves (with a king thrown in) as one could ask to gaze upon, that is, if one's imaginative powers are strong and stretching. Such a reader would feel profound sympathy or disgust, I know not which, when gazing on such a crowd of self-made men and would think, "God pity the maker." The property owners don't use the word "city" when they speak of em. No, not very often, anyway. The word they use is mostly connected with a "big D" and that—and an account of pleasant and pleasing internal improvements in the way of paving, grading and sewerage.

THE LEGAL LOG.

News from the Various Legal Dispensaries of the City.

In the district court yesterday, Charles H. Hamilton, through his attorney, J. C. Cowin, entered suit against the city of Omaha and its treasurer, Truman Buck. The plaintiff in his petition alleges that his property on California street, between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh, has been assessed for costs of grading which was done in a manner unauthorized and illegal. For this and other reasons set forth in the petition, the plaintiff asks for a restraining order prohibiting the collection of the taxes on the county court yesterday Henry Karstens, of Millard, filed a petition asking for the appointment of an administrator for the estate of his father, Henry Karstens, deceased.

POLICE COURT.

Before this tribunal yesterday afternoon George Smith was arraigned on a charge of assaulting Richardmann, the cigar man, on the corner of Seventh and Pierce streets. Smith did not attempt to deny the fact of the assault, but said that Richardmann, in giving him back some change, had tendered him two pieces of counterfeit money. Upon this (Smith) making a refusal of the money, Richardmann refused. Judge Bencke, however, sentenced Smith to pay a fine of $10 and costs and to be imprisoned in the county jail for one day.

Frank Graves, also colored, was arraigned on a charge of stealing a clock from Young, the Sixth street household goods merchant. The charge was not clearly proven, however, and Graves was dismissed, Young being allowed to retain the timepiece.

The Ocean Rate War.

August Weiss, agent of the Hamburg German-American line has received official notification of a still further cut in rates on that line. So low has the price of passage been reduced that a ticket from Omaha to Hamburg, Bremen or Havre can now be bought for $26.50. And it is quite probable that the rates will fall still further.

The war in ocean rates had its origin in the rivalry between the Hamburg American line and a new line just started in opposition to it. The Hamburg line withdrew from the German conference of steamship companies and proceeded to cut rates to suit itself.
