AN OLD NEWSPAPER. Sioux City a Quarter of a Century Ago--Slave Catching in Iowa. An Indian Raid in Nebraska--Bellum Politics and News--Who Were in Business. Sioux City Journal. In looking over some old papers left by the late Charles Booge, his son, T. McK. Booge, yesterday found a copy of the Sioux City Times. It is not the Times "delivered in all parts of the city by carriers for 10 cents per week," nor that older Times which Charles Collins conducted in this city as far back as 1870. It is the Sioux City Times of June 27, 1860, published by Pendleton & Swiggett, that Mr. Booge found with his father's old papers. This was a republican paper, started for the campaign. It flouts the ticket of the party, Abraham Lincoln, of Illinois, for president; Hannibal Hamlin, of Maine, for vice president. Among its latest news are Richmond dispatches of the 11 and 12th insts., giving an account of the seceders' convention. From these proceedings it seems that: "While Col. Baldwin, of the New York commission, was speaking against disunion, a motion to adjourn was made and carried unanimously. There is the Washington telegram of the 13th inst: "The committee on the homestead bill met this morning and bound themselves to disagree. They will meet again tomorrow for a final effort."

There is an item about the slave days in Nebraska. "Muckalls, who is a resident of Nebraska City, had two negro girls, who can run in 1858 and 1859, and crossed over to Civil Bend, Fremont county, this state. Muckalls, with a large band of straggle men, followed, and proceeded to search houses and commit various breaches of the property, and another entered the house of R. S. Wilson, and upon his remonstrating, one of the party struck him upon the head with a club, almost producing death, and from the effects of which he has not entirely recovered. That was the way the slave hunters beat the brick in Iowa for the year 1859, the paper was published. These facts are stated as an introduction to the item that a Page county jury had just given Wilson $80,000 damages against Muckalls. Even in that far-off day it seems a democratic congress was prone to turn the old shoulder toward Dakota, or "Dakotah," as the Times spells it. We read: "The failure of congress to organize this territory during its present session, which was so much desired by many of its residents, will, of course, have an effect to keep away some who would, had it been organized, gone there as permanent settlers, but upon the masses it will have little effect. "The masses" are then informed that to go to Dakota they had best travel by way of Sioux City, where everything needed for an outfit can be bought, and that there are two good ferry crossings on the Big Sioux. The article further says: "The Indians have long since been removed to their reserves, and are now there, peaceful and contented."

But the most interesting part of the Times is its advertisements. Among the professional and business cards are T. J. Stone, real estate agent and practical surveyor; S. T. Davis, attorney-at-law; G. W. King, north plater and proprietor of the Sioux City hotel; Dr. Wm. R. Smith, physician and surgeon; Charles Kent, druggist; F. J. Lambert, signs himself sheriff; H. D. Booge & Co., grocers; Hodges & Co., grocers; James Hutchins, tailor; G. R. McDougall and A. J. Millard, carpenters and builders; A. Granger, hardware; John Hagy, hotel; J. H. Charles, land and insurance agent; Hudson & Joy, attorneys; Sabor & Follett, lumber; Isaac Pendleton, insurance agent; Sawyers & Kirk, general merchandise. The last named firm must not be confounded with the present firm of the same name. The Sawyers & Kirk, of the Times, was composed of Col. James Sawyers, now of Leadville, and Postmaster Kirk. J. N. Fields, now the dry goods millionaire of Chicago, appended his signature to a notice as clerk of the courts. Then there are the names of clergymen, long since dead or removed. The Times of June 22, 1860, comes down through a quarter of a century like a fresh breath of prairie wind from the frontier.

The Great Attraction at New Orleans. The vast crowd of strangers attracted to the great World's Exposition of Industry at New Orleans, looked with delight at the fairness which marked the 17th Grand Monthly Drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, on January 12th, last. It reminds the ticket No. 15,965 drew the first prize of $75,000, and was held by Mr. Thomas M. Thompson, a prominent banker of Shelbyville, Ill., who collected it through the Third National Bank, of St. Louis, Mo.; No. 57,741 drew the second prize of $25,000, and it was sold in 60th (each at $1.00) one to H. E. Brown, of Fairmount, Ind., who collected it through the Fairmount Bank; one to Daniel Shutt, of Chicago, Ill., who collected it in person; another to Lee Samson, signatory, and the remaining portions were scattered elsewhere. No. 5,153 drew the third prize of $10,000, sold also in fifty-two fifths collected through Exchange Bank of Dallas, Texas, for Mr. A. E. Hall, salesman for Sanger Br. & Co., Dallas, and Mr. Fred Cheadle, also of Dallas; one to O. J. Ferris, of Cincinnati; one to Louis H. Kaubach, of Messrs. Stearns & Co., also of Cincinnati; and so it went with $225,000 worth of fortune lying in the direction of the lottery. The drawing was on Tuesday, March 10th, 1885, of which M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., will give all information on application. He is in due time.

Bismarck Sautbed for Once. Temple Bar. Bismarck once had to bear a snub from a young nobleman of the house of Hatfield. This gentleman, being left in charge of a legation during the absence of the minister, sent home a dispatch embodying views favorable to the policy which the chancellor had until then been pursuing toward the country where the attaché was residing. But it so chanced that the chief of the legation had been summoned to Berlin on purpose to receive instructions for a change of policy, so that when the attaché's despatch arrived it gave no pleasure in Wilhelmstrasse, and the chancellor spoke testily of its writer as a "Schafkopfer." Hearing this, the attaché resigned. He was a young man of high spirit, who had many friends at court, and it was pointed out to the chancellor by an august peace-maker that the young fellow had not been very well treated. Somewhat grudgingly--for he does not like to make amends--the chancellor was induced to send his secretary to the ex-attaché offering to re-appoint him. But the recipient of this dubious favor drew himself up stiffly and said: "Germany has not fallen to so low a point that she needs to be served by Schafkopfer, and for the rest you may tell the chancellor that I have not been trained to turn somersaults. PILLS! PILLS! PILLS! A SURE CURE FOUND AT LAST! NO ONE NEED SUFFER. A sure cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 or 30 years standing. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment absorbs the tumors, alieves itching, (particularly at night after getting warm in bed), and is prepared only for Piles, itching of the private parts, and for minor ailments. Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry, of Cleveland, says about Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment: "I have used scores of Pile Ointments, and afford me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment. CANTON, GA., February 6.--A story has just come to light here which affords much amusement to natives at the expense of three Boston dudes, whose connection with the opening of a Geor. in near the quarry has brought them here. Their names are John Smith, Edw. Ammen and Henry Rindard. They have had much amusement with mountain hooters and delighted in showing off their superior recompliments. While on their way to Tate's Wednesday morning they met two harmless-looking boys, who were bareheaded and with but one pair of trousers, and were struggling to tow a boatload of lumber in front of them and ordered them to dance to a Massachusetts juba. When the mountaineers became satisfied that the Bostonians were in earnest, they pulled out two ugly-looking revolvers and arranged the program by ordering the dudes to dance. Thinking to humor the joke and thus escape easily, they danced a while, but the boys would not let them halt. For two hours, under cover of mountain revolvers, the Boston boys danced such a jig as has never before been seen. When the time was up one of the mountaineers exclaimed: "Now run. The Bostonians were only to get to do so, and reached town footsore and weary, and are now seeking legal redress. Lino: Kim Club, Deter: Free Press. Elder Toots having got most of his feet under the redhot stove, and Colonel Cahoots having succeeded in knocking down a bust of Plato and wrecking $500 worth of rollers, Brother Gardner arose and said: "What I hanker arter am to meet plumb up an' down man. Dar' am pussions in dis club who wobble about like a loose wagon wheel. One day dey greet you wid a grin as soft as June, an' de nex' day dey doan' know you as you pass de street. De doan' mean to hurt no man's feelings, but I mean to be mean. "If Whalbone Howler should come ober to my house an' ax de loan of a dollar I wouldn't keep him on de looks for half an hour for a decision. I should at once reply to him: 'Whalbone, de man who uses money alrned by his wife st' de wash tub to buy lottery tickets can't get no dollar outa me.' When a man axes my religion I doan' bust around' de bush to find out if he has found a short cut to heaben, but I denounce myself as a Baptist, an' take my chances by de ole road. "When yes or no doan' hesitate to say so. Dean' be leasin' no way one day an' som' oder way on de nex' day. De man who knows whaf to find you won't go away mad, when you decide agin him. Our Samuel Shin am one day gwite to be a statesman, an' on de nex' he's gwine to open a saloon wid a gilded ceiling. One day you will find him a Methodist an' de nex' you will see him devourin' a Universal salted sermon. Meet him in de morning an' he am a ferocious republican; cotch him in de afternoon an' he am a good democrat. "De plumb up an' down. If you am sot on bein' good stick to it. If you am bluff on bein' hap doan' let de purleuce bluff you off. If you like a man tell him he can't have de use of your arm or shoul'r all summer. If you can't be coon' wid him, ax him to buy or sell out an' take some oder cow-paw. De wobbly man am a pusion to be shunned. Tryin' to do bizness wid him am wasted labor trown away. Your Good Wife, Sir. The best treasure a man can possess is a good wife. He who has such a treasure ought to do his very best to keep her in perfect health. Invalid ladies are sometimes great sufferers. Worry and overwork perform marvels of mischief for most American women. Brown's Iron Bitters works wonders of recovery for the pale, the languid, and the debilitated. Mrs. Lulu Weston, 191 Market street, Indianapolis, says: "I used Brown's Iron Bitters for general debility and weakness, and am entirely cured."

The Meanest Kind of a Man. Cleveland leader. Mr. George M. Roberts, mayor of the city of Lawrenceburg, Ind., was recently accused of having appropriated $1,000 of money contributed to the people of that place as relief from the floods of last year. He is supposed to have committed the crime, alleged that he placed $200 in his private pocket, and the rest was not needed, and that he will keep the other $800 for the next flood. This is the very meanest kind of robbery. Mayor Roberts should not only be impeached, but a long term in the penitentiary would be a very fitting thing to round off his public services. Manufacturers as Tariff Reformers. New York Times, February 5. Given free raw materials and the wide market which would be opened by a liberal tariff, and the energy, the invention, the aptitude for business, the trained shrewdness and self reliance of the American would have nothing to fear from any competitor. The forces that have hitherto maintained the indiscriminate big duties on imports are divided among themselves, and the division is daily becoming more serious. It was only twenty years ago that the opponents of the high tariff were almost wholly students. Later it was supposed that the field in which the opposit rapidly was the agricultural region of the west. To-day the most earnest, and equipped and most formidable of the assailants of the tariff are manufacturers, and they will be found irrevocable. The first complete sewing machine was patented by Elias Howe in 1846. Smoke Seal of North Carolina Tobacco

TRY YOUR LUCK! And Don't Lose This Chance. For this Year Only. The best opportunity ever offered to try your luck in these hard times. In order to give the public in general the advantage with a small sum of money, to participate in a real German Money Lottery, guaranteed and sanctioned by the German government, we offer five to six original tickets which we have made into 10 different numbers of the 257, Hamburg Lottery, in club plays and sell them for the small sum of $5 as long as we have some on hand. The tickets are good for the last three principal drawings which commence March 11, 1885, and terminate on May 13, 1885. This Lottery has been for over 113 years in existence; has one hundred thousand tickets and fifty thousand 500 winning numbers which is over one half the actual amount of tickets. Each holder of tickets receives, after the drawings, the Original List, also the amount of the prize if won. We hope, as we give 10 different numbers, that every ticket holder, on receipt of the winning list, will be satisfied with the result. The capital prizes are mark 500,000, 300,000, 200,000, 100,000, 50,000, 20,000, 10,000, etc., the smallest being 145 mark. It is of interest to each and everyone to invest as soon as possible before the tickets are all sold. Remit either by Post-office order or draft and tickets will be forwarded at once. Original tickets of the Hamburg & Bremen and Saxon, constantly on hand. C. E. S. HEMDT & CO. 62 Congress Street, Detroit, Mich.
