closing at 1 per cent.

Prime mercantile paper—4@5.

Sterling Bills—Quiet and unchanged at 1@3.

Sterling Exchange—Demand 4@6.

Governments—Dull, but firm, except for the three, which were 1 per cent higher.

Business was dull.

Stocks—Quiet and strong. The week passed at the stock exchange was without material change in the general situation; prices were up 2 per cent lower. Nothing new has been developed since Saturday to influence values, but a persistent selling movement, in which Lackawanna led, drove quotations in the first half hour from 1 to 2 per cent as compared with last week. Lackawanna declined to 94.
Later there was a general advance and this stock touched 94½, making a gain from the lowest point in the day 4½. The market came extremely feverish and unsettled toward the close. The street was well supplied with rumors, including a report that Gould and S.
V. White had disagreed as to the policy to be pursued, and that the former was, therefore, not lending further support to prices. The report is now pretty generally believed. Taking twenty-six of the active stocks, the losses since Saturday in a majority of cases will not exceed 2 per cent either way.
