DR. MILLER has the consolation of knowing that better men than he were left out of the cabinet.

The editors are coming to the front. William Henry Hurlbut, formerly editor of the New York World, will probably succeed Mr. Astor as minister to Italy.

MR. CLEVELAND is said to like the views from the white house windows. The man who, as president, can look from the white house windows is not likely to find any fault with the surrounding scenery.

It is said that President Cleveland has expressed a desire to put Judge Thurman on the supreme bench in case of a vacancy occurring during his term. Such an appointment would certainly do honor to the supreme court, and reflect credit upon Mr. Cleveland.

The women suffragists still continue to make themselves heard and felt. They have succeeded in inducing the lower house of the legislature of Rhode Island to pass a resolution submitting to the electors that state a constitutional women suffrage amendment.

DISAPPOINTED cabinet aspirants are now hunting for secondary positions. Congressman Money, of Mississippi, who wanted to be postmaster-general is endeavoring to secure the position of first assistant.

THERE are now five vacancies in the United States senate. Bayard, Lamar and Garland have stepped into the cabinet. Logan's term has expired, and Oregon has failed to elect.

THE inter-state exposition, which is to be held in Omaha this fall, promises to be a gigantic success. The enthusiasm with which our leading citizens are taking hold of the enterprise, is rather surprising.

RHODE ISLAND is agitating the subject of a new constitution. Under the present constitution a foreign born citizen is obliged to own $134 worth of real estate before he can vote.

DURING the cold days of the long and unbroken winter—the severest known for years—we predicted that "Old Probabilities" would be court-martialed before spring.

ACCORDING to the recent decision of the supreme court of California Chinese children born in the United States cannot be excluded from the public schools of the state, and this opinion was affirmed by Justice Field, sitting as circuit justice in California.

"OBJECTOR" Holman has managed to provide for himself this summer a snug trip at the public expense. He is chairman of the special committee to investigate the Indian schools and the management of the Yellowstone park.

LAPSED LAND CLAIMS.

The supreme court of the United States has rendered an important decision in regard to the status of lapsed homestead and pre-emption claims within the limits of railroad land grants. It will be remembered that those sections which have been partly filed upon by homesteaders or pre-emptors were excepted from the grant and an equal quantity of land, located elsewhere, was given to the railroad instead.

COUNCILMAN WOODWORTH is at his old tricks. He is soliciting signatures to petitions for sandstone to be used on Farnam street and Sherman avenue.

ONE of the big federal prizes is the New York postoffice. The term of Postmaster Pearson expires on the 21st of this month, and there are, of course, a host of applicants for the position.

THE Union Pacific sandstone ring is again at work in its effort to force sandstone upon the streets of Omaha. If any person wants to see how sandstone wears let him go down on Ninth street, and he will be convinced that it is not a durable material.

THE April Century will contain a reply to Mr. George W. Cable's recently published and much discussed article on the "Freedman's Case in Equity." It is entitled, "In Plain Black and White," and is written by Mr. Henry W. Grady, one of the editors of the Atlanta Constitution.

A RED OAK RAID.

Large Quantities of Forty-rod and State Beer Confiscated. The Saloonists Convicted and Fined $050—Some Tail Lying in the Court.

RED OAK, IOWA, March 9.—Red Oak has had her share of excitement lately. In common with all other Iowa cities she had an election of city officers or "Dads." The question of license or prohibition entered largely into the contest and both sides are claiming the victory.

THE plan of expressing the popular choice for postmaster by a primary election is growing in favor with the democrats all over the country. Already such elections have been held in numerous towns and villages, and now we see that Allentown and other places in Pennsylvania propose to follow this course.

THE office-seekers are beginning to hold indignation meetings on the street corners and the hotel corridors and bar-rooms of Washington. There is a general howl all along the line because Cleveland does not immediately give to every man an office upon demand.

IT was a gentleman from Texas who wrote himself down in black and white as "a bigger man than Grant." It is that is said about Col. Lamont is true he is evidently considered by his admiring friends to be "a bigger man than Cleveland."

THE Distance Between the Head and Tail. Springfield (Mass.) Republican. Those who have talked with him say that under the veil of high regard and respect they discern evident signs of his hostility to Cleveland.

PEA RIDGE.

Twenty-Third Anniversary of a Memorable Battle. St. Louis Republican. Twenty-three years ago the battle of Pea Ridge, in Benton county, Arkansas, comprising three days, the 7th, 8th and 9th of March, 1862, was fought between the federal forces under Gen. Samuel R. Curtis, and the confederate forces under Gen. Earl Van Dorn.
