

THE DAILY BEE

Saturday Morning, May 2.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Col. H. B. Burnham has changed his residence from No. 1004 Idaho street to 2002 California street.
-Fredrick, Leasing Hatter, Farnam & 13th.
-The entertainment which was to have occurred Thursday night at the South Omaha M. E. church was postponed. The date will soon be announced. Tickets may be redeemed or held will be good for the entertainment.
-County Commissioner Timme, is the possessor of a curiosity with "millions in it," if P. T. Barnum was the owner. The other day one of Mr. Timme's brood sows gave birth to a litter of pigs, and among them is one with a double lower jaw and two well developed tonques.
-Store your stoves with Eaton 111 S. 14th.
-John Reed, one of the white men pulled night before last for being found in an opium den, was discharged yesterday morning by proving that he was there simply to get his washing. When he went to the Chinese domicile it so happened that fifteen or twenty of them were then engaged in an exciting game of cards known only to that race, and Reed saw so much money changing hands there in such short spaces of time that he got interested, lingered to look on and the first thing he knew was nabbed by an officer.
-Officer Duff Green arrested yesterday morning near the depot a supposed con man giving his name as William Bryant. He was in the act of doing up an old man who doubtless in a few moments longer would have fallen a victim to the wiles of the sharper. Bryant, when arrested, had on his person over $1,000 of confederate money and a bogus check on a Denver bank. He is recognized by the police as the man "John Smith," who swindled a rustic some time ago out of $61, but was released as no direct evidence could be adduced of his guilt. Yesterday afternoon Judge Stenberg fined the gentleman $20 and sentenced him to 20 days in jail.
-Picture Cards and advertising novelties at Cotter's Printing House, 1314 Douglas.
-W. P. Peck & Co., brokers, received the following special yesterday afternoon from Avery, Hillbrandt & Co. concerning the Chicago market: "No quotations in console, owing to the holiday. Absence of war news led to a sharp decline at the opening. Values ruled firm until noon, when a further decline inaugurated by cables quoting wheat six pence lower. Trade light and local crowd selling. These breaks are to be expected after any material advance, but the situation appears stronger daily. California crop advices show but little over half a crop. The reported exports from this market to-day of 100,000 bushels of wheat. Unless we have fresh war excitement we may have a sharper decline, but regard long side as the safest and most promising. Corn dull but firm. Provisions weak and tending lower.
-Drs. Dinmore & Worley, homeopaths, No. 111 North Fifteenth street. Tel. 140.
-George Kaell, one of the rustling members of the constabulary, effected an attachment settlement in a very neat way yesterday. Thursday he went to the residence of one Frank N. Stewart to serve an attachment on his household goods, to cover a $100 judgment, gained in Judge Welsa's court by Shiverick the furniture man. He found that Stewart had sold his property to the second hand dealer, Henry Spiegel, and had received his money in a check on the Omaha National bank. Mr. K. surmising that Stewart would leave town yesterday, drawing his money before he left, went to the bank and when he presented the check for payment promptly cashed him. Stewart settled and was released.
-Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock Albin Stolle, the North Platte man accused of swindling M. Toft, was brought up before Judge Anderson for hearing. He pleaded not guilty, but when Mr. Toft was put on the stand he refused to give any incriminating testimony, and the case had been settled. Under the circumstances Judge Anderson could do nothing but discharge the prisoner. Deputy Sheriff Crowell, who was present immediately rearrested Stolle on a complaint preferred by W. E. Beach of the North Platte bank, from whom it is alleged, he stole $10,000 when in the employ of that institution, besides confiscating the $15,000 security bond which he had given for the faithful performance of his duties. Mr. Beach returned last night to North Platte in company with Deputy Sheriff Crowell who will escort the prisoner.
-A Shot in the Dark.
-About 12 o'clock Thursday night a negro came rushing into the detective office of Emery & Showalter and said he had killed a man out at Man's road house on the military road. It seems that there had been a party of four out at the road house, two young men and two women. One of the men had "frozen to" the sealink and the other had pulled his partner and pushed out into the yard with it. The colored cook saw the act, and dropping his skillet and frying pans, seized a revolver and pursued the thief. He fired one shot at the ground and the thief then turned around, and pulling his own revolver, fired at the negro, who, however, fled and made good his escape. The terrified negro ran into town, insisting that he had killed the thief. Diligent search of the premises, however, failed to show the existence of any corpse, and it is supposed that the rascal managed to make his escape with the sealink.
-A Contract Let.
-At their meeting yesterday afternoon the county commissioners granted a contract to Mr. Cotts for the building of a retaining wall around the court house square, the price named being $10,000. The work is to be completed in 90 days. This contract also includes the construction of the granite stairway on Farnam street. The face of the wall is to be of Berea stone.
-The Barrios Party.
-The long heralded and long expected car bearing Gen. Jacob Baiz, Mrs. Barrios, wife of the dead general and the rest of the party, was not attached to the overland train yesterday morning. The Union Pacific officials are unable to state what has become of the party, and have received no advices on that point. It is supposed that they may be delayed at Salt Lake or at Denver for one reason or another.
-The Hyemometer.
-Its delicate index hands are equiver with suppressed fire and excitement the anticipation of spring away its victims. Ah! They are moving.
-Glancing at the instrument the observer may discern, all aglow in red letters, the names of a bookkeeper in a Tenth street wholesale grocery house and the daughter of a prominent contractor resident on Harney street linked in delightful union. This gentleman has been going on fifteen cent lunches for the past ten days to save enough to pay for the white silk necktie.
-Again, in hands of the instrument are revolving. This time they stop in front of the names of a well known young society man, and connected with the stockpiper's office of the Union Pacific, at the shop, and a school teacher at Brownell hall. The marriage license will soon be forthcoming.
-Again the hands are turning. This time, says the instrument, a well-known western stock man is sweetly cavorting around a school marm in Brownell hall, that palace of the fair, which is so replete with the future

SOCIAL SHADOWS.

Reflections of Events that Have Been and Are To Be.

Chinamen in Court--Morning Police Business.
It is doubtful whether a police judge ever had a more strangely motley throng before him for trial than Judge Stenberg had yesterday morning. The opium smokers and their friends were there in all their glory, the larger element of the throng, of course, being the "heathen Chinee."
Four vagrants were arraigned. Three were discharged and ordered to leave town, while the fourth, an old offender, James Allen, was sent up to the county jail.
Annie Corrigan was fined $5 and costs for intoxication.
At this juncture the audience was regaled by the sight of eighteen Chinamen filing into court, to answer the charges preferred for the first time in the history of the city of Omaha--those of "keeping opium joints, or being inmates thereof." Nearly all of the Celestials had, through friends, obtained lawyers, and in every case a continuance was secured, as none of the cases were ready for trial.
For the especial edification of the reader, the names of the sleepy sons of the Flowery Kingdom are reproduced:
Hi Chung, Lang Ching, George Chinaman, Hong Lee, Tom Chinaman, Wang Ching, Wah Sing, Suh Wah, Tong, Wah, Shuh, Leo Gib, Yough, Stone Hi, Wing Lee, Sing, Jim Gough.
About half of them were released on bail, while the others are still in jail awaiting trial.
In the county court yesterday evening the case of State vs. John Flannigan, was on trial before Judge McCallough. It is a suit for trespass.
DISTRICT COURT.
Judge Wakeley gave up most of his time yesterday listening to arguments in the case of Margarette C. Cummings vs. The City of Omaha. It was finally left in this shape, that plaintiffs have ten days to make and submit their briefs and defendants will have five days in which to perform a similar duty.
Following is the record of the days business:
Murphy vs. Murphy et al., settled and dismissed.
Cummings et al. vs. The City of Omaha et al. Plaintiffs and defendants given ten and five days each to submit their briefs.
Davis vs. Proctor et al. Motion to set aside sale. Sustained.
In the matter of the estate of I. N. Isaacs, deceased. Dismissed without prejudice.
Joseph E. Baker vs. Geo. E. Pretchell. Motion for judgment on verdict, overruled.
Jones vs. Gue. Order vacating decree. Jones vs. Noyce and Jones vs. Gilbert. Same order.
Beauty, that transitory flower, can only be had by using Pozzoni's Medicated Complexion Powder.
A WRECK AT GILMORE.
An Extra Freight Train Collides with the Morning Freight on the Missouri Pacific.
Particulars were received in this city yesterday of an accident which occurred on the U. P. at Gilmore, six miles beyond Omaha.
At five minutes after six o'clock an extra freight, eastbound, on the U. P., manned by Conductor Donnelly and Engineer Devine, rushed past the Gilmore siding at a rate of speed almost unslackened. The No. 40 Missouri Pacific, eastbound freight, was just pulling off the siding. The extra, of course, struck the freight squarely and six cars were thrown off the track and badly wrecked, the engine of the extra also being derailed and ditched.
The damage from the wreck was considerable though it cannot be estimated at this writing. Two cars of grain on No. 40 were broken open and the contents partially ruined. A number of heads of stock were killed. A wrecking train was dispatched at eight o'clock, and speedily set to work to clean up the debris, the train in the meantime passing Gilmore on the siding. There were no lives lost, nor so far as can now be determined, was anybody injured.
The responsibility for the accident is thought to rest upon the crew of the extra who should have slackened speed when passing Gilmore. Until, however, official investigation of the matter can be had, no discharges will be made.

THE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.
The City Council Meets in a Special Session.
The city council held the first of a series of special sessions yesterday morning, as a board of equalization. The object was to hear the complaints of tax payers in sewer districts Nos. 13, 15, and 19, who claim that the late sewer levy was illegal and who demand a readjustment of the tax. City Engineer Rosewater and City Attorney Connell were present as well as Mr. Warren Switzer and Judge Lake and a number of tax-payers who addressed the council on the subject of the sewer tax grievances. Judge Lake being requested to give his opinion on the subject at issue, said that to the best of his information and belief, he had the right to tax the property in any district for the full cost of the sewers which are therein constructed.
The council has divided itself into committees, who will hold sessions alternately, and this obviates the necessity of all members meeting at the same time. In the afternoon final decision will probably be rendered, and all who have complaints to make about sewer taxes should govern themselves accordingly.
Seal of North Carolina Tobacco is the best.

WHAT IS TO BE DONE?

A conversation between a well known clothier and a member of the Omaha Press:
CLOTHIER.--"Cap, what is to be done, to overcome this Rival of the clothing trade?
GENTLEMAN OF THE PRESS.--"Of whom do you speak?
C.--"Why, those Misfit Clothing Parlors, 1312 Douglas St., they have come here and through judicious management have taken more than two thirds of the Omaha trade. They have knocked the ready-made business clear out, while the merchant tailors can't find employment for the people in their employ on account of their loss of trade.
G. of the P.--"How do they do that? Can't you people compete with them?
C.--"Compete with them! For us it is impossible, as they sell Merchant Tailor Made Goods for less than our ready made prices. In fact, they sell the goods made by the tailors, even right here at home for less than it costs to make them. Look at this:

G. of the P.--Do they ever have anything like a Spring Overcoat?
-Spring Overcoats? Well I should say they have, and the most elegant seen, and at prices which knock the bottom clear out of all of us.
G. of the P.--Well, I need a light overcoat. I'll go and see them; I may get one in them.
You are sure to, for they are most liberal in that line, and to say the least afford set of people.
G. of the P.--What is the style of the firm?

The company have again concluded to put on sale 1,000 lots, and let the purchasers of the same realize the profit which the enhanced value of these lots is sure to make. It now being an assured fact that South Omaha is destined--in the near future--to be the largest live stock market west of Chicago, there can be no doubt that this property in a few years will be worth five or seven times the amount that it can be bought for today.
Some may ask: If this is so, why do not the company keep it and realize this profit? The answer is, that in order to make lots valuable, there must be improvements on or around the town site as well as at the stock yards. The Thirteenth street horse cars will run to Hancock's park this spring, and to the stock yards on distant day. The high altitude makes the location a healthy one.
Of course there are those who do not believe that South Omaha will amount to much. This kind of people didn't believe Chicago would ever be anything better than a cranberry bog, that Omaha would ever outgrow her village clothes, that there never could be any fruit raised in Nebraska, etc., etc. Who made it win! The sceptic, or those that had an abiding faith in the energy, intelligence and resources of this great country?
