CONCLUDED.

The Episcopal Church Council Brought Its Annual Meeting to an End Yesterday.

The Episcopal church council was in session again yesterday, but concluded the busines at 3 o'clock and adjourned sine die.

Like the two preceding days, but very little actual business was transacted, most of the time being devoted to lengthy discussions of matters coming up under the head of legisla-

The session was opened at 9 o'clock a, m. with communion services. Then followed the election of a diocesan committee, whose duty it would be, in case the bishop should die, to take charge of the diocess's affairs. Dean F. R. Millspaugh, Recter James Paterson and Ray. H. B. Barges were selected as the clerical members of that committee, with G. Clark, O. M. Carter and C. W. Mead as the lay members.

A resolution, thanking the people of Omaha for their hospitable attentions towards the visiting clergy and delegates, was offered and Passed.

The bishop nominated and the cauncil confirmed Dr. John McNamara, D. D., of N.rth Platte, and Rev. Alexander Allen, of Lincoln, honorary members of the canon of the cathedral, and Major Wheeler lay delegate at larve to the cathedral chapter.

An amendment was made in the canon rules, which will hence forth permit women to vote at the vestry elections. A motion to amend the rules, allowing lay delegates to vote in the council, called forth a long discussion, but it was yoted down. Adjourned.

THE DEAF AND DUMB.

Seventh Annual Concert Exercises of IN BOXES. Price 25 cts. the State Asylum,

A very pleasant event occurred yesterday afternoon out at the state deaf and dumb asvlum, it being the seventh annual concert exercises of that institution. About one hundred city people enjoyed the ride and were in attendance. The programme, an interesting one, opened with a song by the superintendent and teachers, the words of which the pupils repeated in their own style. Then followed a series of declamations, dialogues, lip practices, etc., ending finally with a rendi-tion, in the deaf and dumb language, of the Lord's prayer. It was all very nice, and those who drove out to see it were well entertained. The institution is in a flourishing condition, and has at present about twenty-five pupils. On the 27th of this month they will be given a vacation to go and visit their several homes.

-A warrant was issued from Judge Bart lett's court yesterday for the arrest of J. W Heath, firm of Heath & Adkinson, No. 1725 Fourteenth street. He is charged of having appropriated to his own use about $50 of the firm's money. The arrest was not made yes erday for the reason that Mr. Heath could

A Bunaway at Night. About 2 o'clock this morning one o Stephenson's fancy double teams, with a light buggy attached to them, dashed up Douglas street like a burst of judgment, skattering pieces of the buggy here and there in their wake. At Fourteenth they turned south to Harney, thence west again three or four blocks and south to Jackson, before ending their wild flight. The vehicle was torn to pieces.

It was learned last evening from a gentletleman who was on the inside and knows, that this turn of affairs in court, taken by J. Gould yesterday, means a forclosure and sale of the Hastings & Grand Island road, and that in all probability it will hereafter be operated as a part of the St. Joe & Western. M. T. Dennis, New England agent for the Union Pacific road, with headquarters at Boston, arrived here last night and is a guest of the Millard. Mr. Dennis is accompanied by his wife, a very pleasant lady.
