

VICTORIOUS TURNERS.

Return of the Lucky Omahans from the Atchison Turnfest.

Tuesday evening the delegation of Omahans, and the representation of the local Turner society, returned from Atchison, where the grand turnfest had been in progress since Saturday. The victorious members and their friends were met at the depot by the Musical Union orchestra and escorted to the hall of the society, where an informal reception was held.

The Omahans return home jubilant on account of their success. The members who went to the fest were C. T. Gromme, Robert Rosenzweig, F. J. Lange, G. F. Elmer, A. Moran and W. Schulz. Four of the prizes were carried off by them, two of the first-class, one of the second and one of the third. The prize winners were C. T. Gromme for high jumping, and hop skip and jump, F. T. Lange, who took the second prize for hop skip and jump, and the class took the fourth prize for general turning. The class did well in all exercises, but was beaten by the Kansas City class in the matter of climbing.

The Omahans were cordially received at Atchison and were given a banquet in the night of their arrival in the city, on the occasion of which the following address was delivered by Governor Glick. He was followed by the mayor of Topeka. On the 24th a grand picnic was held at which the gymnastic and calisthenic exercises of the Turners formed the central feature. The prize contests continued until Monday evening and were brought to a close with a grand ball in the garden of the Turners which was thronged to overflowing with the members of the society and their friends. The street parades was an immense affair, several bands of music being in line. Altogether the occasion was one long to be remembered, and the Omahans Turners especially are to be congratulated upon the very creditable success which they represented the metropolis of Nebraska.

Police Court.
In the police court yesterday morning George Collins was arraigned for dumping manure on the river bottoms. He had been told not to do it by a police officer, but persisted in disobeying the injunction. He was fined $5 and costs. Judge Stenberg says that he intends to deal summarily with this class of cases and will show no mercy.

Robert Homer, an old granger from the interior of the state, had accumulated to the temptation of too much beer Tuesday night and had landed in the city jail in a hopeless state of intoxication. He pleaded guilty, and was fined $3 and costs. Released upon payment.

The event of the morning session was the trial of Jack Ford, a bear trainer, for cruelty to a bear which he had in his possession. The man was seen beating the animal cruelly Tuesday afternoon on St. Mary's avenue and at the request of some of the residents in the neighborhood he was arrested by Officer Fuller. The bear, tired and heated, had lain down and refused to perform his usual tricks at the command of his master.

The cruel man was brought into court and caused considerable amusement by his odd pranks. He testified in a mute way to the cruelty of his master, and human witnesses supplemented the evidence of brute brutes, with oral testimony.

Ford was fined $5 and costs.

The gas burners in the new court house were all lighted and tested yesterday. That magnificent structure will be a blaze of beauty to-night.

The Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha road is hauling an immense amount of lumber into Omaha.

President Charles Perkins, of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road, was in the city yesterday.

COURT OULINGS.

The Snyder Assignee Matter Finally Settled Entirely.

William Snyder, the carriage manufacturer who failed last winter and made an assignment, yesterday completed making his settlements and paid the money over to Judge McCullough of the county court. The record will be completed to-day, and the money ready for distribution to whom it belongs to-morrow.

Two new suits, as follows, were commenced yesterday afternoon, examining the architects drawings of the new court house to see if they have been fully carried out, preparatory to receiving the building to-day. The architect was present, but declared that he has not written a speech for delivery to-day, so if the reporters want to get what he says they will have to catch him on the fly. The commissioners seem to feel satisfied that all the details of the plans have been accurately followed in the construction of the building. A force of men and women were at work scrubbing floors, washing off furniture, and making everything shine, so as to present a bright and attractive appearance to-day. The gilt lettering over various department doors was completed. The law library has been moved in and nicely shelved, and every official about the great temple is happy.
