MEMORIAL EXERCISES HELD YESTERDAY

Afternoon Given Over to Sones and Recitations Instead of the Usual Round of Books and Examinations.

Memorial day exercises were held vesterseveral school buildings were tastefully decorated with the national colors, the decorations at the Washington avenue and Bloomer schools being particularly elaborate. The programs, which were the work of the pupils, are deserving of special mention, on the covers being designs in pen and ink work, most of them of a patriotic character, each tied with a little bow of red, white and blue ribbon. At the Bloomer and Washington avenue schools the usual commencement exercises of the pupils of the eighth grade, who advance to the High school, were foregone on account of the Memorial day exercises. These will go from the Bloomer and Washington avenue schools into the High school this year:

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

Mayor Ensor is working on a scheme by which he hopes to abate the smoke nuisance As it is now great volumes of black smoke constantly rise from the stacks at the packing houses and with the addition of the four big stacks at Armour's the nuisance will be greater than ever.

Frequently in the mornings a dense cloud of smoke hangs over the city, completely obscuring the stock yards and packing houses. The plan proposed by the mayor is not the installing of smoke consumers, but the employment of mechanical stokers. This device shoves the fresh coal beneath the fire and it becomes thoroughly coaked before it ignites. It is stated by Mayor Ensor that the system he is in favor of i used largely in the east, not so much to prevent the issuing of smoke from stacks a in the interest of economy. While the mayor says that the council has the power to compel the packers to use smoke connecessity for passing ordinances declaring the smoke a nuisance and ordering the nuisance abated.
