DO NOT GUARANTEE HONESTY

Counsel for Sureties in Eugene Moore Case File Their Brief.

LIABLE ONLY FOR HIS OFFICIAL ACTS

They Are Not Responsible for Any Transactions by Moore Outside of His Duties as State Auditor.

LINCOLN, June 3.—(Special.)—The counsel for the sureties in the Eugene Moore bond case have filed their brief with the clerk of the supreme court.

It is clear from the language quoted that the sureties upon the bond bound themselves only to make good the loss of money received by their principal by virtue of his office and by authority of law.

It is finally urged that the sureties are estopped to deny the constitutionality of the law under which the fees were received.

In this case Field & Brown appear as attorneys for the sureties and Brome & Burnett appear for Moore.

Representative P. F. Loomis of Butler county was a caller at the state house today.

Deputy State Superintendent Beck addresses the graduating class at Scribner tonight.

Mrs. Ira Noble of Chariton, Ia., who ran away from her home with a man named McCullough, is held at the police station awaiting the arrival of her father, E. S. Buffington of Chariton. Her husband is already here, and it is believed he will forgive his recalcitrant spouse and take her home.

RAISING THE BRYAN REGIMENT.

Adjutant General Barry Issues a Circular Letter of Instruction.

LINCOLN, June 3.—(Special.)—Adjutant General Barry today issued the following circular letter:

Persons named on general orders No. 19, A. G. O., are hereby informed that the Nebraska National Guard has accepted for service by the president of the United States, and the several companies composing this regiment will be recruited to the maximum number prescribed by law, viz. 106 enlisted men.

Company officers will be as follows: Captain, one; first lieutenant, one; second lieutenant, one; first sergeant, one; sergeant, four; corporals, twelve; musicians, two; artificer, one; bugler, one; drummer, one; eighty-four. Total strength of company, 109.

It is suggested to all recruiting officers, as well as to the temporary company commanders, that they should make inquiry at this office whether or not their company would be permitted to elect company officers, and in reply to the above I desire to call your attention to section 4, chapter 1, Session Laws 1897, governing election of officers.

Last evening the annual graduation exercises of the South Omaha High school were held at the First Methodist Episcopal church. The class was composed of Christine Condon, Lina Lota Cox, Sadie L. Fowler, Anna R. Levy, Mary Edith Rawley, R. Earl Smith and Charles E. Wells. Scarlet and cream, the class colors, formed a large part of the decorations and neat bows of the colors were worn by many of the parents and friends of the graduates.

Hubbard Takes Vengeance.

ALFRED, Me., June 3.—Louis Martels, Nebraska, was taken to this forenoon, having completed a term to which he was sentenced for a misdemeanor in which Mrs. Joseph Glendon was involved, was shot and probably fatally injured as he was leaving the jail by the husband of the woman. Officers who witnessed the shooting followed Glendon, who when he found that he could not escape, placed the revolver with which he had shot Martels against his own breast and fired a bullet through his heart. He died instantly.

Elephant Kills its Keeper.

RACINE, Wis., June 3.—Joe Anderson, the elephant keeper with Wallace Bros.' circus, was killed here today by one of the elephants that became wild. The animal broke away and chased the whole police force and an excited crowd of citizens.
