

POLITICAL POLICE REFORM

Result of Methods Now Being Used by Governor Holcomb's Board.

INOFFENSIVE CITIZENS SUFFER DAILY

Brutal Incorrections in Uniform Exercise Their Authority Without Judgment and on Very Slight Provocation at Times.

The result of the appointment of new and inexperienced men to the police force simply because of the political pull it being seen almost daily in the frightful blunders made out of ignorance or worse.

Only Saturday night last Will Felber, bookkeeper for the Crane-Churchill company, narrowly escaped being driven to jail in the patrol wagon by an officious patrolman.

Mr. Felber was naturally surprised and asked what he meant. The new policeman replied that Felber had been using indecent language and added hotly that if he persisted in his intemperate speech, he (the patrolman) would run him in.

Another Aggravated Case. An equally unpleasant experience was met with a few nights ago by George Molner, Anton Armstrong and Elmer Wolfe, who suffered from the ignorance and drunkenness of two of the police board's political proteges.

When the prisoners told their story to the night captain at the station they were so evidently innocent of any offense that the captain was unwilling to believe that they had been taken to bring in the arresting officers, but the driver was only able to find one and after inquiring further the captain sent the young men home.

Still another victim of reform police ignorance and poor judgment was a woman known to be respectable and well connected who was taken to the station on Saturday afternoon.

Board of Education Backs Up on the Prohibitory Clause.

NEW AGREEMENT WILL BE WITHOUT THE SPECIAL FEATURE OF THE ONE NOW IN USE—SITE FOR THE PACIFIC SCHOOL.

Eleven members of the Board of Education attended to the regular business of the board and some little new business last night.

It is now a feature of the contract that if a teacher marries during her term of service her contract is forfeited. The new teachers' contract will not contain this clause.

Immediately upon the convening of the meeting, Superintendent Pearce reported that he had conferred with the exposition management and that the members of that body had set aside next Monday and Wednesday as Children days at the exposition.

The principles of the Omaha schools were given permission to use one of the board rooms as a place for receiving visitors, teachers and instructors on the evening of June 20.

The appropriation sheet for May, aggregating $41,645.85, was passed. This included the sum of $10,961.15, the purchase price of the Cass school site.

The preliminaries for the purchase of a new site for the Pacific school were taken up for consideration. Mr. Burgess offered a resolution, instructing the secretary of the board to invite bids for lands within the following boundaries.

Miss Lyford was announced for resignation of teaching and her resignation was accepted. W. J. Taylor, principal of the High school, signified a desire to go east and study for a year, and he was granted a twelve months' leave of absence.

There was a goodly number of people around town during the day and a person did not have to be told to know that there was some extra attraction on the cards.

No great crowds, but a good amount of travel, came into the city at the Burlington station, Union depot and Webster street station during the morning.

The power of "Low Expenses" is once more demonstrated by this bona fide proof.

The "Guarantee" is selling a complete Ducking Suit at $1.35. Other stores incidentally handle the identical suit—from the same factory—bearing even the same stock number.

But they do not sell these suits at $1.35 as we do. You are made to pay more money for the privilege of trading in a big, high-toned store.

And here is a bona fide proof (thanks to the opportunity of being able to prove).

This suit is easily identified, being of a brown—quite large plaid. We say to you in a most positive tone that nearly all clothing dealers in Omaha sell this very suit and if anyone's price is as low as ours, we agree to put you into a new suit free of expense for your trouble.

Unless—most likely—in order to meet our prices or to spite us these pretty stores will reduce the cost. But we prove the cost of yesterday not the compulsory. It goes to convince that what is profit to this store is a loss to stores that require lots of profit to meet expenditures.
