Receptions, Banquets, Teas and Dinners Distract Attention from Almost Endless List of Brand New June Weddings.

The exposition is gradually making its impress upon the social world of Omaha and during the last week has divided honors with June weddings as the central at traction for society folk. What with receptions by the women of the entertainment committee at their rooms in the Mines and Mining building on the exposition grounds, teas, dinners, banquets and evening entertainments for visiting delegations to different conventions and other gatherings and the calendar has been pretty well filled. The exposition is also bringing in the sisters, cousins and aunts and unrelated friends who have been waiting the opportunity to accept the hospitality of Omaha households and these out-of-town visitors offer good excuses for devotion to society's shrine in a hundred and one ways.

The best part of this is that the pace promises to be quickened and maintained right through the exposition season. Illinois day will be full galore with receptions and banquets. Some of the local leaders, furthermore, are likely to organize several exposition novelties on the order of the entertainment the Chafing Dish club extended to itself at the Japanese Tea Garden last Friday evening.

A fresh young bud was heard to remark ing for weddings with the exposition extending inviting arms for every spare mo ment of leisure. Nevertheless the weddings are coming thick and fast and the end is Rosewater-Warner.

The marriage of Mr. Charles Colman Rosewater of Omaha and Miss Julia Alice Warner of Jamestown, N. Y., at the latter place Wednesday, June 15, brings another couple to the ranks of the younger married people who constitute an ever growing part of Omaha society. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. James G. Townsend of Brockway, O., at the beautiful new home of the bride's uncle. Mr. M. L. Fenton, who gave the bride away in the presence of nearly 200 invited guests.

The bride was attended by her sister Mrs. Charlotte Warner Adams of James town as matron of honor and Miss Mary Elizabeth Treadway and Miss Florence Compton Spencer of Cleveland and Miss Georgia Bartlett Murphy and Elizabeth Olive Breed of Jamestown as maids. The groom's brother, Mr. Victor Rosewater, acted as best man with ushers in the persons of Mr. Charles Somers Young of Omaha, Mr. Harry Drake Gibbs and Mr. James Parker Hall of Buffalo and Mr. Harry Wheeler Fenton of Jamestown. Mr. Charles Moriarty was best man. Rev. Father Smith of Council Bluffs preached the sermon. Wii-Moriarty, with a violin obligate by Mr.

Robert Cuscaden. The wedding breakfast was served at the rectory. Miss Moriarty has been a promnent teacher in our public schools for a number of years. Mr. and Mrs. Duggan will be at home after July 15 in Goodwin, Neb. High School Graduates.

The services last Sunday morning at All Saints' church will long be remembered by those fortunate enough to secure a seat in the church. The graduating class of the Omaha High school, to the number of 100, occupied the seats in the front and center of the church, marching in a body down the aisle. It was a beautiful sight to see the white robed girls with bright, intelligent faces as they joined in the service. While the girls far outnumbered the boys there was a sprinkling of the soberer costumes present, enough to set off the brighter raiment of the girls.

The church was crowded to the doors, even the rectory being despotled of all its chairs. The floral decorations were simple but effective, the work being done by Mrs. J. B. Reynolds and Miss Mona Martin. The choir rendered Shelley's anthem, "Holy! Holy! Holy! Lord God of Sabaoth," Mrs. G. W.

Johnston singing the obligate solo. The

MATTERS IN FEDERAL COURT

Trial of Rising City Postoffice Robbers is About Ended-Other Cases Coming Up.

It is expected that the case of the Rising City postoffice robbers will be completed in federal court and on Monday the case of Smith against the Union Pacific receivers will be begun. George Smith, the plaintiff, while crossing the Union Pacific tracks at a grade crossing within the city limits of Smaha on July 23, 1894, was run into by a train and received injuries for which he asks $10,000 damages. Louis Priest of Winnepage was arrested by Deputy United States Marshal Allan for taking liquor to the Winnebago agency and selling it to Indians. He was given a hearing before Commissioner Slean and bound over. In default of ball he was brought to Omaha and placed in Jail. Deputy United States Marshal Allan went to Pender and arrested a number of persons who had gone to the Omaha agency and were living there in wagons selling liquor to the Indians and causing considerable disturbance. The party was composed of Lottle Stanley, E. E. Redmore, Grace Norton and Mollie Williams, and all of them were arraigned before Commissioner Sloan as were released with the understanding that they leave the agency immediately.
