ENDORSE EX-SPEAKER BYERS

Pottawattamie County Republicans Pledged to Him for Congressman.

RESULT OF YESTERDAY'S CONVENTION

Efforts of Others to Capture the Delegation Were Futile—Spencer Wins a Flattering Send-off for Attorney General.

Resolved. By the representatives of Pottawattamie county in convention assembled. That, recognizing the loyalty of Hon. H. W. Byers to the principles of republicanism and his ability and fitness to properly represent this district in congress, and believing as we do that his nomination for congress is a matter of public interest, the delegates this day chosen to the congressional convention are hereby instructed to vote for him and use their influence in securing his nomination.

The above resolution was carried by an overwhelming majority at the republican county convention held here yesterday, and ex-Speaker Byers will go before the congressional convention of the Ninth district with its twenty-five votes at his back. Mr. Byers had things practically all his own way in yesterday's convention, although the other candidates for congress were not without their friends.

The convention also unanimously endorsed the candidacy of Jacob Sims of this city for the office of attorney general, and he was authorized to select the names of the twenty-five delegates to the state convention, which meets at Dubuque September 1. The convention was remarkable for the enthusiasm and patriotic feeling displayed and all speeches dwelt largely on the war issue, paying glowing tributes to the statesmanlike administration of President McKinley and the bravery of the soldiers and sailors now at the front.

The following are the delegates selected by Mr. Sims to the state convention and ratified by yesterday's county convention:

John N. Baldwin—E. E. Hart, J. M. Treynor, William Arndt, John Lindt, J. J. Steadman, T. Flickinger, E. F. Philbrook, O. D. Wheeler, George S. Wright, Victor E. Bender, George H. Mays, C. M. Hart, J. G. Saunders, W. I. Smith, W. Mayvort, Finley Burkhardt, J. A. Patton, C. H. Brantlett, C. R. Hannan, Council Bluffs; L. E. Potter, Oakland; G. M. Putnam, Center; John Jenks, Avoca; W. H. Kilpatrick, Neola.

Other Changes Suggested. The delegates to the judicial convention are:

M. Harl, Frank Shinn, J. H. Garland, J. B. Matlock, J. R. Turner, A. J. Barlow, J. C. Sparger, Frank Turner, J. B. Johns, J. C. Sparger, First district; S. L. White, William Ribow, J. H. McCarty, J. L. Blanchard, T. H. Barndley, J. E. Lowery, J. E. Forsythe, Third district; J. W. Rowland, J. S. Smith, David Williams, Fourth district; L. B. Cousins, George Yancy, Fifth district; J. E. Hart, A. W. Askwith, I. N. Flickinger, W. F. Sapp, Sixth district; W. A. Groneweg, S. B. Hart, D. F. Farnsworth, Seventh district.

The delegates to the congressional convention are:

At large, C. F. Kimball, E. A. Consigney, H. M. Brown, J. B. Sweet, First district; J. L. Blanchard, T. H. Barndley, A. L. Preston, Second district; C. P. Swann, R. W. Wilson, Ed Post, Third district; W. F. Putnam, G. A. Stevens, Fourth district; H. Robertson, J. T. Barndley, John Grabbitt, Fifth district; C. G. Clifton, S. P. Shuart, J. W. Ferris, Sixth district; J. E. Hart, J. E. Forsythe, E. C. Brown, Seventh district; G. H. Scott, C. S. Byers, C. B. Randlett.

The following resolutions were adopted by the convention:

Resolved, That we commend all the political policies of the national administration, especially that making no discrimination on the basis of race, color or religion in the appointment of appointments in the military and naval services.

Resolved, That in the war which is being waged in behalf of the freedom of Cuba and in support of the conduct and success of every branch of the service. We, the republican party of this district, do hereby congratulate the heroic victory of Admiral Dewey and the heroism of Hobson and his comrades.

Resolved, That the republican party has demonstrated that its protective tariff is for the best interests of this nation.

That in the judgment of this convention the gold standard is the best and the only one that will stand the test of time and which will stand the test of time and which will stand the test of time.

That with renewed pledges on our part to the platform and policies of the republican party and unbounded faith in the patriotism, honor and ability of the republicans of Pottawattamie county we are more than hopeful, we are confident of success.

Late Getting Together. Owing to a delay in the arrival of the Rock Island upon which a number of the delegates were expected to arrive the convention was not called to order until 11:30 by A. S. Hazleton, chairman of the republican central committee, who named Clem F. Kimball of Council Bluffs as temporary chairman and C. F. Chester of Oakland as temporary secretary.

On assuming the gavel Mr. Kimball addressed the convention, in which he reviewed the history of the republican party and predicted a glorious victory at the polls next November. Following the address of the chairman the delegates went into district caucuses and selected the following committees:

Credentials—First district, T. R. Barndley; Third district, E. E. Hart; Fourth district, Robert McElrath; Fourth district, W. S. Clay; Fifth district, J. B. Young; Sixth district, D. H. Walton; Seventh district, J. E. Sweet.

Permanent Organization—First district, C. C. Smith; Second district, J. H. McCarty; Third district, E. E. Hart; Fourth district, J. S. Smith; Fifth district, J. B. Matlock; Sixth district, W. M. Frederick; Seventh district, W. G. Dorr.

Resolutions—First district, J. F. Rogers; Second district, A. D. Putnam; Third district, J. E. Hart; Fourth district, E. E. Hart; Fifth district, J. W. Ferris; Sixth district, Frank Everest; Seventh district, C. B. Randlett.

Second district, A. L. Prestano; Third district, John C. Davis; Third district, Alex. Oiler; Fourth district, H. L. Smith; Fifth district, J. E. Hart; Sixth district, L. M. Treynor; Seventh district, Car Morgan.

After the names of the several committees had been presented a recess was taken until 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Transacting Its Business. On reconvening County Chairman Hazleton called attention to the convention of the State League of Republican Clubs, which meets in this city July 12, and expressed the wish that every township and city in the county be fully represented at it.

While waiting for the reports of the committees speeches were made by Spencer Smith, J. L. Blanchard, Colonel C. G. Saunders, C. M. Harl and General John Y. Stone, all of which owing to the patriotic sentiments expressed were received with vociferous applause. Spencer Smith expressed the opinion that the republicans of Pottawattamie county who were noted for making history in the politics of this district ought at the convention to declare in favor of a single gold standard, a suggestion which was followed by the committee on resolutions. He also expressed a sentiment that met with much applause: "That wherever the American flag is planted that should be American soil."

On the report of the committee on permanent organization George H. Scott was chosen as permanent chairman and W. F. Chester of Avoca secretary. On taking the chair Mr. Scott made a ten-minute talk, which was well received.

The committee on credentials in making its report recommended that the representation of some of the districts be cut down as caucuses had not been held in some of the townships, Lincoln, Macedonia and Rockford townships were not represented in the convention and the contested delegation in Norwalk township was settled by allowing Delegate Half one vote and the other four delegates half a vote apiece. The report of this committee brought on a heated discussion. T. R. Barndley of Walnut and J. M. Treynor, the latter wishing to amend the report by having all townships represented cast the full vote, whether caucuses had been held or not. This precedent, he claimed, had been established in all of the state and county conventions of the past. Treynor's amendment on being put to the vote was lost and the original report of the committee carried amid considerable excitement.

After the committee on delegates had presented its report, a resolution was adopted, Frank Everest of Council Bluffs was elected chairman of the county central committee to succeed A. S. Hazleton and the convention came to an end.
