Mr. Burkley said that he wanted to know more of the supreme court decision before voting upon the resolution.

City Attorney Connell explained that the supreme court had reviewed the decision of his valuables. He accompanied the demand Judge Scott and had sustained his findings that the mayor had full authority to appoint and that the city council had the same authority to confirm the appointment of fire and police commissioners in cities of under. Three months ago we added a new department-Boys' Shirt Waists. Since that time we have sold more Waists than any one store in Omaha and we've sold them without any printers' ink or without any odd-penny prices or any Mark Down Sales. We sell waists right. That means that we sell the right kinds, sell 'em at the right prices, sell 'em for what they are and keep track of them after they're sold. A few days ago we got through marking our second shipment of waists for this season and we are now showing many new patterns in addition to the staple lines. Good waists, 25 cents. Excellent waists, 35 cents. A grand line at 45 cents in white and colored linens, and some exquisite patterns and materials in the lines at 65 and 75 cents. One reason for the popularity of The Nebraska Shirt Waists is that they are made from exclusive patterns, and another reason is that the 69-cent waist of the Dry Goods Stores is only 45 cents here. A splendid line of dress waists for boys, 8 to 14 (to wear with white collars) at 75 to 95 cents.

MAN FOUND WITH THROAT CUT Asserts it Was Done by a Colored Tramp Who Was Riding with Him.

When the Burlington freight train from the west, due here at noon yesterday, pulled into the depot a man was found in one of the empty freight cars lying in a pool o blood, with three gaping wounds in his throat. He was unconscious and in his right hand was tightly gripped a bone-handled razor. Everything indicated that the man had attempted suicide, but when revived at St. Joseph's hospital he told a story that showed he had been the victim of a murderous assault by a colored man who had been his fellow traveler. The colored man's name, he said, is Walker. Walker jumped from the train after the assault. The wounded man gives the name of

Thomas Johnson and his home at McCook,

Neb. His injuries, while serious, are not thought to be necessarily fatal. Johnson's story is that he boarded the freight car at McCook to come to Omaha to seek work. He had a few dollars and a watch, which he hid on his person. At a mall way station a negro, who told him his name was Walker, entered the car. Walker told him he was going to Omaha, where he lived. The negro, he said, plied him with all kinds of questions and finally learned from him that he had a watch and money Walker was apparently friendly until the train approached Omaha, when he demanded that Johnson hand over to him by the drawing of a razor. Johnson refused to accede to the demands and the negro ushed at him and the two clinched and fell to the floor of the car. Johnson being cut Johnson's throat, from a point back of the right car to the chin. Johnson, howwas again knocked down by the negro, who from loss of blood, Johnson says he grappled wrestling the razor from him and inflicting a wound on the negro's face. He then fell nconscious from loss of blood. He thinks the negro waited until the ards in this city were reached and then umped from the train. Before leaving the Tramps at a Beer Pienic in the South End. A squad of police had an exciting encounter yesterday afternoon with a gang of tramps near the South Omaha line and there were several slight casualties before the arrests were made. The tramps were not without resources and had purchased three kegs of beer which they were disposing of in the shadow of a box car back of Krug's brewery. A complaint had been made and two sergeants, accompanied by four patrolmen, went to the scene with a patrol wagon There were about thirty men gathered round the kegs and in different stages of intoxication. They resented the interference of the officers and a melce followed. Several heads were broken, especially that of John A. Martin, who received a heavy club blow across the mouth. A number of shots were fired and one tramp was knocked senseless by the butt of a revolver. A surgeon was called to attend his case, but i was later found that he had revived and made his escape in the confusion.
