

ANXIOUS DAY IN WASHINGTON

Officials Are Impatient to Learn the Results of the Battle.

HAVE FAITH IN SHAFTER'S JUDGMENT

They Consider the Engagement a Skirmish to Learn the Strength and Position of the Enemy.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Just two months after the battle of Manila and on the first day of the month began the first battle in this hemisphere. What the result will be was not known when the department closed.

Never before, since the declaration of war, has there been such a feeling of intense anxiety manifested in the officials here as confident they have done everything possible to strengthen General Shafter's hands for the great conflict they have been waging and to show the unlimited confidence they have in his ability.

The attack today, several days before the public mind expected the battle, is a tribute to General Shafter's energy as well as to his judgment, for he undoubtedly found it necessary to crush the foe in detail, following Napoleon's favorite maxim, instead of allowing it to consolidate and outnumber him.

As the day wore along without bringing any news, the anxiety increased and the question was in everyone's mouth, "Why did he not report?"

Adjutant General Corbin's response was brief but pointed: "He is fighting, not writing," and this was accepted as a likely and sound explanation.

Just before 6 o'clock came a brief dispatch from Playa del Este, the cable station near Santiago, but it was from an engineer officer to General Miles and made no reference to the progress of the battle, merely referring to certain necessary material and live stock.

On the whole this absence of official news was regarded as rather a favorable indication, the reasoning being that this morning's engagement was but a heavy skirmish and that our army was feeling the enemy to discover and strike at his weak point. It was nearly 6 o'clock when the signal officer received the welcome news that the enemy was retreating.

The military authorities here are fully considering the chances of such a retreat of the Spanish army from Santiago, and are endeavoring so to shape events that General Shafter's forces will not only take Santiago, but will capture the 12,000 Spaniards before they get away to effect a junction with Pando. Full information as to the lines of retreat was placed at the disposal of the War department.

So far as the Navy department knows the Cadiz fleet is still at Port Said unable to coal, but it is taking no chances on its course, and is steadily pressing the arrangements for the dispatch to the Mediterranean of the eastern squadron. An evidence of this purpose is the fact that on the day in the packing and forwarding of boxes of charts of all the waters likely to be traversed by Watson's squadron directly to the ships off Santiago.

SITUATION BEFORE BATTLE

Disposition and Numbers of the Opposing Forces Engaged in the Fight.

(Copyright, 1898, by Associated Press.) NEAR Santiago, July 30.—(Via Playa del Este, Prov. de Cuba, July 1.)—The American forces, now numbering nearly 17,000 men, still occupy a position in a long line five miles east of Santiago de Cuba, but no forward movement has been made during the last twenty-four hours, owing to the difficulty experienced in forwarding sufficient supplies from the base at Juraguá and the fact that it has not been possible up to the present to send light artillery and siege guns to the front from Bahiguá.

Major General Shafter is at the front and conducting the reconnaissance in person. The American troops have made no attack as yet upon Aguaduro or on the coast near the left wing of the invading army, where the new base may be established later.

The town of Caney, which commands the land entrance into Santiago de Cuba, lies close to the American right wing and will probably be taken without difficulty soon, as it is held by only a small guard of Spanish troops. American scouting parties have within 1,000 yards of Caney without being attacked and the roads in that vicinity have been repaired and improved by our troops, indicating that the intention will be moved in that direction. It is believed that the investment of Santiago de Cuba will follow the capture of Caney.

There are about 5,000 Cubans operating with the American army at the front, and the Spanish force detaching Santiago de Cuba is estimated at from 12,000 to 20,000. In addition, as already stated, General Pando, the Spanish military commander-in-chief, is marching from Manzanillo, some 125 miles west, with 8,000 men, and is checked by the small force of Cubans holding the mountain passes he ought to reach Santiago in his efforts to support General Linarez in a few days.

The mountain passes have been soaked by the recent rains and the roads are in bad condition, but our officers and men are confident that they will be able to make a general attack soon and that Santiago will fall before them.

The cable was placed in operation this morning at Juraguá, Altare and Siboney and communication is now open between the invading army and Washington.

OFFICIAL REPORT. June 30.—(Via Kingston, Jamaica, July 1.)—The American troops are ready for a forward movement in the morning, which may lead to a general assault upon Santiago de Cuba. General Lawton's command will be pushed two miles farther

Comes Back to Hood's
Whenever the Blood is Impure or Health Poor.

"I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla as a tonic and blood purifier for a number of years and I use it whenever I become debilitated or my blood is impure and it has never failed to bring me back to my normal condition. It always strengthens and invigorates the system." R. M. PRATHEE, 950 South Street, Atchison, Kansas.

COAL OIL BATH PROVES FATAL

Oil Ignited and a Child Burned to Death and Two People Fatally Injured.

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—One life was lost and two persons are lying at the point of death as a result of a fire early today in the dwelling house of Patrick H. Flannery, 3602 Locust street, West Philadelphia. The fire was started by the ignition of coal oil which Mrs. Flannery was bathing her arm to relieve rheumatic pain. The flames spread rapidly and a child was burned to death before she could be rescued. Patrick Flannery was probably fatally burned in attempting to rescue other members of the family. During the progress of the fire Mrs. Flannery disappeared. It was thought she had been burned to death. Later, however, she was found lying in the street near the house. The woman had become crazed by the loss of her child, and while wandering through the streets was struck by a trolley car and is also thought to be fatally injured.

Flannery died of his injuries shortly before noon today. It is now believed by the police that Mrs. Flannery scattered kerosene in all the rooms and then set fire to the house. It is said that the woman's mind is affected and that she fired the house while insane.

ATTACKED BY STONECUTTERS

Chief of Federation of Engineers in the Hospital with a Fractured Skull.

CHICAGO, July 1.—John J. Finnegan, president of the American Federation of Steam Engineers, is at the county hospital with a fractured skull, the result of an attack upon him by some men supposed to be members of the Stonecutters' union. He may not recover. Finnegan was found unconscious on the third floor of 183 Washington street and it is thought he had been hurled down stairs from the floor above. John A. Weber, a member of Finnegan's association, was assaulted by the same men and is at home with a broken leg. For several months the Stonecutters' union has had a grievance against the engineers who are employed in stone yards. A committee from each union was to have met at 183 Washington street to settle the difficulty. When Finnegan and Weber appeared at the meeting place they were attacked by a number of men. These men, it is said, belonged to the Stonecutters' union. After the assault they disappeared.

ORATOR FOR FOURTH OF JULY

Hon. James M. Beck of Philadelphia, Who Will Speak at the Exposition Grounds.

A young man of rather small stature, with dark hair and snappy black eyes, registered at one of the hotels yesterday from Philadelphia without attracting much attention. It was Hon. James M. Beck, of the United States district attorney from the Quaker City, and the Fourth of July orator for the Transmississippi Exposition. One would not take Mr. Beck to be a great orator until he had heard him speak, then there would be no doubt in the mind of any one in Philadelphia that he is greatly sought after as an after dinner speaker and orator for special occasions. He is one of the best and most popularly known young men in Philadelphia, and from the Delaware to Germantown he is called "our Jim Beck." He was entertained at luncheon today at the Omaha club by General Charles F. Manderson. He will be here until July 5.

In completing the details of the loan, Mr. Letter informed the agents of the Northwestern that he would probably require further advances of about $3,500,000 or $4,000,000.

The money obtained by Mr. Letter will go toward the liquidation of the debt incurred by his son Joseph Letter, in wheat speculation. The share of Joseph Letter in the immense estate of his father will be paid to him, not entirely, consumed by his speculations.

Mr. Letter's notice that he would probably require on his property is taken to indicate the extent of Joseph Letter's losses he is in a loss in the real estate. Joseph Letter's private fortune, which was variously estimated at from $1,000,000 to $5,000,000 before he began his career on the Chicago Board of Trade over a year ago.

Catch Car Burglars.

Two special officers in the employ of the Union Pacific tonight interrupted a three freight car burglars at work in the yards at midnight last night and succeeded in capturing one of them. The officers were watching the yards of the company in the neighborhood of Seventh and Jackson streets when the light of a switch lamp showed them the men running the cars. The two freight trains. The officers hurried to the other end of the train and intercepted them. Two of the men darted under a car and escaped, but the third was captured. Joseph Henderson, was overtaken. He was charged with burglary.

At the time of his capture he was burdened with two crates of fruit and investigated located a one-horse wagon in the neighborhood of the company in the neighborhood of Seventh and Jackson streets. The property was taken from a refrigerator car, the lock of which had been forced. The shipment was ready to be sent out and was billed to Mrs. Hay, Deadwood, S. D.

The burglar is believed to be a professional thief, but rather peddler who was anxious to put their wares before the public at as low a price as possible. The wagon was the property of Julius Altman, who lives in the city.

Discuss Civil Service Rules.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Commissioners Harlow and Brewer of the civil service commission yesterday had a long conference with the president, Attorney General Griggs and Secretary Bliss in regard to a number of proposed changes in the civil service rules. It is understood that the heads of the executive departments have recommended the extension of the rules so as to exclude certain specified phases of the service and that other places be exempt. No specific decision was reached on any of the matters in view, but it is expected a decision will soon be reached, when an order will be issued covering the same under discussion.

APPARENT DECREASE IN THE DEBT.

This Accounted for by Increase in Cash from New Bond Issue.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The monthly statement of the public debt shows that at the close of business yesterday the debt, less cash in the treasury, amounted to $1,027,085,492, a decrease during the month of $10,688,268. This decrease is accounted for by a corresponding increase in the amount of cash on hand. The increase in the cash comes largely from the proceeds of the new bond issue. The debt is recapitulated as follows: Interest bearing debt, $47,367,470; debt on which interest has ceased since maturity, $1,242,680,400; less cash on hand, $384,112,912; total, $1,232,744,958.

This amount, however, does not include $53,359,933 in certificates and treasury notes outstanding, which are offset by an equal amount of cash in the treasury. The cash in the treasury is classified as follows: Gold, $292,829,048; silver, $315,629,906; paper, $7,477,479; bonds, deposits in national bank deposits, disbursing officers' balances, etc., $40,133,517; total, $835,466,567, against which there are demands and liabilities outstanding amounting to $428,808,997, which leaves a cash balance of $406,657,570.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO BOND ISSUE.

Those Now in Amount to Almost Eight Hundred Million. WASHINGTON, July 1.—Inquiries at the Treasury department elicit the information that the total proceeds for the new government loan of $200,000,000, aggregate $700,000,000. Of this amount there have been received and absolutely accepted subscriptions for amounts of $500 and less, $400,000,000. Subscriptions in amounts over $500, subject to future allotment, reach $200,000,000. A proposal for a round lot at a premium of 1 per cent for $100,000,000 was received; two syndicate propositions for any part or all of the bonds offered, $200,000,000 each, $400,000,000. These syndicate offers and this offer for bonds at a premium are not in the regular form, although they came from entirely responsible sources, and no allotment will be made in either case. It is expected that heavy subscriptions will increase in number with the beginning of the month. Savings banks deposits will probably be realized to a considerable amount, as the six months' interest period in July 1, and withdrawals now can be made by the depositors without sacrificing any interest.

President Names Cadets.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The president has made the following appointment of cadets-at-large at the United States Military Academy: Olynthus A. York, New York; Charles S. Hoyt of Washington, Grayson M. P. BOYS ROB A DRY GOODS STORE

Juvenile Burglars Hunted Before Judge Gordon and One of Them Confesses.

Henry Harding, Joseph Sclimontz, John Venbrusha and Cusa Rosenthal, the four boys charged with robbing the dry goods store of A. Ablins of 1259 South Thirteenth street $125 worth of goods, were arraigned before Judge Gordon in police court. All were dressed in knickerbockers and their ages ranged from 8 to 12 years.

Henry Harding, the youngest, broke down and confessed to the robbery. He said that John Venbrusha is the one who planned the robbery and concealed the stolen goods, but where he did not know. All he received, he said, was two boxes of chewing gum, which he chewed up. The others stoutly denied their guilt.

The police asked for a continuance of the case until August 1 in order to further investigate it. It is their belief that the boys committed the robbery at the instigation of older boys.

OFFICER ASSAULTS A WOMAN

Policeman Morris Sullivan Charged with Beating a Neighbor's Wife.

Two police officers were detailed last evening to arrest one of their comrades, Morris Sullivan, who is charged by Frank Klutz of 621 South Nineteenth street, with having brutally assaulted his wife. Sullivan, whose residence is at 711 South Nineteenth street, is a neighbor of Klutz. Both families have small sons. Thursday the Sullivan boys, it is alleged, stoned the Klutz boys, bruising them badly. Yesterday Mrs. Klutz spoke to Sullivan of the matter, and asked him to keep his boys from injuring her boys in the future. This, it is said, enraged Sullivan, and he struck Mrs. Klutz several times, inflicting painful bruises on her person. Sullivan belongs to the sanitary police detail.

A. L. Baker of Rockford, Mo., was robbed of $25 yesterday morning in a saloon at Eleventh and Dodge streets. He says that he was then seized by Conners, William Atkins, Harry Stephenson and John Malloy and that his pockets were searched. Baker was then thrown out in the street. The major incident of the robbery have been arrested.

CITY HALL NOTES.

At the regular meeting of the park board yesterday the salary sheet was passed and a few bills were allowed.

The council held a special meeting Friday morning and passed the salary appropriation for the month of June.

The Board of Public Works held a regular meeting yesterday afternoon and passed the pay roll and attended to a few routine matters.

Mayor Moores is being considerably bothered by claimants who want their share of the $50,000 proceeds from the refunding bonds. The mayor intends, however, to go over the bills allowed by the council very carefully and it is probable that he will not take final action on the ordinance before next Tuesday night.

SEEING THE FUTURE. There Is Only One Way By Which It Can Be Done.

"How I wish I could look into the future." How often during the present war have we heard this expression!

It has been made by those who have relatives in the field and by those who wish they might see how the war is to turn out.

It is, perhaps, quite as well that we cannot see into the future. Indeed, there is only one way by which the future can be foreseen, and that is by drawing conclusions from the present; for we know that certain causes always produce certain results. A reckless spendthrift is certain to become poor in time, and a man or woman who neglects the laws of life is certain to suffer.

If you feel tired, despondent, run down, with weak nerves, occasional headaches and frequent loss of appetite, you may be certain that something is wrong with your vital organs and that it is only a question of time when you will break down.

Now, all these symptoms are indications of the worst kind of all modern diseases whether it attacks men or women. That trouble is Bright's disease of the kidneys. It is dangerous principally because so few people seldom realize that they have it. Unlike all other diseases it seldom gives any pain in the region of the kidneys and so men and women live along without realizing that there is anything the matter with these great organs when all the while they are slowly but surely decaying. This is the great danger of this fearful complaint, though it can be cured if people only realize in time that they have it. There is, however, but one remedy known to the world which will certainly cure this modern monster and that is Warner's Safe Cure. In writing upon this subject, Mr. E. B. Murphy, formerly President of the People's Traction Company of Philadelphia, says:

"Three eminent physicians told me positively that I had Bright's Disease of the kidneys, and, acting upon the advice of a friend, I began taking Warner's Safe Cure of which I had heard so much. I am pleased to say it restored me completely and I consider that it saved my life. I continue to take it as a preventive medicine and cordially recommend it to my friends."

This is the testimony of thousands of others whose lives have been saved and are now being prolonged by the use of this great modern discovery.

If you, reader, have any strange symptoms which you do not fully understand, if your appetite is poor, if you do not sleep well at night, if you feel unaccountably tired, you may be quite certain there is something the matter with your kidneys and you should not hesitate a moment but act at once to prevent any further inroads of this terrible disease.

CHECK WORKERS' SUCCESS

Smooth Crook Is Making a Good Thing and Easily Blinding the Local Police.

A bogus check utterer is baffling the efforts of the police to catch him and is reaping a rich harvest by his original methods. He has been at work for two months. He uses an innocent boy, a different one in every case. In the event of a miscarriage of his plans the boy is always left to hold the bag and explain matters. The wily crook makes out a check for an amount ranging anywhere from $15 to $100 and signs the name of some well known resident in the neighborhood who he selects to work in. He then secures the business envelope of another merchant in the same neighborhood and encloses the check in it. A boy is found who carries the check to its destination and secures the cash if the victim does not see the trap. The boy is given a dime for his trouble.

A butcher on South Sixteenth street was victimized in this manner yesterday for $50. Two hours after a check enclosed in an envelope for a good sized sum was presented at the office of the Omaha and Grant Smeiting works by a boy, but it was not paid. The messenger was turned over to the police, but was released as he proved he had no knowledge of the attempted swindle.
