CHICAGO'S RUSH IS CHECKED

Qmaha Puts the Cricket Championship in Doubt by Winning.

TERRIFIC BOWLING OF BATE AND DOUGAL

Windy City Batters Unable to Do Business with the Omnha Trundlers-Manitoba Defents Denwer Quite Ensily.

Tis the unexpected that happens, deblares the sage, and the unexpected happened yesterday in the tournament of the Northwestern Cricket association. Omaha simply walked all over the All-Chicago aggregation, who defeated the strong Manitoba eleven the day before and seemed to be certainly slated for cham- Macro pionship hopors.

The victory was assured at the end of the first innings. Chicago was utterly unable to solve the trundling of the local bowlers and was retired with a total of 36 against 75 that Omaha had secured in its first innings. Before the ten Omaha men were but in the second innings the exposition aggregation had another century and 9 to their credit. Before this second innings expired it was 6 o'clock and Chicago, seeing that it would be utterly impossible to get a winning number of runs in the remaining half hour, passed up their second in-

This puts the race for championship honbrs into rather a peculiar condition. If Omaha wins today from Denver, as it certainly should, and Manitoba makes a winning from Minnesota, as it, too, should, it will tie Manitoba, Chicago and Omaha for the championship. It is only in case that Manitoba and Omaha both lose that Chicago will be enabled to carry off the flag. This is hardly probable.

Local interest centered entirely in this played. This was between Manitoba and fall of six wickets after one innings play, although the Denverites ran up a nice score against the northerners. Bate's Deadly Bowling.

Omaha won on the strength of its bowling. The Chicago batsmen were utterly unable to do anything with it. Davis, Fletcher, Beddow and others who have been doing nice work in the matches already played, were retired with few or no scores. The highest number of runs secured was eight. overs together. Only ten runs were made the tournament. off the eleven of Bate's, in which he made Dougal secured an equal five wickets. number of wickets in ten overs and twenty three runs were made off of his bowling But three extras augmented the Chicago

On the other hand the Omaha boys batted well and were helped along very appreciably by extras, and rather poor fielding by the Windy City aggregation. In the first innings Maughan carried off the batting honors by making eighteen runs, a batch of six coming from the longest and hardest hit of the tournament—the leather going over the fence. In the second innings New did the great work with the bat, making 41, doing as nicely as he did against Manitoba a couple of days ago, and was retired only because he was run out. Cameron, Tuffield and Bate also climbed into the double ligures.

With 3 very few exceptions Omaba's runs were not secured off of long hits. The local players simply persisted in sending the leather for scores of one and two. The bats Naughan carried off the batting honors by players simply persisted in sending the feather for scores of one and two. The bats ran exceptionally well and took every advantage of a slip or of a possibility to run. Had they put up such a live, active game against the Manitoba team, there is no question that they would have beaten the northerners also and carried off the championship. As a matter of fact none of the elevens have shown up better in fielding or in running than did the Omaha team, filthough several have been batting better.

Another very noticeable feature of their play was the placing of their hits. The bowling of the visitors was no puzzle, for the bowling analysis shows a very few maiden overs, and the Omaha lads kent the death of the complex of maiden overs, and the Omaha lads kept the leather going out of the reach of the Chicagoans in a way that kept them on the jump all the while, even if the hits did not result in runs, and the consequence was that the Windy City cricketers were gradually played out. That accounts in a meas are for the bigger score of the second inhings, Score:

Denver made a nice showing in number of runs against the Mani oba eleven, but they were easily beaten out in the first innings after the fall of a half dozen wickets. Denver had its innings first and succeeded in batting out 122 runs before the tenth wicket fell. Cocks was the stubborn bat, for he piled up more than half the total runs scored before he went out. His score of 66 is the highest figure reached so far in the tournament. He made the tower of strength for the mountaineers, for but one other of them got into the double figures and he made

But Crowder did the batting of the tournament. He did not have an opportunity to run up as big a score as Cocks, for Manitoba had piled up enough runs to win while he still had his bat in hand, but the long hits he whipped out were the batting features of the turney. He made no less than makers.

six sixes and several fours while he was at the wicket. Wilson did a nice bit of work for the Manitoba lads, too, with thirty runs. After six wickets had fallen and with the score in favor of Manitoba, the match was ended, for the Denver eleven had no show of getting into their second innings on ac-

BALTIMORE, July 21.-The Indians captured two Oriole scalps this afternoon. Both McJames and Nops were wild and ineffective. In each instance when the game was irretrievably lost Hanlon sent Kitson to the box, who allowed the visitors but three hits in eight innings. During the second game a spectator in the grand stand called Tebeau a vile name. The doughty captain fired a bat at the man, but did no damage. SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

The ordinance introduced at the last meeting of the city council, which creates the office of plumbing inspector and provides for the appointment of an inspector, is a good thing, especially for the inspector. This applumber who has a permanent place of business here is eligible. As is the case with the milk and building inspectors, the office to be created will be sustained by fees and the property owners will pay for the privilege. No excavations in any street or alley for sewer, drain, water or gas pipes shall be made by any person or corporation without first obtaining a permit from the inspector. Going further the ordinance provides that no water pipes shall be laid less that five feet under ground, and no gas pipes shall be laid in the same trench with sewer or water pipes or closer than three feet to any water or sewer pipe. It will be one of the duties of the inspector to examine all specifications for plumbing which may be submitted to him, as to the efficiency of such specifications and as to whether the same conform to all sanitary rules and regulations. All licensed plumbers will be compelled to notify the inspector when any piece of work they are engaged upon is ready for inspec-

The section which gives the inspector almost unlimited authority is the one providing that whenever in the opinion of such inspector any gas, water or sewer pipe shall be deemed insufficient or unsuitable or unwholesome from a sanitary point of view it shall be the duty of the inspector to natify the owner or agent of this fact and order immediate repairs. This section is construed to mean that the inspector may order alteration in sewer and water pipes whenever he sees fit, and the property owner will be compelled to comply with the orders or else lay himself liable to a fine of not less than $5 or more than $50. It is feared that the inspector will work in the interest of the plumbers and in order to make business for them will order work done which is no absolutely necessary. A table of fees to be paid the inspector is included in the ordinance. For plumbing from $300 to $500, $5, and over $500, $7.50. For inspecting repair work costing less than Four hundred and sixty-six charitable $25 a fee of $1 will be exacted. This ordinance is now in the hands of the judiciary committee and from what can be learned it stands a very good show of being recommended for passage just as it is. It is unthe basis for supplies fixed in the Young derstood that at least five resident plumbers are applicants for the position, but the mayor will not indicate who he intends appointing until after the ordinance is passed.

> Committee's Visit Postponed. The proposed visit of the city attorney and a committee of the council to the managers of the railroads using the tracks under the viaducts has been postponed on account of the absence of General Manager Dickinson of the Union Pacific, Attorney Montgomery had an interview yesterday with one of the officials of the Union Pa cific and it was suggested that the attorney write the general manager a letter outlin ing the plans of the council in connection with the viaduct repairs. This letter, Mr Montgomery was assured, would be referred to the engineering department of the Union Pacific with instructions to confer with City Engineer Beal on the cost of the repairs contemplated. Only two railroads can be taxed, the Union Pacific and the Union Stock Yards companies. The former owns twelve tracks and the latter six tracks. ity of the planks are loose and unless someson that the courts had held that the rallroads could be compelled to maintain such structures. He further stated that it was the intention of the committee to have an interview with the railroad people before the next meeting of the council. It can be stated that the Union Stock yards managers are ready and willing to pay their proportion of the expense of the repairs and are holding back on account of the Union Pa-Armour Busy Killing.

Cattle, sheep and hogs were slaughtered at the Armour plant yesterday. The machinery in the hog killing department is now working nicely and the animals were disposed of much more rapidly than on the opening day. In the beef house the work of killing continued all day and the operaions were watched with interest by a large umber of visitors. It was noon before the relephonic communication, time on these three departments of 'he plant will be in operation daily. The cutting of hogs will commence this toorning, but it will be two months before this meat will be ready for market. In order to supply the demand for packing house products the local plant received yesterday forty cars of meats from the Chicago house. One of the Armour representatives said yesterday that pointment must be made by the mayor and an effort would be made to force this marconfirmed by the council and any competent ket to the front and create a demand for all the live stock which could be shipped

About an Electric Light.

Residents in the vicinity of Twenty-first and R streets are making a creat howl about the order issued by the council in connection with the removal of the electric light at that point to the corper of Twentysecond and R streets. This action is considered a piece of petty spite on the part of certain members of the council who seek by this means to chastise Councilman Fanferlik for having voted as he did on the proposition to increase the assessment of the corporations. At present the light is located very close to Fanferlik's place of business and its removal may cause some inconvenience. Those who engineered the deal through assert that the location of the light at Twenty first and R streets vas in violation of the contract with the electric light company and it should have been moved a long time ago.
