

FUSION GOES IN LANCASTER

Elements of Popocratic Party Agree on the Division of the Unattainable.

THREE CONVENTIONS WITH ONE IDEA

Gatherings of the Delegates Transact Such Business as the Conference Committees Permit or the State House Gang Suggests.

LINCOLN, July 27.—(Special.)—The three wings of the fusion party of Lancaster county met in this city today, after a long and a county ticket and selected delegates to the state and congressional conventions.

The democratic convention, which met at Bobanan's hall at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, organized and opened business by adopting a resolution endorsing James Manahan as its candidate for congress in the First district, and authorizing him to extend the delegates to the congressional convention.

The "silver republicans" met in convention at A. O. U. hall and one of 250 delegates specified under the call just thirty-three were present, most of the country precincts being without representation.

The populist met at the conservatory of music hall with about 200 of the 425 delegates present. J. W. Chambers of Nemaha precinct was elected chairman.

The delegates were Land Commissioner Wolfe and Hyatt and Graver, from his office; Shradler, Sheldon and Mohr from Secretary of State Porter's office; Whitaker from the auditor's office; Bradburn from the treasurer's office; Edmiston and Howe from the "oil room"; Blum and F. L. Mary from the governor's office; Edmiston from the labor bureau; Hewick and Abbott from the asylum; Stockman and Warner from the "State Board of Janitors." The persistent activity of these officeholders was criticized by many and it was conceded that Land Commissioner Wolfe and his friends by the party took on the resolutions committee.

The business of the democratic convention was supervised by Benton Maret, J. C. Dahlman, Albert Sjoberg, Stockman, Rowden and Ayers, all from the state house. Ten per cent of the silver republican convention was also composed of state house employees.

Have look will soon be connected with Lincoln by a trolley car line, the people of that place having so voted yesterday at a special election. The vote stood 217 for the trolley and 183 against it.

William K. Tuttle of the firm of Burnstead & Tuttle has gone to Chicago, where at noon today he was united in marriage with Miss Ora Lena Barnes, sister of Councilman Barnes of Lincoln. They will visit Mr. Tuttle's relatives in Michigan before settling down in their home in this city.

The United Presbyterian organization has extended a call to Rev. J. H. Smith of Pawnee City and it is expected that he will begin work here early in August.

NATIONAL IRRIGATION CONGRESS. Member of the Executive Committee Issues a Circular. O'GALLALA, Neb., July 25.—To the Editor of The Bee: The executive committee of the National Irrigation Congress have selected a call to Rev. J. H. Smith of Pawnee City, and it is expected that he will begin work here early in August.

Through the daily and public press of our commonwealth, which in the past has done so much to give the people a knowledge of the important subject, I ask the earnest effort and endeavor to again call public attention to this congress at Cheyenne, and desire the press to more particularly call the attention of home-seekers visiting the exposition at Omaha to give this matter their study and attention.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., July 27.—(Special.)—Some time during last night another prisoner made his escape from the Hall county jail. In the jail there is a cage, where all prisoners are kept during the night. During the day they are let out in the corridors, the cage being small, and it being severe on the prisoners to keep them locked within the same.

FAIRFIELD, Neb., July 27.—(Special.)—A newly enacted dog ordinance is causing the mayor, marshal and many private citizens trouble. The marshal is endeavoring to trespass upon private property in his efforts to destroy all unlicensed dogs within the corporate limits of the town.

HASTINGS, Neb., July 27.—(Special.)—The barbers of this city met Monday evening to organize. Every shop in the city was represented, and the officers elected were: W. A. Fletcher, president; B. A. Pate, vice president; L. Robbio, secretary and treasurer; J. L. Wright, Cliff Johnson and Leuther Egloff, trustees. It is probable that Mr. Pate will be the delegate to a meeting at Omaha next Tuesday, which is to be held for the purpose of perfecting the state organization.

RENOVATION FOR STARK

Fourth District Populists Put Up Their Congressman Again.

LITTLE OPPOSITION IN CONVENTION

Free Silver Republicans to the Number of Fifteen Hold a Side Show to Agree to Be Swallowed.

YORK, Neb., July 27.—(Special.)—Congressman W. L. Stark was renominated this afternoon by the populist convention of the Fourth district, held at this place. The nominating met with little opposition, no other candidates appearing on the political horizon to any degree of prominence.

The convention met at the court house this afternoon. W. H. Taylor of David City was chairman, George L. Burr of Aurora secretary and Albert Stewart of Stewart assistant secretary. There was the usual routine business and some populist oratory by George Burr and D. Cien Deaver of Omaha.

WEST POINT, Neb., July 27.—(Special.)—Judge Evans adjourned the special session of district court last evening, in order to allow the contestants in the county clerk controversy to file further pleadings within the statutory time. The session will be resumed on August 2, when it is expected that the matter in dispute will be determined.

NEW SCHOOL PRINCIPAL. CULBERTSON, Neb., July 27.—(Special.)—The Culbertson school board met yesterday and selected E. A. Tucker, formerly of Wauwata, as principal of the school here. Grasshoppers are flying north today. Thousands can be seen in the air. Corn is in danger of them.

LOSES AN ARM. SHELTON, Neb., July 27.—(Special.)—Wilson Bailey, the young man who was so badly hurt and his arm broken in five places in the cyclone south of town last May, was obliged to have his left hand and arm below the elbow amputated yesterday in order to avoid any more serious results.

HALF-PRICE TONIGHT (Continued from First Page.) There will eventually come a time when the soil will become exhausted, or at least will become deficient in some or more of the chief elements of nutrition.

POLITICAL POINTERS. BROKEN BOW, Neb., July 27.—(Special.)—Now that the populists have their nominations made in this district the republicans are preparing for the most vigorous campaign that they have ever made. There are strong hopes that the effort will be a triumph and that the security for his investment is beyond question absolutely secure.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., July 27.—(Special.)—Some time during last night another prisoner made his escape from the Hall county jail. In the jail there is a cage, where all prisoners are kept during the night. During the day they are let out in the corridors, the cage being small, and it being severe on the prisoners to keep them locked within the same.
