This question will probably come up for discussion again at the convention in Davenport, but it is not thought likely that any such action will be taken then.

It is expected that the lay delegates from St. Paul's church to the convention will be selected Monday evening at the meeting of Fell Seventy-Five Feet. Robert Musselman, a painter living on Iowa avenue, fell a distance of about seventy-five feet vesterday morning from the cupola on the Washington avenue school buildng and yet lives to tell the tale. No bones were broken and although suffering greatly from the shock and the bruises received Musselman will, unless it develops that he was injured internally, be out again in few days. Musselman, assisted by Will Schicketanz, another painter, has been painting the outer woodwork and cornices of the school and in order to paint the cupola built a scaffold out the windows in the fourth story of the tower. On this Musselman placed a ladder and was painting the cornicc above him when the ladder in some manner became loosened and slipped and in falling carried the scaffold and Musselman with it. Musselman struck the roof of the front porch about sixty-five feet below and bounded from there to the ground. When picked up he was suffering intense pain and at first it was thought his injuries were of a fatal character. He was taken to his home in the patrol wagon, the journey being a long and tedious one, as the ride over the rough paving caused him extreme pain. He complained chiefly of pain about his back, but ast evening was resting easy and the attending physician stated that he believed no serious results would follow unless it developed that Musselman had been injured internally, which could not be known for a

Fort McPherson, arrived here this week, accompanied by his mother and brother, who had gone south to care for him. Winkel was stricken with typhoid in camp. He fought hard against the disease and remained on duty until compelled to go to the hospital. He was removed to Fort McPherson for better care and his mother sent for. She hurried to his side, but was too late to be of any service and Winkel had lapsed into unconsciousness, from which he never rallied. On arrival here the remains were immediately taken to the chapel at the cemetery, where the services were held. The services were conducted by the Grand Army of the Republic, and he was buried with military honors.

County Seat Contest Ended. GARNER, Ia., Aug. 4 .- (Special.) -The county seat of Hancock county will be pracically moved without a vote of the people. It has long been at Concord and the residents of Britt have tried to secure it. They presented a petition to the board of supervisors asking for a vote on the change and made an offer of $25,000 cash and a lot worth $5,000. Then the town of Garner extended its limits to include the town of Concord and an offer of $30,000 cash was made for a new court house provided the board locates it at a more convenient point. This last offer has been accepted and so the county seat will come to this town without a struggle.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.-Dimes have been pouring into the Navy department to Secretary Long contributed by the patriotic Americans who want to build a battleship to replace the Maine. Somebody, the secretary does not know who, started an endless chain to this end, and the secretary is doing his best to break the chain. To such contributors as give their addresses he is returning the money with a note informing him that he has no authority under the law, to receive it, and the object seems to be otherwise provided for, as congress has specifically appropriated money for the construction of another battleship to be known as the Maine.

MASSACHUSETTS OFFICERS RESIGN. Result of Trouble with the Brigade

Commander. BOSTON, Aug. 4.-A special cablegram to the Journal from Ponce, Porto Rico, says: A tremendous sensation has occurred in the Sixth Massachusetts regiment, which is in General Garretson's brigade. The friction between the line officers and the officers of the brigade, which has been growing ever since the command left Cuba, reached its climax Monday, when Colonel Woodward, Lieutenant Colonel Chaffin, Major Taylor, Chaplain Dousseault and Captain Goodell of Company K resigned their commissions. Th exact reason which prompted them to take this action is not at present known. The cause must have been serious, indeed

The resignations leave Major Charles K. Darling in command of the regiment. The matter has been fully reported to General Miles, and a rigid investigation has been ordered. By military law to resign in the face of the enemy means a court-martial.

Board of Equalization.

PIERRE, S. D., Aug. 4.-(Special Telegram.)-The State Board of Equalization this morning again played politics and did notget down to work until afternoon, when after a number of propositions had been rejected raise of $100 per mile on all lines of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road in the state. After this road was disposed of the same raise was made for the Chicago & Northwestern road. Other roads will be taken up in the morning and will probably all get a proportionate raise. Governor Lee voted against all the raises proposed, giving as his reason that he considered they were all being assessed too low. When the question of equalization of lands comes up the representatives of the newer counties of the state will attempt to get a reduction, as lands in these counties are actually assessed at a higher price than they will sell for, while lands in the older counties are assessed at less than one-third the selling

The neighborhood of Wood's lake, near Helena, is being developed more extensively than in any former year. The Big Tiger company has expended about $6,500 in prospecting and development. A false bedrock was recently uncovered, and now a shaft has been sunk to find the real bedrock and determine the quality of the gravel there. The country roundabout is apparently well mineralized, but has never been fully developed. Frank Ballard, at the head of Little Tiger reek, has uncovered four feet of good quartz specimens of which have assayed $40. Much levelopment is also being done in the Crow reek range, running through Jefferson and Broadwater counties.

Improvement in New Mexico. ROSWELL, N. M., Aug. 4 .- (Special.)-The Pecos Valley & Northeastern railroad is making satisfactory headway from the Roswell end of the line. At a recent meeting of the Board of Directors J. E. Bowen was elected a member of the board, taking the place of C. E. Thomason. The heavy rains of west Texas have somewhat retarded grading at some points, but just now the work is being pushed rapidly. Through some of the sections the work of construction has been hampered on account of condemnation proceedings. T. F. Moore has closed a contract for the building of a telegraph line between Roswell and Amarillo and for the erection of fences along the right of way. This will require 200 miles of fence from Amarillo to the line between Texas and New Mexico.

Populist Officials Fall Out. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Aug. 4 .- (Special.)-A row has broken out among the populist officials of the state penitentiary and Warden Landis forced the resignations of John Chase, head mine engineer, and David Shull, top mine officer. The warden accuses these men of taking money from convicts and exposure of crookedness is threstened by both sides. Chase is a son of the former warden, Dick Chase, and a leading populist politician, and Shull formerly represented Osage county in the legisgenate of 1893 and is a good campaign speaker.

NO FEARS FOR THE CHURCH

Papal Delegate Talks of Transfer of Spanish Islands to United States.

CAN RELY ON AMERICANS FOR JUSTICE

Anything Else Would Be Contrary to the Historical Practices of This Country in Granting Full

Religious Liberty.

BOSTON, Aug. 4.-Most Rev. Sebastian Martinelli, the papal delegate in the United States, arrived in Boston last night, making a short stay with the Jesuit fathers of St. Mary's church, Endicott street. When asked what would be the effect of the annexation of Porto Rico to the United States he answered: "I am not a politician and do not know enough about the place to tell whether it will be a benefit to this country to own it or not. As far as the interests of the Porto Ricans is concerned, there is no doubt that they will profit by the change." "Will your jurisdiction as apostolic dele gate extend to that island when it is an-nexed?" he was asked. "That is a question for the holy see to answer. My lines of jurisdiction are already drawn and I cannot extend them without a positive order from Rome. What will be done in that regard, if anything is done, is a question for the future and one upon which I have had no communication with the pope. Political changes do not influence Rome in the management of the church. We can safely say it will do what is for the best.' "Will the church suffer in any way from the political changes that are likely to take place in the Philippines and other Spanish islands?" "I do not think that any one who knows the American people would for a moment entertain a thought that the church will be in any way interfered with, wherever the United States, by conquest or purchase, acquires possession. The change of government will take place, I suppose, but I exnect to see everything else go on as it has in the past. Priests as well as people will be as well treated as they are here in the United States and the church will go on doing the good work it has done in the past, perhaps with a little more freedom."

No More Soldiers for Alaska. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—Major Genera Merriam has decided to send no more rcops to Alaska this season. A year's supplies for the troops now there will be or icred sent from Seattle at once. There are not many soldiers in Alaska now. A company of the Fourteenth United States in antry is at Sitka and there is one at Wrangel. Three officers and fifteen men ar ow trying to get up the Copper river, seek ing a trail to Belle Isle on the Yukon. Similar party is working up Sushitna rive cross the Tanana river by way of Good Pastor river, Volkmar and Birch creeks to officers and twenty men is at St. Michael.

But the Vote of Thanks Had the Narrow Majority of Two. During the McKinley-Bryan campaign gentleman in Richmond, Ind., was appointed from the ranks of the 16-to-1 faithful to en lighten the rural followers of the boy orate as to the things that were not involved in the campaign. On the appointed evening relates the Cincinnati Tribune, the chosen speaker entered a rig furnished by the rural ommittee, and, driven by one of its number, started for a long drive to the place where the speaking was to be done, Arriving in due time, after a ten-mile joit in a buckboard, they dismounted at the school house, the speaker at once repairing to the building, leaving the combination driver and committeeman to hitch the panting beast. The schoolroom was filled with an audience characterized by typical country solemnity and dressed in their farming clothes. After a few of the whiskered hickory-shirted mer n wrinkled boots and wide-rimmed hat had shaken hands awkardly with the pros pective speaker, informing him that the conlition of the party about there was "tol'able like," the meeting was called to order by a lank individual who out-solemnized all the rest, and who said in sepulchral tones: "Ez 'Squire Lige Brown is 'lowed to know nore parleymentry laws than anybody else in these parts, I'll call on him to perside over this meetin' tonight."

The speaker arose, overawed by the vast knowledge of his presiding officer and by the solemnity with which the remainder o the audience took the speech that would have produced uproarious laughter if delivered in a farce comedy, yet he managed to get through his harangue, and even to work up a good deal of latent enthusiasm and feeble applause, in the bargain. When he had finished there was an awkward pause, which is also typical of unsophisticated audiences, until one member who had once attended a meeting of the horticultural society, arose and remarked: "I move that we give Judge -

"I secont the motion," piped another timid voice that could not be located. "Well, if I know anything of parleymenrepeat Cushing's manual backards and forrards, I know that this here motion is de- ject for psychological dissection, batable, an' it is now open to this here au-

It happened that this section was one given to debates throughout the entire winter season, and that when any one said 'debate" all were on end and eager for the forensic fray. For half an hour or longer, while the speaker of the evening sweat blood and swore inwardly, the members of that assemblage discussed heatedly the question as to whether a vote of thanks was due. At the end of the discussion it was put to vote, and the "for thanks" side won
