Thing to Him-"Black Smoke" and Ancient Cognae Did the Rest.

Twenty years ago Sing Low had been a thin, meek Chinese coolie, toiling in the forth the same sentiment expressed in our Sing Low, for the reason that the blade had rice fields of the Soo-Chow province, relates own, "There's no fool like an old fool," the San Francisco Argonaut. insufficiently and never was there an old fool so deeply the cousin stood up, facing the judge, and the clad and insufficiently (ed, he had many in love as Sing Low, who soon became the executioner did likewise, holding the sword times been weary of life, and but for the laughing stock of the eptire very mixed erect, as he announced solemnly vows of his secret society forbidding would population of Madre de Dies. Fay Lee, have put a summary end to it-a double of course, knew nothing, and supposed that quantity of opium in the pipe is an easy her lord's frequent absences were due to way! But Sing Low had persevered and storet society meetings. To be sure, Ah dragged, still on his knees, from the room, starved until one day there was an exodus. Toy, the sprightly young wife of Sam and flung into the narrow, weed-choked starved until one day there was an exodus. Toy, the sprightly young wife of Sam and Hung into the harrow, weed-choked of many of his own society (now renamed Lung, had considered it her duty to go to street outside. He had endeavored to beg "Sons of the Sliver Land") to the western Low and his newly married wife, Fay Lee, laughed uproariously at what she considilike a truly deadly thing, for a Chinaman lost for there was demand for Chinese colonists. and the promoters told it loudly that there malicious lie, had turned her sister Celes- dead. He had mounted and begged at the this state is behind with its work to such spoken by a promoter: Had you ten years for liars and scandal mongers who could after the exodus known the Chinatown of lift tongue against such an honorable and the deed crowded. And so at last they had all have stated it, but rather to give the people gene—among the crowd Sing Low's own relief from the supreme court. This state preciate the fact. For the Chinese colonists giving expression to many naughty words of night. had made unto themselves a place of their and tearfully saying-just as a civilized own in the western part of the city, out woman might have done under similar cirbeyond the marshes; many narrow streets cumstances—"The next time she meddled who were no longer colonists, but full- eyes-

front of this restaurant generally sat Sing much the worse for liquor. He had brought Low, but not the Sing Low of the Soo-Chow his new wife, Felipa, to her home, he stated, rice fields-far from it. This was a very fat with drunken dignity, and Pay Lee must walt and important Sing Low, in full and flowing upon her and see that she had what she about a sleek and shining head, and silk- honorable mistress of the house, and Fay shod feet thrust into flapping embroidered Lee and the servants must bear themselves slippers. A large gold American watch accordingly. dangled from his eash, and yellow Mexican diamonds glittered on his pudgy fingerstruly had Sing Low, head of the "Sons of the Silver Land," prospered and waxed fat in a far land.

Piling Up Wealth.

once timidly proposed it-for she had no avenged. children, and her heart was sick for her native land—but Sing Low said a decided Sing Low was exceedingly happy with his well established that dealers or druggists fields. And, besides, in these American woman of much sprightliness and she had tution. While regular physicians are not lands even a coolie of low birth could be not married the portly old Chinaman for the friendly as a rule to most proprietary medihad been of no import in China, nor would broldering his clothes and waiting on him disputed favor of physicians of all schools. even his $20,000 make him a mighty man hand and foot-not a bit of it. And so she Radway's Read Relief should be in every

To all of which poor Fay Lee had to conof no small persuasive power, particularly when aided with a bamboo stick. And he hesitated not to chastise the wife of his bosom when occasion needed, for did not even the laws of the Christians say: "Wives. obey your husbands in the Lord?" Not that it often became necessary to impress this latter fact upon Fay Lee, for she loved the prosperity, even as she had once loved live the life that her husband bade, em- blandishment could move him. broidering his costly garments and waiting on him as though she were his bonded slave. instead of his wife. And during the long Mexican wife told on him. Sing Low began hours that he epent in the opium house or to sink lower and lower, both morally and in the secret lodge of the "Sons of the Silver of tea and admiring thoughts of the brave figure that her "honorable lord" was at that moment of a surety making as the head of his society. Poor Fay Lee!

A New Shine.

you will find. For, even as the best-laid woman thardly to be recognized as the

The shock and strain of being fired from a cannon daily through a circus season would seem to be extraorlinary. But it is not nearly so wearing upon the average woman's nervous system, as the strain and drain of the every day life of the married woman, It great shock of the storm which wears the the "continual stone but dropping." So in woman's the great demands upon her out, but the which wear interminable leakage of her strength through the diseases that affect the delicate womanly organs. To stop this ceaseless leakage of rength is as much the desire as the duty of women. It can be done once and for all by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is not a cure-all but it is specially designed for a specific purpose, the cure of the diseases peculiar to women. It dries up the drains, allays inflammations, heals the ulcerations and cures the displacements which are at the bottom of woman's miseries. There is neither opium, tocaine or other narcotic

"For five years my wife was in an almost helpless condition, suffering from female weakness writes J S Ferentit, Esq. of Hagerman, Washington Co. Pla Last September I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Fuverite Prescription. She took several bottles of the medicine and gave birtle to a ten pound son on January sist. 1888. She is now sound and well and doing lies housework.

A gift. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser tool pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of postage only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper bound volume, or it stamps for cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

DEADLY DOOM OF SING LOW wife vanish into naught—through the fault. Sing Low was released from the hands of his of the man, of course. Sing Low, to make torturers, far more dead than alive. His a long story short, fell in love one bright drimken stuper had lasted but a short time given to, for which reason Sing Low made he waited what he knew was still to come a had mess of it, and loved far more des- The room was still now, and you could have CHIN SI TALE WITH A MORAL be blamed overmuch, for Felips was the the great sharp, sword. Another man, the prettiest girl, out and out, who had ever cousin of Sing Low, knell quietly in front of Sons of the Silver Land Didn't Do n of the naughtiest. Her brother ta gam- and forward so as to meet the uplifted sword bler from Mazatlan) had used her many. Then there was deathly quiet as the huge she had ever caught.

coast of Mexico. With them journeyed Sing the faithless one. But Fay Lee had first jabbering hysterically, only to be cast aside ered a joke, and later, believing the tale a to caste and his secret society is worse than established fact that the supreme court of was plenty of money to be made in the tial out of the house, with calmiy ex- feet of his cousin, but he, too, had passed extent that relief is needed; not so much to "silver land." For once the truth had been presect convictions as to the fate in store relentlessly on, paying no attention to a dead relieve the supreme court, as some lawyers taurant of Sing Low: American Pies." In night Sing Low came home, not alone, and yet to them he turned. Chinese garments, pigtail neatly wound wanted. For she (Felipa) was to be the

Bided Her Time.

and silken apparel for the new wife. No Sing Low. Unable to endure it, the poor ough research on this proposition, but Inside the restaurant many Chinese wali- attentions were neglected, though Sing Low brute slunk out, and wandered distractedly have no hesitancy in declaring that there is ers and cooks rushed about, serving all watched vigilantly for them. And only when about the streets. He was unnoticed, and need for some kind of an arrangement by sorts and conditions of men at the manta her services were no longer needed did the even when in the early morning he begged which the work of the supreme court can covered tables. For Madre de Dios was a supplanted woman go forth full of murder- for bread, not a crust was given him, not a be kept more nearly up to date. I doubt the steamer town, whence hides and silver and ous fury and hate from the house of her hur- drop of water. He was dead to his people advisability, however, of placing district bullion were shipped to Lower California and even San Francisco, and many men of official in the secret society; to him she went.

Second of the second to t many sorts ate chili con carne, and tortillas of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of and "American plas" in the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of and "American plas" in the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of and "American plas" in the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of an analysis of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of an analysis of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the usefulness of the second day he rupt the even tenor and the second day he rupt the even tenor and the second day he rupt the even tenor and the second day he rupt the even tenor and the second day he rupt the even tenor and the second day he rupt the even tenor and the second day he rupt the even tenor and the second day he rupt the even tenor and the second day he rupt the even tenor and the second day he rupt the even tenor and the second day he rupt the even tenor and the second day he rupt the even tenor and the second day he rupt the even tenor and the second day he rupt the even tenor and the second day he rupt the even tenor and the second day he rupt the even tenor and the second day he rupt the and "American pies" in the restaurant of Sing Low. There were dirty greasers and swaggering bearmed Mexicans, who drank bottles upon bottles of fiery mescal, and consumed untold numbers of ples and respect had been transgressed by Sing Low. The pistol Sing Low made his way back to because it could be so arranged that no American canned beans, while Sing Low who had not even advised Fay Lee of his smilled from afar, with a keen eye upon col- intention. It was on insult to her and all lections. For twenty years he had saved her family, which the cousin was not slow and toiled, but another year would see the to realize. But insults are not prison end. Then, with Fay Lee, who was now old offenses and must be avenged privately; and fat, and the 20,000 Mexican dollars that wherefore the cousin and Fay Lee said noththey had made he would go to San Fran- ing, but bided their time, having in mind a cisco. Back to China? No! Fay Lee had way in which they could be more than

"No." He had not yet forgotten the rice pretty young wife. But Felipa was a young find it unprofitable to ever attempt substias mighty as a mandarin; he. Sing Low, sole purpose of kow-towing to him and em- cines, yet Radway's remedies enjoy the unthere. In other words, better to reign in emphatically stated. On the contrary, she family, factory, hospital, home and instituhell than to serve in heaven, or one's na- wished many friends, and pretty costumee tion. It has extraordinary power and much To all of which poor Fay Lee had to con-sent, of course, Sing Low being a husband of no small persuasive power particularly. She had no intention of being any man's fat, pompous Sing Low now, in the midst of gave in to her and humored her in all things. United States into almost every quarter of humble Sing Low of the rice fields. It is the every endeavor she could not make him tell feet for many years. way of many women. And, though there her whah went on at the meetings of his

Setting a Hot Pace.

As time went on and the influence of his physically. He drank steadily now, and Land," she consoled herself with many cups more and more of the "black smoke" became nccessary-and even the apple of his eye. his restaurant, with its American pies, began to be neglected. So that many whisperings and reports got about, and more than one high official of the secret society mur-I say "poor Fay Lee" with a purpose, se mured distrust. Meanwhile a worn and aged plans of mice and men go astray, so did portly Pay Lee of yore) watched and walted, the plans and hopes of Sing Low and his eager for revenge. And in the secret society the "Sons of the Silver Land" one of the high officials went about stealthily spreading reports that a traiter was among them; that important secrets had more than once been given away, and that if not located and dealt with the traitor would soon accomplish the uir of the society.

All this came to a head one night when the noet important meeting of the year was ield. For more than an hour the rooms of the secret acciety had been filled with an ominously quiet crowd of Chinamen, who were waiting in perfect stillness the return of one of the officials who had gone to fetch heir erstwhile head, Sing Low. For the irst time in twenty-one years he had failed to appear at the meeting of the society, and, more than that, all the private records and documents of the "Sons of the Silver Land" had been stolen. No wonder there was per-come with the mixture of opium and had destruction of thousands of dollars' worth of cognac to walk of his own accord. He was property. ropped fimply into the corner where the Chinaman and his sword waited, and to a malignantly quiet set of members the cousin showed the precious papers and records that he had just taken from Sing Low's sitken yest. The man had been found dead drunk in a low canting in the Mexican part of the town, while the society papers and records had access to only by two men, the cousin and Sing Low himself-were dropping uc. heeded to the canting floor, to be seen there of all who might care to read. And but for the cousin, who had found them in time, the papers would have been distributed far and wide before the setting of tomorrow's sun. and the society, "S ns of the Silver Land," with all its important secrets, would have been ruined, and many of its members implicated in all corts of crimes and given up. o prison cells, or perhaps the gallows. The sin of Sing Low had been a tremendous one, for which no atonoment could be made, and there was but one thing to do, so far as his unishment was concerned. The meeting lasted a long time, and finally drove off with them.

It was a thing that Celestials are not under their hands, and in a frenzy of terro perately than any other Chinamon on rec- heard a pin drop as the wretched man was ord-at least, so his sighing protests to the placed on his kness just in front of the seen seen in Madre de Dios-as well as one him, and drew his bared head and neck down months as a lure, and more than one hap- blade ascended. It made a circle and a less Mexican had come to grief for her whistling sweep in the air before nake, but Sing Low was the best game that descended slowly and touched the neck of the condemned. There it stopped. No blood There is in Spanish a proverb setting come, and there was no cry or mean from just touched his flesh, and no more. Then "Honorable judge, this man is dead!" Five minutes later the Chinamen were all hurrying from the hall. Sing Low had been description of the doings and misdoings of Then he had clung to the judge's knees.

Rend His Obituary.

guedy Chinese script over a tea shop and band and it soon escaped her mind. That her, or even for his restaurant, with its courts as assistants. It might be a case of

Posted up in front of the opium den owned by him was a large bill, setting forth his execution. He read it. Two other men. waiters in his restaurant, were reading it at garment brushed against one of them, and bave five supreme judges, and even seven, if the men moved back as if some dead beast were there. To these two men Sing Low spoke, but they seemed to see only empty air where he stood. He went into the opium Your Chinese wife is no creature of high den, begging for the "black smoke," but no tragedy and Fay Lee acted under all circum-one heard him or saw him. All the men stances as a well-behaved Chinese lady seated and lying about the room were dis- power exists for putting it in force should, placing perfumed water and powders cussing the execution of the once respected

For two days the torture of Sing Low en-Chinatown, where he read over again one judge would pass on his own case, yet it of his own death notices, and, standing un- would perhaps have a tendency to lead to parillian Resolvent and Radway's Pills are standard household medicines that have outlived all competition. Their merit is so and boxes at the bull fights and the one unnecessary suffering may be prevented by its prompt application. Probably almost everybody in the United States knows R. R. R. stands for 'redin,' And so began the formenting of poor old "ritin" and 'rithmetic," and besides that, Sing Low. He soon learned that in the be- everybody who can read, write and figure witching Felipa he had caught a veritable knows that the same initials also stand docket is unsatisfactory, inasmuch as there Tariar, and that unless humored she could for Radway's Ready Relief, the famous speand would make his life a torment to him. cific for all sorts of ills the human flesh is Wherefore, like a wise man, he promptly beir to. Its fame has passed out of the -that is, in all things but one. Despite her the globe. It has been used with good ef-

Household Remedies. Radway's Ready Relief, Radway's Sarsa-

Radway's Pills, too, are widely known as were few friends, and no children for her to secret society. On that one subject alone a remedy for liver and stomach diseases. caress with affection, she was content to Sing Low remained mute, and no cajolery or The headquarters of the firm, which has sale everywhere.

Announcements.

tainment means.

Friday night. The roster includes the three Cansles, in a Japanese specialty: T. H. Dreggs, rag time plano player: Leslie Elmer and Walter Robinson, in a tramp specialty; Charles McGee, high and trick kloker. Hyde and Raymond, black face song and dance artists; Lulu Gonden, singing and dancing soubrette; N. L. Ramery, basso; Robert Ratekin and J. Carroll, David and Hattie Lewkowitz, coon shouters and cake walkers; J. Richardson, the Grand Island baritone, and Ruth Leonard and Margaret Bell, two young soubrettes.

Engine Regarded as a Hoodoo CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 31 -- (Special.)feet stillness in the secret rooms, and that Engine No. 815, which was in the wreck at over in the corner one Chinaman waited. Brighton a month ago, was turned cut of the solding a huge, razor-edged sword. These Union Pacific shops here yesterday, having things are dealt with quickly among Chinese been rebuilt. All enginemen look upon the locomotive with suspicion, as they regard it They brought him in presently, the cousin as a hoodoo. It is said that no less than ten and another society member carrying him, men have met death on the $15 and scores of for the honorable head was too much over- other employes injured, to say nothing of the > Missouri and Missouriaus. The carpenters of Sedulia

There are 155 inmates at the Confederate one at Higginsville. Jefferson City wants the state nominating entions of both parties.

neer man burchased $10,000 worth of rees and mules at Monroe City lass week ohn Jennings of Laclede stands six feet inches in his stocking feet and weighs

The supreme court has cut off 1,000 of Webb City's population by deciding that the city council illegally extended the limits of that town a year ago.

Joseph Utt, who was burned to death in the Harris-Anderson lumber yard fire at Lexington, was a famous hunter and lisher in that locality for many years and numbered among his friends every lover of field sports with lived in that locality.

Mrs. Mary Steelman of Beauty of the country of Mrs. Mary Steelman of Beaman, who dis-arceared from home last October, returned a few days ago and related a strange story about having been abducted and held a prisoner by a strange man rear Warsaw for three months. She fells that the man placed her and her two children and her two children in a wagon and Prominent Atterneys Discuss Proposed R in or ement of Eup eme Court.

XISTING CONDITIONS UNSATISFACTORY

General Manderson, W. R. Kelly, Judge Duffie and Others Unite in Declaring that the Supreme Court Demands Attention.

Prominent members of the Omaha bar conaue to discuss the proposition suggested Bee relative to reinforcing the y The preme court by calling upon the judges the district court for assistance in re-

The bar, so far as interviewed, is a unit declaring that something must be done to expedite supreme court work. Present conitions are very unsatisfactory, and there is no reason to expect any improvement until some arrangement is made for adding to the deceived and neglected wife with a full mercy, but his lips were stiff and dumb. the force. A difference of opinion exists as to the best method of reinforcement. Interviews with attorneys follow: General Charles F. Manderson-It is a well

Madre de Dios and the restaurant and "tea noble man as her lord and busband, Sing clerks and employes and the dead crouched has grown to such proportions that the suplace" of Sing Low you would better ap- Low. Wherefore Ah Toy had departed, alone and deserted of all, in the darkness preme bench needs reinforcement. It is reasonable to suppose that this growth will continue and that litigation will increase In the early dawn Sing Low stumbled proportionately. Thus it is at once apparent drunkenly homeward-not to the house in that the bench as it is at present constiwere filled with the shops of the Chinese, in the attempt to open a deceived wife's which he lived with his Mexican wife, but tuted will never be able to clear up the work to Chinatown, for at the last, whether in that has accumulated and at the same time Placidly indignant, yet somewhat amused, joy, sorrow, death or disgrace, the heart of devote attention to new business that will In the very center of the Chinese civiliza- Pay Lee went back to her embroidery and a even an Oriental turns to his own people, arise from time to time. But I tion, and fronting a view of hot, blue gulf fresh cup of tea. The incident did not seem such as they may be. And Sing Low had do not fully endorse the proposiwater, Sing Low's name was blazoned in of enough importance to repeat to her hus- no thought of Felipa, much as he had loved tion to call in the judges of the district opium den, while uptown, where Mexicans any one should dare to tell such things of American sign, that had brought him so appealing from Caesar to Caesar. In the and mining men most did congregate, an her most honorable and faithful lord, ex- much money. The Americans of the Mexiother building, made of yellow adobe and pecting her to believe them! She did be- cans would take him in surely, for had he composed the supreme court and along in pine boards, bore the legend: "Chinese Res- lieve, however, when very late that same not money? His own people had cast him cut, the early '70s, when the state had outgrown such arrangement, a supreme bench was created independent of the district bench.

> we reduce the district bench. W. R. Kelly-I have not given this ques tion any attention and am therefore not ready to express an opinion. I do not care to speak as to the policy of such arrangement until I have satisfied myself that the > and add to the supreme bench. We might

Judge E. R. Duffle-I have not made thorjudges on the supreme bench as assistants. I believe it would have a tendency to disder it, placed the pistol to his temple and undesirable complications. There is no blew out what remained of his poor, addled doubt in my mind that something ought to be done, but why not make a clear-cut issuof it and establish a supreme bench permanently by taking the necessary steps toward > adding two members to the bench? W. S. Poppleton-I will not undertake now to express an opinion as to the constitutionality of the proposition, but I will go legal method by which the supreme court docket may be kept up to date. There is need of improvement. C. A Goss-I realize urgent necessity for offhand way. I do not care to enter into the constitutional phase of the proposition presented by The Bee, but I am most heartily in favor of taking action of some kind that will expedite business that comes before the supreme court. I think the proposition is well worthy of earnest consideration. E. M. Bartlett-Attorneys very generally agree that the status of the supreme court is such an accumulation of unfinished business, but I do not feel assured that the district judge plan would prove satisfactory. This, however, is an opinion expressed in an tention, and something will eventually have to be done.

branches all over the world, are at 55 Elm best way in which to solve the problem that men. It is true that members of that constreet. New York, and their goods are on has presented itself. The abolition of that vention have since become wise and experi commission was not because of unsatta-Tonight David Belasco's war drama, "The in favor of the district judge plan. There Heart of Maryland," will be presented at are district judges and there are district not be. So the problem is. What remedy the Boyd for an engagement that will in- junges. While I believe that the member. clude tomorrow night and a special matinee of the district bench in Douglas. Lancaster tomorrow afternoon. The leading role, for- and many other counties are amply qualified merly played by Mrs. Lestie Carter, will to render valuable assistance to the supreme bench, it must be admitted that a small percentage is likely to lack the qualifications that should make up the ideal judge of a supreme court. This does not imply lack of qualifications for a district judgeship, but I mean to say that not all district judges would make the right kind of timber for the supreme bench. There is a vast difference in the work. I am in favor of is statutory may be removed by the legis. be assumed by Alma Kruger. It is said that bench, it must be admitted that a small the entire scenic setting that aided in mak- percentage is likely to lack the qualifications ing the drama such a success from the time that should make up the ideal judge of of its first presentation will be used. Any- supreme court. This does not imply lack vogue in many other states and it has been one knowing David Belasco's love for smart of qualifications for a district judgeship, but fairly satisfactory and it was fairly satisfacstage detail can appreciate what this enter- I mean to say that not all district judges tory here. The fourth of the series of amateur per- ference in the work. I am in favor of is statutory may be removed by the legisformances will be given at the Orpheum agitating the commission proposition when lature. This is the statute prohibiting the the legislature meets again. That, in my court from requiring printed abstracts condition that confronts us.

Sunday advocating relief for the supreme property rights cannot long have the respect under present conditions the administration of justice in this state is little less than iot be reached for hearing during the next five years. This is often a substantial victory for the party defeated in the lower court and is a practical denial of justice to the successful party. There are hundreds of cases now on the single meritorious question, or profess to, and which are there merely for the purpose of gaining this victory. The party entitled to relief and having obtained the judgment or decree in the court below is denied it until relief is almost without value. It is im possible to calculate the direct pecuniary losses to litigants, but the aggregate of direct lorses to litigants is a mere bagatelle compared to the indirect losses resulting to whole people of the state from the existence of such scandalous conditions. It is not the fault of the court. The court i helpless. The volume of business is now and has been for years beyond its capacity But your auggestion that the court be relieved by calling the district judges to the assistance of the court is, in my judgment, objectionable, because:

First-it cannot be constitutionally carried out. This, if correct, would, of course, be a decisive answer.

Second-The plan would not be satisfactory to the public-litigants would not be satisfied with opinions in that court written by judges of the district court. A litigant who defeated in the district court, feels that his case has been incorrectly determined there,

America Says:

Philadelphia, Drc. 11th. 1899.

Eight performances each week, with the change of bill weekly. and a memorizing of from secenty-five to two hundred pages of manuscript, began to tell upon my health. I was on the verge of a callapse, when a friend advised me to take Warner's Safe Cure. It acted like a miracle. I used only three bottles of this famous remedy, and was completely restored to my former good health. I feel that I owe my present strong condition physically to this remedy, and take pleasure in informing you of it. Very sincerely.

to any woman needing same. Address: "MRS, ALICE McCULLOUGH, M. D. (Personal), Warner's Safe

Warner's Safe Care Co. Rochester, N. Y.

Altria Tallatin A thoroughly competent and regularly graduated woman physician will give medical advice free, and it is obviously to the interest of the the accumulated business of the court has

supreme court. If there is any judge in the submission of causes. By those state who has too little to do it is simply because he does not do well what he has to do. A judge should have time for study and he cannot have too much. We have many evidences that they have too little time and dences the submissioners in each. Among the many are eight cups valuable. Among the many are countries to take the submissioners in each. Among the many are countries to take the submissioners in each. Among the many are countries to take the submissioners in each. Among the many are countries to take the submissioners in each. Among the many are countries that they are adopted to take the submissioners in each. Among the many are countries to take the submissioners in each. Among the many are countries to take the submissioners in each. Among the many are countries to take the submissioners in each. Among the many are countries to take the submissioners in each. Among the many are countries to take the submissioners in each. Among the many are countries to take the submissioners in each. Among the many are countries to take the submissioners in each. Among the many are countries to take the submissioners in each. Among the many are countries to take the submissioners in each. Among the many are countries to take the submissioners to discuss the countries that the club is considering the submissioners to take the submissioners to discuss the countries to take the submissioners to take the submissioners to take the submissioners to tak field in which no man eyer becomes perfecand while one might overwork himself. which, of course, he should not do, no judge or lawyer is so wise or ever becomes so wise on record as favoring most heartly any that he cannot advantageously learn more.

There has been in this state for many cars past a persistent tendency to degrads all governmental institutions-instead of ele vating curselves to what should be the high reinforcement of the supreme court. In an standard of our institutions, we degrade our institutions. Your suggestion is in this line Its tendency will be to degrade the supreme court. I do not say this in any offensive sense, but merely to point out the fact that the tendency of what you suggest would be to bring the highest judicial tribunal of the state, one which should command the most perfect respect and confidence of all of the people and be everywhere regarded as to acred for the slightest contamination, to the level of the district courts in public estima tion and in fact.

How, then, shall the evil of the presen conditions be remedied? There can be no offhand way. The situation warrants at perfect or permanent remedy under ou present constitution. We have outgrown the provisions and restrictions of that in W. A. Redick-I believe the commissioner strument in this, as well as in many other plan formerly in effect in this state is the particulars. It was framed by inexperienced enced men, but they were twenty-five years factory results from its workings, but younger then than now. The constitution resimply a freakish idea. I am not altogether quires many changes, but these cannot be wiskly made and it is well that they cansmall be devised until the constitution can be thanged?

I do not believe that any remedy can b found better than that of the appointment judgment, is the easiest solution for the the record in each case. The passage c this law was the height of folly. It not only makes an enormous amount of unneces OMAHA, Jan. 39 .- To the Editor of The sary work for the court, but, what is far Bee: The editorial contained in The Bee | more important, it precludes the possibility of careful and independent examination by court opens discussion upon a subject of the bighest importance to the state. A governorm court receives in each case a typewritten court receives in each case a typewritten ment which does not afford ample provision transcript of the record in the court befor the speedy enforcement of personal and low, in which the evidence is generally written out, question and answer. These of the people and it must be confessed that transcripts often contain more than 500 pages and I have seen them containing more than 1.000 pages, of which everyscandalous. A case docketed now in the su- thing material to the questions presented preme court, unless relief be afforded, will and necessary for the information of the judges might have been abstracted and printed in twenty or thirty, or perhaps forty pages; yet the judge who writes to opinon in the case must read the who contents of the transcript in order to dis cut what is material and as he reads ! docket of the court which do not present a with the knowledge that much of it is of no value to the inquiry he will necessarily often overlook that which is material and get an imperfect or perhaps entirely erroneous understanding of the record. As there is but one of these transcripts goes without saying that only one judg examines it, whereas, if there there printed abstracts the matter to be examined by the judges would be reduced to that which was material, would be placed before them in the most convenient form for examination and each would have a copy and be able to make independent examinations.

> Good Digestion Horsford's Acid Phosphate

Taken regularly after meals, removes the sense of distress, oppression and 'all gone" feeling of the stomach. Genum bears name Honsronn's on wrapper.

judge of the district court. He wants to feel, ber of commissioners should be six, until He made no effort to give bond. that an appeal to the court of last resort be allowed to file a dissenting opinion, as will invoke the highest powers and best talents the state can procure.

Third—You are certainly mistaken in assuming that the judges of the district court have time to devote to the business of the approval of a majority of the judges. Then let the court sit in three divisions, one judge and two commissioners in each, among the many are eight curs valued of a majority of the judges.

Then let the court sit in three divisions, one judge and two commissioners in each, among the many are eight curs valued of the court sit in three divisions. state that he should be made to justly feel, been disposed of; no commissioner should dences that they have too little time and cussion of this subject, as its importance one that they study too much. The law is a demands thorough consideration and groupt action when the legislature convenes.

W. W. MORSMAN.

> HOLMES IS ON TRIAL AGAIN Alleged Forger of Railroad Tickets Prought Into Court on

Three New Charges. F. Holmes, who was a curbstone ticket broker in this city during the exposition, and who was recently bound over to the district court on charges of forgery preferred by Burlington Route agents, is again before Judge Vinsonhaler to answer hree additional charges in which a similar

James C. Hitt, a St. Joseph tickel broker, the received a consignment of bogus tickets from Holmes, and who gave to the railoads information that led to the expose of the alleged fraud, is the principal witess. Mr. Hitt was here a few weeks ago when Holmes had his preliminary trial on the original charge.

It is said that Holmes' method of forgery was the most clever that has ever been deted in rullroad circles. He had a scheme, it is said, by which he validated expired tickets by filling up the punch marks with paper pulp and restoring the original figures. The proceedings were cut much shorter

GRAIN-O! GRAIN-O!

Remember that name when you want

will not be satisfied (and he should not be should be repealed, leaving the court at Hb- this time than on the previous trial, and expected to be) with an appeal to a tribunal crty to require printed abstracts of the Holmes was, with but comparatively little where his rights may again be, wholly or record by rule: the commissioner system coremony, held for trial in the district court, partially, considered and determined by a should again be resorted to, but the num- his bond being fixed at $1,500 in each cos Invitation to Omaha Curling Club

Railroad Man Goes Insane HUTCHINSON, Kan, Jan al.-W. A Harvey, general freight and passenger agent of the Arizona & Southwestern railroad, with headquarters at Bisbee, Ariz. is in this city in a pittable condition. He was on his way to Chicago and got off the Santa Fe train here, leaving his grip and overcoat on the train. At first it was thought he was certified on the conditions of the condit thought he was getting over the effects of an overdose of cocaine, but his condition became worse and he was locked up. It is evident now that he is mentally unbalanced. His parents, who live in Wisconsin have been notified.

Champagne Imports in 1800. As shown by Customs statistics the imports in 1899 of G. H. Mumm's Extra fire reached the enormous figure of 109,303 cases, being 72,495 cases more than of any other brand-a record unprecedented in the bistory of champagne. Its 1895 vintage now imported has no equal.

40 Per Cent Discount.

We are now giving 40 per cent from the factory prices on all Wizard Cameras. Come in and see the bargains we have. We have a first class Folding Camera. Bulb Shutter, Iris diaphragm, rising and falling front and ground glass, regular price $10.00, our price $6.00.

THE ALOE & PENFOLD CO.

1408 Farnam St., (Opposite Paxton Hotel.) Omnha, Ncb.

When Drex L. Shooman-

gets on the north side of the Tugela he will tell Uncle Paul Kruger what a good thing we have for tired feet-Uncle Paul's feet must be sore by this time between the coming and agoin' that has been going on, but a pair of our men's $2.50 Goodyear welts will rest any man's feet. Our shoes always wear and wear well for they are new, fresh stock-old shelf-worn shoes lese all their good wearing qualities, for they become dry and hard. Ours never have a chance to get old. The values are such tha tthe stock is continually new. You that the stock is continually new. should try a pair of these $2.50 Good

Drexei Shoe Co., Omaka's Up-to-date Shee House,

1419 FARNAM STREET.

Knabe Pianos-

Peerless, unsurpassed-endorsed by the greatest living artists-we carry them in the different beautiful vencersthe new styles with the Duett music in my judgment, this foolish statute desk and the roll fall board-put these instruments in the front rounds of upto-date designs. Our prices are as low as at the factory and we sell them for cash or easy monthly payments.

> A. HOSPE, Music and Art. 1513 Douglas.

