

broken beyond bounds here the loss would have been enormous. This is the middle of the commission district, where the streets are narrow and the buildings old, and their contents are of a combustible nature. Nothing could have prevented the fire from sweeping everything to the river.

In the meantime stores and buildings on the north side of Franklin avenue, for a half block east and west of Broadway, were suffering. The great heat from the burning buildings emitted broke the windows and soon flying embers had started blinds in a half dozen different places. The tenants living above hastily removed as much of their property as possible.

The fire started at the corner of Franklin and Broadway, and a saloon on the opposite corner, with some small shops adjoining, which were partially destroyed, were the heaviest losers. The other losses were confined to broken glass and scorched store fronts.

The trolley wires along Broadway and Franklin avenue were a source of danger and until they were cut on the mayor's orders there were numerous narrow escapes from electrocution.

District Superintendent Baumhoff of the United Railway company and a corps of men set about repairing a derailed Citizens' line car at Fourth and M-aven streets. Stretching a long chain from a Fourth street grip car, the power of the cable was used to haul it out of the way of the firemen.

The fireman started his car, but did not release it soon enough. The derailed car bumped along over the granite, crashed into a fire engine, which was stationed on the corner and crushed Fireman Hamre. He was carried into the corner cigar store, where he died.

Private Watchman is Arrested. ST. LOUIS, Feb. 4.—Late tonight John Williams, private watchman of Penny & Gentile's, was arrested for being in possession of the Four Courts pending an investigation into the origin of the fire. He was taken into custody as the result of a statement of a woman residing opposite to the effect that she had seen a man answering the watchman's description watching matches in the store previous to the fire.

FIREMEN HURT AT CHICAGO. One Fatality May Result from Cave-in of a Floor at a Basket Factory Fire. CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—Four firemen and two spectators were injured during the progress of a fire at the basket factory of John S. Benedict at 234-240 North Green street today.

The injured: Captain William Bergan, right leg broken and burned about body; may die. Lieutenant Frank Nigg, burned about face and hands. Paul Baugarten, hurt about back, face and hands. Martin Geary, injured about back and legs. Mrs. Rosa Wagada, 39 years old, injured by porch giving way at a house opposite the burning building while watching the fire.

Deaths. Sophie Kolomba, 13 years old, injured similarly. Bergman, Geary, Baugarten and Nigg were in the second story when the floor caved in plugging all four in the ruins. They were rescued with difficulty. The building, filled with dry lumber and machinery, was entirely destroyed. Loss $18,000, no insurance.

Followed by Anxious Creditors. SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Feb. 4.—(Special Telegram.)—Mrs. Alfreda Follente, the New York society woman and niece of J. Van Alen, the well known New York millionaire, who has resided here for the last eight or nine months pending action upon her application for a divorce, which was granted a few days ago, and whose dwelling was besieged by creditors acting for anxious creditors, has departed for the east. A number of creditors gathered at the depot, among them two beer merchants, one of whom succeeded in obtaining his money. A jeweler succeeded in getting possession of a valuable ring which had been presented by "counters," as she was known here, by an impetuous admirer. The civil suit commenced against her by the owner of the dwelling she occupied for damages done the property by her alleged carousers will probably be indefinitely postponed when it comes up for hearing on February 13.

ALLEN FOR A STOOL PIGEON

Schemes to Nominate the Populist Nebraska Senator for President. LET HIM WITHDRAW IN FAVOR OF BRYAN

Populists Who Favor Fusion Anticipate Trouble in the Selection of Nominees for the Presidential Ticket.

LYNCOLN, Feb. 4.—(Special.)—As a possible solution of the problem that now confronts the populist party it has been suggested that Senator William V. Allen be named as the populist nominee for president.

It is not at all certain that the fusionists, the fellows who favor nominating Bryan and demanding in exchange the vice presidency, will be in the majority. If they are the convention will probably be located with that of the democrats, but if the middle-of-the-roaders predominate the convention will be held a month or more earlier.

The scheme proposed for defeating the opponents of fusion is to have Allen nominated, with the national committee holding the power to fill any vacancy that might occur on Allen's name if he were to be substituted. It is also asserted that by pursuing this plan there would be a possibility of having Allen nominated for vice president by the democrats.

Mr. Thompson has offered the city a building lot at Eleventh and J streets for the proposed Carnegie public library building. The Public Library board will meet Tuesday night to consider the various propositions concerning a site for the building.

TO AID THE SUPREME COURT. Opinions of Judges on the Suggestions Made by The Bee to Help the Court.

The following replies have been received from the district judges relative to The Bee's recent suggestions for expediting the work of the supreme court:

FENDER, Neb., Feb. 2.—To the Editor of The Bee: Yours asking my views of the plan suggested by The Bee for the relief of the press of business in the supreme court, will say the plan is worthy of careful consideration. Very respectfully, GUY T. GRAVES, Judge Eighth District.

ORD, Neb., Feb. 2.—To the Editor of The Bee: Since receiving your letter I have given your plan for the temporary relief of the supreme court such consideration as my time would permit and I am at this time inclined to think it worthy of serious consideration.

The long delay now incident to reviewing ordinary cases in the supreme court works substantial injustice to nearly all litigants and in many cases is practically equivalent to a denial of justice to parties in interest.

Another and perhaps more serious evil resulting from the present system is the loss of confidence in the courts by a large number of people. In my opinion this has been largely brought about by the long delays necessary under our practice and due to the overburdened condition of the supreme court dockets. Any plan that would even in a measure tend to relieve these conditions is worthy of serious consideration. I can see no reason at this time why this plan might not prove of value. In the absence of a statute making the assistance of the supreme court obligatory on the district judges, the suggestion of course would be rendered voluntarily.

There may be constitutional objections, but from the limited consideration I have given the subject I can see no reason why the district judges might not render services similar to those rendered by the commission of courts in the supreme court should they be given the right to do so.

FREMONT, Neb., Feb. 4.—(Special.)—Friday afternoon, while Lettingwell Bros., who have been running a sawmill on the island southwest of the city, were hauling their engine and machinery across the river the ice suddenly broke and the engine, a 10-horse-power machine, went to the bottom. Yesterday it was found that it has sunk several feet into the quicksand, and a force of men with teams and jackstaws were set to work to get it out.

Bryan Goes to Church at Holyoke. HOLYOKE, Mass., Feb. 4.—William J. Bryan remained in this city all day and went to bed early tonight. He attended the service in the First Presbyterian church and joined in the singing of hymns. A. R. Pennell, the pastor, introduced him to the church members and made a short address.

Tomorrow Mr. Bryan will visit Pittsfield and North Adams, leaving Holyoke in time to connect with the train leaving Springfield, at 8:30 a. m. Speeches will be made at each of these places. On Monday day he will enter Connecticut, speaking at Hartford and Bridgeport. This will conclude his tour of New England.

Taylor Averts Civil War. (Continued from First Page.) classes of the city. The world does not seem to know that cultured Boston or metropolitan New York would fare even worse by the selection of such standards. The order, countermanding a night attack. He complained of General White's want of consideration in keeping the burghers out of bed on "Mourning Monday."

AN EXODUS FROM FRANKFORT. Legislators Leave the Capital, Democrats for Their Homes. FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 4.—Members of the legislature are exceedingly scarce in Frankfort today. Nearly every member has left the city, the republicans having been the direction of London and the majority of the democrats to their homes, although a small number of them have gone to Cincinnati.

As a usual thing many members leave the city on Saturday to spend their Sundays at home, but the exodus has never been so complete as at this time. The leaving of the democratic senators and representatives has been upon the advice of their attorneys, who have told them that it would be, all things considered, the best thing for them to go to their homes. It is believed that they will be reached in a hurry if attempts should be made to arrest them and take them to London, as has been threatened by the military forces of the state.

There have been numerous rumors all day that the democrats intended to hold a session of their own at some place in the state outside of Frankfort. Sometimes the rumor named Covington and sometimes it was London. The report could not be substantiated in any way, however. Representative G. T. Berry, who was about the capital today, said that he had been advised to go away from Frankfort until after the republicans had started their session at London, but said that he had decided to remain here.

He denied that there was any intention to hold a democratic session at any place outside of some place outside of the capital of the state. To Organize a Battalion. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 4.—Late tonight it was decided by General Castleman to organize a battalion of what is to be known as the First Regiment. J. P. MEDIATION TO BE DISCUSSED

Question Will Be Brought Up in the House This Week. MOVE FOR A MINISTER TO THE BOERS

Congressman Smith to Offer an Amendment to the Diplomatic and Consular Bill to This Effect.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Tomorrow is suspension day in the house, but the regular order is likely to be superseded by the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill, which Congressman Smith expects to call up.

Further discussion of the Philippine question is also inevitable. It is hoped to dispose of the bill within two days, but it is probable that he will be disappointed.

For the remainder of the week the program is not arranged. A contested election case or the District of Columbia appropriation bill may be brought forward after the diplomatic bill is out of the way.

Currency Bill in the Senate. The currency bill will continue to hold its place on the calendar as the unfinished business each day after 2 o'clock during the week. No speeches can be formally announced.

Some of the friends of the bill, including Senator Allison, have indicated a purpose to address the senate on this measure, but they probably will defer their remarks until the following week. Senator Chandler probably will speak against the bill this week.

The speeches as formally announced for the week are: by Caffery, on the Philippine question, Monday; by Butler, on the proposed suffrage amendment to the North Carolina constitution, Tuesday; by Turley, on the currency bill, Wednesday.

Senator Chandler will speak in support of the Quyn case during the week, but it is not expected he will succeed in displacing the currency bill. Senator Pettigrew's resolution on the Boers may receive some attention during the week. It is also probable that during the week Senator Spooner will make reply to Senator Allen's strictures on the secretary of the treasury, in connection with the public funds in New York banks. He desires to speak on Monday or Tuesday.

CROSSES THE TUGELA. (Continued from First Page.) for them. Over $200 was raised in the meeting and a committee of seven prominent Irish residents, was appointed to solicit funds. TRAITORS, SPIES AND PESTS. Some of the Elements Garrison at Ladysmith Must Contend Against—Daily Life There.

LONDON, Feb. 4.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—The Standard's correspondent at Ladysmith devotes the greater part of a two-column letter to the subject of spies. He writes: "That there are traitors and spies, white as well as black, in the garrison at Ladysmith is certain.

The enemy never fails to receive notice of our movements. General Joubert, indeed, is said to have been very angry because on one occasion he had not heard of the order countermanding a night attack. He complained of General White's want of consideration in keeping the burghers out of bed on "Mourning Monday."

The result of the British colonists is beyond suspicion, but the Dutch element in Natal is very strong. Several farmers have been caught red-handed, and many civilians and volunteers have brothers and cousins fighting on the other side. Every project for the relief of Ladysmith is being hindered by the long and the short of it.

FIGHTING ON MODDER RIVER. Julian Ralph Describes the Daily Scenes and Sounds of Life in Methuen's Camp.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Julian Ralph, the American correspondent, writes from Modder river to the Daily Mail under date of December 30: "Did you ever see any Boers?" an officer calls out to us.

"Very few," says I. "Just the prisoners we have taken"—for we are fighting an invisible foe, as everybody knows by this time. "Well, have a look through this." He turns the gun's telescope as he speaks and we look through it.

We must have been mistaken about the position of the Boers. Peace where all those Boers are! There has been no peace in Africa since the Boers came here; no peace for the British since they became the Boers' neighbors.

We are to lunch with the guards, welcomed and placed made for us. We went ourselves and are sorted with soup. "Boom! Scoot—scoot—scoot—scoot—scoot—scoot!" The boom is the noise of a big gun; the "scoot—scoot" is the shell tearing through the air; the "boom" is precisely like a cough—in the bursting of the shell.

"That's our Joey," says the colonel. "Let us see where the shell strikes. By Jove! A pretty shot—a plumb where they have their forty-pounder!" "Boom!" from the Boer gun on the right. "Ough!" from its shell, which sends up a fountain of spray of sand near the gauger's hut.

IRISH "JOAN OF ARC" SPEAKS. Tells Irishmen Now is the Time to Strike a Blow for Liberty.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—The Academy of Music was crowded from pit to dome tonight with men and women who listened to the "Irish Joan of Arc," in bitter denunciation of England's policy in South Africa.

Miss Gonne did not confine her remarks to the present war with the Boers, but no uncertain tones told her hearers that now is the time for the Irishmen to strike an effective blow and throw off the shackles that have bound them for more than 700 years.

England's difficulty is Ireland's opportunity and if you men have the freedom of Ireland at heart, now is your time," she declared with great applause. The crowd cheered itself hoarse. She said in part: "BALTIMORE, Feb. 4.—Nearly 3,000 persons attended an enthusiastic pro-Boer meeting in Ford's opera house tonight.

FAKE FROM MUDDER RIVER. Roberts Reported a Prisoner and Buller Killed—Later News Gives Different Version.

MODDER RIVER, Saturday, Feb. 3.—The laundret at New Boshof read publicly on January 26 a telegram which he said he had just received. "Lord Roberts is a prisoner. General Buller has been killed. Nine thousand British have been killed and 7,000 captured. The British also lost eight guns last Saturday."

Bullington Booth Reverts England. BUFFALO, Feb. 4.—Ballington Booth, commander-in-chief of the Volunteers of America, said at a public meeting today: "I do not believe the sun in heaven ever shone on a more just war than that of the United States against Spain. But it could be truly said that the sun never shone on a more unjust one than the one between Great Britain and the Transvaal."

Transvaal Pamphlets in Berlin. BERLIN, Feb. 4.—F. W. Reitz, the Transvaal state secretary, has written a pamphlet entitled "A Century Full of Wrong," which will appear in German here this week. It claims to give an authentic statement regarding the rise of the two Boer states. The Berlin publisher expects to sell 50,000 copies.

AGREE ON NICARAGUA CANAL. United States and Britain Reach Amicable Agreement as to Clayton-Bulwer Treaty.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The United States and Great Britain, it was definitely learned tonight, have reached an amicable agreement respecting the operations of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty affecting the right of construction and control by the United States of the proposed Nicaragua canal.

The result marks the termination of conferences between officials of the State department and Lord Pauncefote of fully a year's duration, during which a number of meetings were held and the subject fully discussed by the representatives of the governments interested.

Great Britain agrees to a modification of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty by which it practically relinquishes any claims respecting a legal control of the Nicaragua canal after it shall have been constructed. The result therefore is to eliminate that feature of the treaty bearing on the subject of dual control and to leave the United States free to construct and thereafter control this great interoceanic waterway.

In all the discussions which have been had, both in congress and out of it, for a number of years over the proposed canal, the question of England's rights under the Clayton-Bulwer treaty has formed a prominent feature, and on more than one occasion has given rise to the query whether or not the United States government had the moral right to provide for the construction of the canal without a modification of the treaty.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—It is announced in Wall street that the Northern Pacific railway company has purchased the western section of the Everett & Monte Cristo railroad, with its terminals at Everett, Wash. After the work of the vigilance committee and bloodhounds had failed, Sergeant Wisenbump and Detectives Drummy, Mitchell, Dempsey and Jorgenson broke up a gang that has been making wholesale robberies and raids in the vicinity of Central Park and arrested one of its members tonight.
