

MOURN IN THE RAIN

Goel... Follow His Casket... Showers.

NO DEMONSTRATION AT FUNERAL

Soldiers at Capitol Grounds Silently Watch the Procession Pass.

SERVICES AT THE HOTEL AND CEMETERY

One of the Greatest Funerals Ever Held in Kentucky.

PARADE TO THE CEMETERY A MILE LONG

Thousands in Waiting at the Grave Drenched by the Downpour—Body to Remain in the Chapel Several Days.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 8.—The funeral came down in sheets today while the rain fell over the body of Governor Goebel.

The morning dawned dark and threatening, but at 9 o'clock the clouds cleared away and the sun came out bright and brilliant.

The exercises in the cemetery were conducted before a crowd much smaller than would have been the case had the weather been pleasant.

It had been feared that there might arise trouble between the soldiers in the capitol grounds and democratic partisans in the line of march when the parade passed the capitol square.

By the time the early trains had arrived the crowd was enormous. Special trains came in from Georgetown and Lexington.

Special Trains Ran. By the time the early trains had arrived the crowd was enormous. Special trains came in from Georgetown and Lexington.

Passing the Executive Building. As the procession passed the executive building every man in the parade turned his face toward it.

To CONTROL MINOR OFFICES. Republicans Obtain a Temporary Injunction from Federal Judge Taft of Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 8.—Judge William H. Taft, who has just been appointed president of the Philippine commission, today gave notice to counsel that on next Monday he will issue an injunction against the operation of the state officers of Kentucky.

Who the Pallbearers Were. J. C. Blackburn, General Joseph H. Lewis, Judge W. S. Pryor, J. B. McCreary, Phil B. Thompson, James H. Milligan, Louis Desnoettes, Samuel J. Shackelford, Joseph D. Rhineck, Joseph W. Pugh, Zach Phelps, W. H. Haldeman, Charles E. Poyntz and Morton K. Yontz.

Thousands Wait in the Rain. Around the freshly thrown up clay and cement grave was gathered a throng of several thousand people, who waited patiently for hours in the midst of the downpour for the funeral cortege to appear.

Thousands Wait in the Rain. Around the freshly thrown up clay and cement grave was gathered a throng of several thousand people, who waited patiently for hours in the midst of the downpour for the funeral cortege to appear.

Thousands Wait in the Rain. Around the freshly thrown up clay and cement grave was gathered a throng of several thousand people, who waited patiently for hours in the midst of the downpour for the funeral cortege to appear.

Thousands Wait in the Rain. Around the freshly thrown up clay and cement grave was gathered a throng of several thousand people, who waited patiently for hours in the midst of the downpour for the funeral cortege to appear.

EXPOSED TO BOER ARTILLERY

Last Accounts from Front Left Buller in a Tight Place.

ARMY MUST EITHER ADVANCE OR RETIRE

Sharp Anxiety in England for Further Intelligence—Even Larger Casualties Expected Today—Fighting Elsewhere.

LONDON, Feb. 8.—(4 a. m.)—All the messages from the observers with General Buller throw in a phrase or two about the strength of the Boer positions.

Their last carrier narrative leave the British advanced on Vaalkraats in the center of a semi-circle, where the troops are exposed to the Boer artillery on both sides and in the center.

The fighting continued until 9 o'clock Tuesday evening, and almost without doubt continued Wednesday, as the Boers would certainly not leave this wedge into their lines unexploited.

Worried About the Navy. Since the war has strained the resources of the military system Englishmen have been troubled by the possibility that sea fighting might show naval defects.

FROM THE DIFFERENT CAMPS. Special Cable Advises Showing the Progress of the Fighting All Along the Line.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) STERKSTROM CAMP, Feb. 7.—(11:45 a. m.)—New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.—There was an unimportant attack on the camp of the Cape Mounted Rifles.

UNHAPPY LIFE NEARLY OVER. Condition of Remoraired American Ship to Be Precarious.

CHINA SUFFERS RELAPSE. Dowager Empress is Determined to Repel the Advance of Civilization.

PEKIN, Feb. 8.—The dowager empress of China, it is asserted, appears to be determined to repel in the most energetic manner the advance of civilization.

ROBBERS ARE SUCCESSFUL. Bank at Malden, Missouri, is Looted by Three Masked Men.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

STORMS AT MANY POINTS. Reports from Northwest and Southwest Tell of Blizzards—Trains Blocked by Snow.

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—This proved to be the most remarkable February day in the history of the weather bureau since 1875.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

NINE KILLED, THREE MISSING

Rare and Collision in a Blinding Snowstorm in Michigan.

ACCIDENT ON THE NORTHWESTERN ROAD

Several of the Bodies Burned Up in the Wreckage—Passenger Coach and Baggage Car Tipped.

ESCANABA, Mich., Feb. 8.—Chicago & Northwestern passenger train No. 21, the Peleh mountain accommodation, which runs between this city and Metropolitan, was wrecked in a rare and colossal snowstorm.

WILLIAM DILLON, Escanaba, brakeman on the wrecked train.

FRICK TO QUIT CARNEGIE. Going Into Court to Ascertain Value of His Holdings in the Big Company.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 8.—A story which gained currency today to the effect that H. P. Frick, formerly president of the Carnegie Steel company, has decided to go to court to ascertain the value of his holdings in that company, is confirmed tonight.

READS VERY LIKE A ROMANCE. Man Convicted of a Crime Returns After Five Years' Absence to Go to the Penitentiary.

BEAVER CITY, Neb., Feb. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—W. H. Blauvelt, who was convicted in the district court five years ago and who escaped before sentence was passed, was a sensation here today by appearing in a newspaper.

FAST FREIGHTS IN COLLISION. Three Killed and Three Wounded in an Accident at Gordon Heights.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Feb. 8.—Three persons were killed and three seriously injured in a collision today between two freight trains on a branch of the New York Central at Gordon Heights.

STORMS AT MANY POINTS. Reports from Northwest and Southwest Tell of Blizzards—Trains Blocked by Snow.

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—This proved to be the most remarkable February day in the history of the weather bureau since 1875.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

OPINIONS OF THE EXPERTS

Writers for the London Sheets Spring Some More Ideas Upon the Pending Battle.

ARTILLERY FORCES ACTIVE

Both English and Boers Near Coleberg Busy at Long Range.

RENSBERG, Feb. 8.—The Boers' position was vigorously shelled yesterday for an hour this morning eastward from opposite Slingerfontein and westward from the top at Coleberg.

Worried About the Navy. Since the war has strained the resources of the military system Englishmen have been troubled by the possibility that sea fighting might show naval defects.

FROM THE DIFFERENT CAMPS. Special Cable Advises Showing the Progress of the Fighting All Along the Line.

UNHAPPY LIFE NEARLY OVER. Condition of Remoraired American Ship to Be Precarious.

CHINA SUFFERS RELAPSE. Dowager Empress is Determined to Repel the Advance of Civilization.

PEKIN, Feb. 8.—The dowager empress of China, it is asserted, appears to be determined to repel in the most energetic manner the advance of civilization.

ROBBERS ARE SUCCESSFUL. Bank at Malden, Missouri, is Looted by Three Masked Men.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

STORMS AT MANY POINTS. Reports from Northwest and Southwest Tell of Blizzards—Trains Blocked by Snow.

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—This proved to be the most remarkable February day in the history of the weather bureau since 1875.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dexter, Mo., says: The bank at Malden, a few miles south of here, was last night entered by three masked men.

CONDITION OF THE WEATHER

Forecast for Nebraska—Fair, Rising Temperature.

MURDER AND SUICIDE

W. J. Robinson of Whitman Kills Wife and Fatally Wounds Himself.

FIRES FOUR SHOTS WITH DEADLY EFFECT

Braces Himself for the Act with Two Beer Glasses of Whisky.

JEALOUSY THE CAUSE OF THE CRIME

Double Tragedy the Result of a Skeleton in the Family Closet.

HUSBAND LOSES CONFIDENCE IN WIFE. Broods Over Matter Until Maddened by Liquor He Seizes a Revolver and Commits the Bloody Deed.

WHITMAN, Neb., Feb. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Tuesday night at 9:50 W. J. Robinson, employed by the Flato Commission company of South Omaha, shot his wife through the abdomen, a little below the heart; also through the arm and leg.

None of the three shots proved fatal until today. Mrs. Robinson died, after suffering dreadful agony. He is still alive, but cannot live.

November 15 last Robinson married the daughter of L. H. Brown, agent of the R. & M. railway at Hecla, Neb. Everyone supposed they lived happily until a few days ago, when Robinson left the roundup and came to Whitman. He drank very heavily, but showed no effects until a little before the shooting.

After drinking two large beer glasses of whisky he talked a few minutes with friends and started alone for the Whitman hotel. It is not known exactly what conversation he had with his wife while in the room, but she says she would not answer his last request definitely.

He then pulled a revolver and said: "Then take this." At the same time firing, the shock putting out the lights. She got away in the dark and tried to make her escape. Running to the front door of the hotel, just as she went out the door, Robinson fired a second shot, this one taking effect in the arm and leg. At this moment he pulled the gun on himself, the bullet passing through his body. He fell over upon his wife, who lay writhing on the floor.

In a few minutes a big crowd gathered and picked the two up. It was found that the first bullet fired at Mrs. Robinson struck a corset steel which stopped its force. The bullet lodged under the skin, near the spine. Surgeons extracted it. It was thought she might live, but the wound was more serious than expected.

Robinson has always been counted an intelligent, excellent citizen. The woman was intelligent and both had a legion of friends. A few minutes before the shooting Robinson warned his friends not to follow or he would shoot.

The main cause of the shooting was jealousy. It is thought that continual brooding set the man crazy. Lately it was learned that he had threatened to shoot his wife. Sentiment is divided, but is in his favor. He says he is sorry he did not make a clean job; that he has one request, to be buried with her. Robinson is still alive, but suffering terribly.

Another Version. HYANNIS, Neb., Feb. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Tuesday evening James Robinson of Whitman, in charge of a bunch of cattle owned by M. Humphrey of Rapid City, shot his wife three times and then turned the weapon upon himself. Mrs. Robinson died this afternoon from the effects of her wounds and the physicians report that the husband can survive her but a few hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson were married some three months ago. If reports are true, the wife had given her husband cause for the jealousy which has culminated in this double tragedy. Robinson, who had been drinking heavily for two or three days previously, learned that his wife had taken steps to secure a divorce. He drank nearly two beer glasses of whisky, borrowed a revolver and proceeded to the Carpenter hotel where his wife was stopping and first sought a reconciliation, which was refused.

Maddened by the action of his wife, and crazed by the liquor he had drunk he drew his revolver and commenced firing. He followed the woman through the house to the front porch, where the third and fourth shots fell them side by side. Physicians were called, but were unable to save either life. In the absence of a coroner, Sheriff Moran of this place was summoned by wire this evening to hold an inquest. The parents of Mrs. Robinson, who reside at Hecla, were able to reach the bedside of their dying daughter before her death.

COULD NOT FACE DISGRACE. Audubon Man Commits Suicide When Arrested on a Forgery Charge.

AUDUBON, Ia., Feb. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Al Shert's committed suicide last night at 10 o'clock, taking laudanum. He had been dealing on the Chicago Board of Trade for some years, and early this week it was learned he had floated numerous notes which were forged to obtain money which his losses during the last two weeks put him in need of. He was arrested last evening and the sheriff permitted him to go to his home to see his wife before going to jail. While there he took the poison and died in about an hour.

Tank Crashes Through Roof. PINDLY, O., Feb. 8.—A 50-barrel water tank fell through the roof at the plant of the National Glass company into a room filled with boys and girls. Four were seriously injured as follows: William Wersch, Lucy Allen, Will Roberts, Elgin Breckenridge. Several others received minor injuries.