

COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL

Wheat Closed 1 Cent Lower After a Strong Tendency.
CORN AND OATS WERE NEGLECTED
Provisions Closed Slightly Higher, Though at Times the Demand Was Brisk and the Advance Well Up.

CHICAGO, March 2.—Of the two principal influences controlling wheat today—the Minneapolis elevator fire and the breaking of the drought from California—the latter finally proved the stronger and may closed about 1 cent lower than Saturday's final price.
The opening was strong at a substantial advance. Corn and oats were both neglected and closed a trifle easier. Provisions closed slightly higher.
