

Weather Restricts Play Attendance

EWING—"The Skelton Walks," a tree-act-mystery-comedy, was presented Friday evening at the Ewing school auditorium by the junior class. Proceeds amounted to approximately $100 although the crowd was smaller than expected due to the steady down-pour which later in the evening turned to snow.

Characters of the cast were: Ronnie Thuedel, Carolyn Tams, Sharon Kropp, Donald Hawk, Sherry Tuttle, Larry Rotherham, Lorraine Bartos, Jerry Hahlbeck, Janette Noffke and Phyllis Larson.

The class is to be commended for their excellent performance of the difficult roles. Mrs. Amodeo Schottman was the director assisted by Gloria Schroeder, student director.

Preceding the evening's entertainment a piano prelude was played by Robert McDaniel.

In between acts were the boys' quartet, Douglas Wolf, Lyle Larson, James Miller and Billy Bauer, which sang "Moonlight Bay," Sandra Shradar, accompanist, "Do Lord" by the girls' quartet, Sherry Tuttle, Tamzen Peterson, Waunetta Wragge, Sharon Kropp, Sandra Shradar accompanist. A skit "Good Night," by Gloria Schroeder, Roberta McDaniel and Lyle Potter; a skit by Carolyn Tams and Sharon Kropp featuring a piano duet; duet "Tammy" by Tamzen Peterson and Sharon Kropp with Carolyn Tams accompanist.

Mrs. Schottman was presented a gift by the class.

Acapulco Beckons Newlyweds After Atkinson Rites

ATKINSON—On Thursday, November 14, St. Joseph's Catholic church in Atkinson was the scene of a very beautiful wedding when Rev. Francis Kubart, uncle of the bride and assistant pastor of St. Mary's church in Omaha, united in marriage Miss Marilyn Leodeen Kramer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo R. Kramer, and Don Gokie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Connie Gokie, all of Atkinson.

The double-ring ceremony was performed at 9 a.m., before altars decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums and white and yellow pompons.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of pure silk taffeta and hand clipped chantilly lace, an original by Vene. The elongated bodice featured a portrait neckline outlined with lace and long tapered sleeves of lace. The very full skirt was fashioned with a wide bank of lace overlaid on the taffeta extending into a nisle waltz-train in back. Her triple tier veil of imported illusion was elbow length and was caught by a half hat of the lace accented with a bow of the taffeta. Her bouquet was of talisman roses, leather fern and lemon leaf. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Connie Coufal, cousin of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She appeared in a ballerina gown of emerald green velveteen, fashioned with scoop neckline and cap sleeves. Her full skirt was enhanced by bands of emerald green satin just above the hemline. She carried matching green velveteen muffs with sprays of Johanna roses, leather leaf and lemon leaf fern.

Bridesmaids were, the Misses Joann Donohoe of O'Neill and Lucille Hilz of Howells. They appeared in emerald green velveteen gowns and carried matching green velveteen muffs with sprays of Johanna roses and leather leaf fern matching those of the maid-of-honor.

Susan Donohoe was flowergirl. She carried a basket of Johanna roses, with sprays of lemon leaf fern. Her dress was emerald green taffeta made identical to those of the bridesmaids.

Bestman was Dean Gokie of Atkinson, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Louie Laible, cousin of the bride, Harvey Thompson of Bassett and Ed Coufal of Stuart, uncles of the bride, and Richard Hytrek of Stuart.

Mrs. Clarence Najmon of Fairbury was the soloist. She sang "Oh Sacred Heart Our Home Lies Deep in Thee," by Stevenson, "Ave Maria," "Mother All Beautiful" by Rosini, and "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" by Lambillatte. She was accompanied by Mrs. William Hajek, of Howells, who played the organ.

Altar boys were Larry Thompson of Bassett and Joe Coufal of Stuart, cousins of the bride. Robert Kies and Raymond Schaffer of Atkinson.

Mrs. Kramer appeared in a pink collared crepe dress and wore a purple orchid. Mrs. Gokie wore a navy blue crepe with a white orchid.

A brunch was served for 225 guests at the Knights of Columbus hall at 11:30 o'clock.

Guest book was in charge of Maurine Coufal of Stuart, cousin of the bride. Mrs. Clarence Najmon was in charge of pinning on the Rosemary.

The bride's cake was a four-tier cake frosted with pearl frosting with sweetheart shells inserted in lighted candle held bells. Vines of rambling roses and dells of green and yellow, dressed to represent Father Kubart, bridesmaids and flowergirls, adorned each layer. It was decorated by the bride with the assistance of her father and William Hajek.

The bridegroom's cake was a 28-pound fruit cake with two white bells. Bridesmaids served the bride's cake and the bestman served the bridegroom's cake.

Bride's cake was cut by Mrs. Ed Coufal of Stuart and the bridegroom's cake by Mrs. Harvey Thompson of Bassett.

For traveling the bride wore a brown wool suit with mink and cuffs. After a three-week wedding trip to Acapulco, Mex., the couple will live at 4230 Douglas st., in Omaha.

Mrs. Gokie, R. N., was a June graduate of the 1957 class of St. Catherine's hospital in Omaha. Mr. Gokie is employed by Greyhound.

Thanksgiving Recipes Are Told—Victory Homemakers club met Wednesday, November 13, with Mrs. Joe Ramold, jr., with a covered dish dinner. All members were present. Roll call was answered by giving a favorite Thanksgiving recipe.

Mrs. Ray Tuender and Mrs. Joe Ramold, jr., gave a lesson on "Lady and the Law." Door prize was won by Mrs. Charles Boyle and guess what by Mrs. Joe Gokie, jr. Entertainment was playing of games. Next meeting will be Wednesday, December 11. The Christmas party and exchange of gifts at Mrs. Joe Ramold, sr.—Mrs. Ray Conway, reporter.

Education Week Observed

Mothers Visit Ewing Classes

EWING—"National education week" was observed in the Ewing public in the following grades. Thursday morning, the kindergarten class and their teacher, Miss Helen Grim, had as their guests, the mothers. The children were given opportunity to explain the work on display which made it possible for the mothers to compare their child's work with their neighbors in cutting, coloring, free hand drawing and neatness.

Mothers present were: Mrs. Robert Eppenbach, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. Roy Tuttle and Merri Louise, Mrs. Art Sanders, Mrs. Charles Rotherham and Beth, Mrs. Richard Edwards, Mrs. Charles Regan and Mike, Mrs. Ray Magwire and Maria Rae. Other guests were Mrs. Julian Schmidt, Mrs. Lloyd West and Luella, Tom Aehart, Shary Savidge and Debbie were absent because of illness and their mothers were not present.

Third and fourth grades taught by Mrs. Grace Thompson, had as their guests the same morning Mrs. Deward Loughrey, Mrs. Elvin Hamilton, Mrs. L. E. Bergstrom, Mrs. James Rotherham, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. Elmer Woepel, Mrs. Arthur Kropp, Mrs. Roy Tuttle, Mrs. Clifford Hahlbeck, Mrs. Julius Schmidt and Mrs. Robert Pruden.

The children portrayed "The Coming of the Pilgrims" and had several classes. Mrs. Thomsen served coffee and cookies. Cynthia Savidge and Linda Eacker were absent because of flu.

Mrs. Melvin Rexine and her fifth and sixth grade students invited the mothers to visit their room on Thursday. Visitors were: Mrs. Julian Sojka, Mrs. James Minarik and Peggy Schroeder, Mrs. Roy Tuttle and Merri Louise, Mrs. Robert Eppenbach, Mrs. Max Wanser, Mrs. Roy Blunt, Mrs. Roy Rotherham, Mrs. Helen Sisson, Mrs. Lloyd West and Luella, Mrs. James Rotherham, Mrs. Josie Versaw, Mrs. Floyd Black, Mrs. Eben Graft, Mrs. Deward Loughrey, Mrs. Wilbur Spangler, Mrs. Arthur Kropp and Max, Mrs. Elmer Grim, Mrs. William Hobbs and Christine Marie.

Two pupils were absent from school with the flu, making it impossible for the mothers to come.

Pupils presented a "Man on the Street" broadcast for opening exercises. Billy Hobbs was the announcer.

Pupils were asked questions concerning the history of Thanksgiving and what they were thankful for. Regular schedule was followed for the rest of the day. The room was decorated with Thanksgiving art work and school work on display. An invitation was extended to the guests to visit the school at any time.

Notes of appreciation received on Friday from many of the mothers. The room was decorated with Thanksgiving art work and school work on display. An invitation was extended to the guests to visit the school at any time.

Partners from Norfolk, Pierce, Winser, Stanton, St. Edward, Newman Grove, Ewing and O'Neill attended the November March of Madison county Salon Eight and Forty held Thursday evening at Hotel Madison in Norfolk.

Christmas party contributions were voted for children hospitalized at the Kearney Tuberculosis hospital and the National Jewish hospital at Denver, Colo.

Plans were completed for a no-host Christmas party when the salon meets on December 5 with Departmental Chapeau Josephine Lamborn of Palmyra and Departmental LaSecretaire Mabel Turce of Syracuse as guests.

Cards furnished entertainment following the business session. Those attending from O'Neill were Mrs. Vern Reynolds, Mrs. Melvin Ruzicka, Mrs. Robert Lowery and Mrs. John Davidson.

Members of the O'Neill Rockets baseball team, their wives, scorekeepers, umpires and coaches Sunday evening enjoyed a turkey dinner at the Fred Appley residence. Forty persons were present.
