Warmwater Fish Are Scattered

Nebraska's die-hard anglers got a shot in the arm in recent days as the game commission stocked almost 150,000 warmwater fish in scattered waters of the state.

Glen R. Foster of Lincoln, fisheries chief, said the species included white bass, largemouth bass, catfish, walleye, crappie, perch, bluegill, and bullheads.

Following are the Northeast and north Nebraska waters stocked:

District II
Boyd: Hansen lake, Butte (bass, bluegill, catfish); Brown: Clear lake, Ainsworth (bluegill); Calver Pond, Ainsworth (bass, bluegill); Niobrara River, Long Pine (catfish); Cherry: Watts lake, Valentine (bass); Lowes lake, Brownlee (crappie); Baker pond, Valentine (bass, bluegill); Alkali state lake, Valentine (catfish); Holt: Van Horn lake, Ewing (bass, bluegill, channel catfish); Keya Paha: Nelson Pond, Springview (bass); Richardson Pond, Jamison (bass, catfish); Rock: Ammonite, Bassett (bass, bluegill); Niobrara River, Newport (catfish); Niobrara River, Bassett (catfish).

District III
Antelope: Clarks slough, Okdale (channel catfish, bass, bluegill); Atwood lake, Neligh (catfish, bass, bluegill); Knox: State Park lake, Niobrara (bass, perch, catfish).

Ewing Glovers Will 'Warmup' at Norfolk

EWING—Ewing amateur scrapers from the Ewing American Legion post will fight on the Norfolk Legion pre-golden gloves card Tuesday, November 26.

They are Larry Wanser and Jim Hansen, who fought in the 1957 golden gloves tourney at Norfolk; Virgil and Lyle Potter, brothers; Stanley Bartos, John Kubick, Hyle Whitney and Butch Pofahi, the last of the fighting Pohahis who have made Northeast Nebraska golden gloves history.

Coach Harold Bennett says Tuesday's show will be in the form of a "warmup".

Jessie E. Price Expires in Canada

Atkinson Resident Many Years

ATKINSON—Mrs. Jessie E. Price, 85, an Atkinson resident for many years, died Wednesday, November 13, in the hospital at Weyburn, Sask., Can., where she had been hospitalized for four months.

Mrs. Price had been making her home the past five years with her son, R. S. Price, at Waldron, Sask.

She was born January 31, 1872, at Auburn, Ia., a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Shepard.

On April 30, 1890 at Madison, S. D., she married Edward Price. The family moved to Canada in 1913 and Mr. Price worked for the Canadian National railroad until 1955, when he retired.

They moved to Atkinson to be near a son, Leon B. In 1944 the Prices celebrated their 56th wedding anniversary.

Mr. Price died June 18, 1944. Five years ago she went to Waldron.

The remains reached Atkinson Monday morning and funeral services were conducted at 2 p. m. at the Seger funeral chapel. Rev. Charles Gies, Methodist minister, officiated. Burial was in Woodlawn cemetery.

Palbearers were M. W. Ellenwood, Albert Lemmer, C. E. Spence, Glen McClurg, Walter Puckett and Truman Rossman.

Survivors include: Sons—R. S. of Waldron, L. B. of O'Neill and Eldon T. of Elmhurst, Ill.; 11 grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren.

REA Managers in O'Neill Session

The Niobrara Valley Electric Membership corporation Friday was host for planning institute of 40 directors and managers of surrounding REA electric systems.

The meeting was held at the American Legion auditorium.

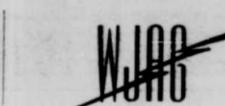

R. F. Richter, head of REA operations, Washington, D.C., was the main speaker. Long range planning was the subject presented. Items discussed were physical facilities needed to supply sufficient and adequate electric power at the lowest cost to its members. Electric power loads are expected to double within the next seven years, Richter said.

"The institute was very informative," according to Ed Wilson, manager of the host REA, and gave the power officials a preview of some of the problems they may encounter in the future.

Realty Board Is Formed in Area

Real estate brokers in a six-county area met in Bassett Thursday evening, November 14 to organize the North-Central Nebraska Board of Realtors. Counties represented in the membership district Rock, Holt, Cherry, Keya Paha, Brown and Boyd.

Officers elected to serve the board for 1958 are Virgil L. Laurson of O'Neill, president; Charles Raitt of Ainsworth, vice-president; Ronald M. Shonka of Atkinson, secretary-treasurer; Raymond A. Ballard of Valentine, Harry G. Titus of Bassett, Louis Klaska of Spencer and Joseph M. Kokes of Atkinson, directors.

The purpose of the organization is to unite those engaged in the real estate business to exert a beneficial influence upon matters affecting the real estate business itself and other related interests, home, farm and ranch, and other property ownerships in the area.

Prior to this meeting, the following comprised a committee to study by-laws: Roy Raitt of Ainsworth, Harry C. Titus of Bassett, Virgil Laurson of O'Neill, E. C. Weller of Atkinson and Ronald Shonka of Atkinson.

The newly-organized board will be affiliated with the Nebraska Real Estate association, which was represented at the meeting by Vice-President Jerry A. Brown of Norfolk and Executive Vice-President Harry J. Bull of Lincoln. The board also will be a member of the National Association of Real Estate Boards of Chicago, Ill., which was represented at the meeting by Field Executive Harold Clingerman of Lincoln.
