Stuart 'S' Men Attend Clinic

STUART—A trip to the Hastings college basketball clinic Friday for members of the Stuart high "S" club was intended to sharpen the Broncos for the 1957-58 cage campaign. The Broncos open next Tuesday at Spencer.

The Hastings clinic was conducted by the Phillips Co. Oilers. The "S" men then moved to Lincoln Saturday to witness the Nebraska-Oklahoma football game.

They were escorted on the weekend outing by Coach Cliff Hermance, Assistant Coach Ray Shearer, and Aubrey Proett.

Dane Bigelow, who breezed at a 14-point-per-game last season, Russ Cobb and Don Schmaderer are regular holdovers from last year's cage team. Tom Bigelow and Jerry Taylor are also veterans.

The Broncos will feel the loss of Mel Stracke, who is out with a broken leg.

Hermance is hunting foes for December 20, January 14 and February 18.

Weier, Tomlinson Land on 'All-State'

Weier, a senior, lettered four years in football at St. Mary's.

Larry Tomlinson, a junior, was given a second team line position on the Journal-Star selections.

SMA was rated third in the final eight-man grid standings in the state by both the Journal-Star and Omaha World-Herald.

Pairings will be drawn on February 12. Four seeded teams will be picked on a percentage basis of games won and lost up until that time.

Class B schools which will compete in the O'Neill tourney are Boomfield, Creighton, Neligh, Plainview, O'Neill high, Burwell, Bassett and Gordon.

Ewing Opens Next Week with Tilden

EWING—"They'll be ragged the first few games," Coach Fritz Reifert opined Tuesday while polishing up the Ewing high Tigers in preparation for next week's cage opener against Tilden.

"But that's to be expected from a small school shifting from football right into basketball."

Veterans in the Orange-and-Black camp are Sonny Carl, senior center; Stan Bartos, senior forward; Larry Rotherham, junior forward; Jerry Halbeck, junior guard; Denny Scheer, senior forward; and Ronnie Cloyd.

Likely candidates are Bill Bauer, Ronnie Thoenel, Lyle Larson, Gary Eacker, Freddie Wright, Dick Welke, Leon Halbeck and Dick Williamson.

5 Hot Frosh Pep Coyote Prospects

Witte Welcomes 5 Senior Vets

CHAMBERS—Coach Bill Witte's Chambers high Coyotes, after wrapping up a highly-successful football campaign, have turned to the hardwood. Witte is building his cage team around five senior lettermen and, oddly enough, five hot frosh prospects.

The senior veterans are Rod Elkins, forward; Lonnie Taggart, guard; Kenny Thomson, center; Doug Dankert, guard; and Bob Klabenes, forward.

Last year's high scoring 6-3 center, Bill Young, transferred to Meridian, Ida., where he did well in football this past season and was a regular. Meridian is comparable in size to O'Neill.

The Chambers graders last year won the Sandhills Gateway conference grade basketball tourney and finished second in the Holt county grade tourney. Five eighth graders on that team are competing for berths on Witte's 1957-58 varsity team as freshmen.

They are Dean Smith, Butch Elkins, Danny Walters, Art Wintermote and Harlan Liesewald.

Other prospects include Richard Grimes and Jim Cavanaugh, juniors; Bob Gardener and Eddie Fleek, sophomores; Larry Swanson and Delbert Fleek, freshmen.

Schedule:
Dec. 3—Erierson, here.
Dec. 6—Royal, here.
Dec. 10—Meadow Grove, there*.
Dec. 12—St. Joseph (Atkinson), there.

Coyotes Post 6-1-1 Grid Record

CHAMBERS—It was six wins, one loss and one tie for the Chambers high graders in six-man circles during the 1957 season.

Coach Bill Witte's team plastered Bartlett, 33-0; Oakdale, 33-0; Brunswick, 44-6; Meadow Grove, 46-12; Orchard, 52-13, and Humphrey, 44-6.

They lost to Clearwater, 12-30, and had to settle with Elgin for a 6-6 tie.

The Clearwater team, which handed the Coyotes their only loss, was rated in the top 10 six-man clubs in the state, according to the Omaha World-Herald.

'Balers' Average' Says Marv Boesen

ATKINSON—Coach Marv Boesen's Atkinson high Balers are shaping up rapidly and are preparing for the season's opener Tuesday, December 3, against St. Mary's of O'Neill. The game will be played at Atkinson.

"We'll put an average team on to the floor," Coach Boesen predicted to The Frontier. "We don't have the sharp-shooting we had a year ago."

Only two lettermen reporting are Duane Humphrey and Jim Hendricks, both guards. Early scrimmages indicate that Don Sladek, who has soared to 6-2½, will get the center nod and it's likely Paul Focken will earn a starting berth at forward.

"I don't have a starting five picked yet," Boesen insisted. "They'll be plenty of shifting and substituting."

Bill Eaker and Ken Prussa, both juniors, are strong candidates; also Roger Dobias, a sophomore, who has been getting in some varsity scrimmaging. Other top candidates include Bryan Martens, Elvon Anderson and Gary Hitchecock.

Schedule:
Dec. 3—St. Mary's (O'Neill), here.

Dec. 5—Ainsworth, here*.
Dec. 10—Valentine, here*.
Dec. 13—Springview, there*.
Dec. 17—Long Pine, here.
Dec. 20—O'Neill high, there*.
Jan. 7—Butte, there.
Jan. 10—Stuart, there.
Jan. 14—Wood Lake, here.
Jan. 17—Burwell, here.
Jan. 20-24—Holt county tourney at O'Neill.

Jan. 28—Bassett, there*.
Jan. 31—Chambers, here.
Feb. 3-7—North-Central tourney at Ainsworth.
Feb. 11—Page, here.
Feb. 14—St. Joseph's of Atkinson.
Feb. 18—Inman, here.

Kelley Sidelined but Inman Romps

INMAN—Roland Hansen, who took the place of the regular center, Ned Kelley, sick in a hospital with the flu, pumped in 22 points here Thursday night to beat Royal, 75-44, in a basketball game.

Francis, who led Royal with 19 points, was a constant scoring threat against Inman.

Defensive play of Sam Watson and Neal Kelley was a big help to Inman's cause.

Score by quarters:
Royal 9 10 11 14-44
Inman 17 19 20 19-57
