Miss Sonia Stevens Harvey Holbrook in Orchard Rites

ORCHARD—Baskets of white chrysanthemums, fern and candleabra decorated the Evangelical United Brethren church in Orchard Saturday evening, November 30, when Miss Sonia Stevens and Harvey Holbrook, jr., exchanged wedding vows. Rev. Robert Holbrook of DuBois, brother of the bridegroom officiated at the 7:30 double-ring candlelight ceremony.

Nuptial music was furnished by Mrs. Harvey Holbrook, sr., at the organ. She also accompanied Mrs. Morris Weaver of Corvallis, Ore., sister of the bridegroom, who sang "Through the Years," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stevens of Orchard, was given in marriage by her father. Her bridal gown of white alencon lace and tulle over satin was fashioned with a fitted bodice featuring a sweetheart neckline, edged with a band of iridescent sequins and long sleeves tapered at the wrists. The floorlength bouffant skirt was accented by alternating cascading ruffles of the lace and tulle in the back. The fingertip veil of illusion tulle was crowned with a lace tiara edged with seed pearls and sequins. She carried an arrangement of white carnations and nylon net with turquoise satin streamers.

Mrs. Milo Snyder, matron-of-honor, and Mrs. David Willats, bridesmaid, sisters of the bride, wore identical ballerina length gowns of turquoise taffeta fashioned on princess lines with scoop necklines and cap sleeves. They carried bouquets of white carnations and blue nylon net. Their headpieces were of velvet bands accented by iridescent sequins.

The tapers were lit by Miss Jolene Mitchell of Orchard and Jerry Holbrook of DuBois, cousin and nephew of the bridegroom. Her floorlength gown of turquoise taffeta was styled on princess lines with puffed sleeves.

Miss Jeannette Holbrook of DuBois, niece of bridegroom was flower girl. Her dress was identical to that of the bridegroom. She carried a giant feathered white chrysanthemum.

Ringbearer was Val Gene Snyder, nephew of the bride. The bridegroom, son of Mr.

and Mrs. Harvey Holbrook, sr., of Orchard, was attended by the bride's brothers-in-law, Milo Snyder and David Willats. They all wore navy suits and navy bowties with white carnation boutonnières.

Ushers were Robert Lee, Donald Willats of Omaha, Milo Snyder and David Willats. They all wore navy suits and navy bowties with white carnation boutonnières.

The bride's mother wore a blue crepe gown with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue embroidered taffeta gown with black accessories. They wore white carnation corsages.

Miss Leone Boelter had charge of the guest book while Misses Shirley Butlerfield, Carolyn Young and Carole Barton arranged the gift tables.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church dining room for 200 guests. The three-tier wedding cake was baked by the bride's sisters and decorated by the bride. The cake was cut by the bride's uncle, Sid Rhoades of Scottsbluff. Mrs. Gerald Berney, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Lester Raff assisted at the serving table. Mrs. Ray Neisius of Pilger and Mrs. Ernest Boelter poured. Miss Jeanne Schilousky of O'Neill was at the punch bowl.

The bridal table was decorated in the bride's colors of blue and white with bouquets of white mums and red carnations. Carole VanOstrand of Omaha and Jeanne Schilousky served the bridal party.

Madames Walter LaFrenz, Ernest Boelter, Roy Young, Harold Billings and Glenn Robertson assisted with the reception.

Following a wedding trip to the Ozarks the couple will reside on a farm southeast of Orchard.

The couple graduated from the Orchard high school. The bridegroom attended York college and taught in Nebraska high schools before engaging in farming. The bride attended Wayne college.
