

Terrifying Sources Told by Members

CHAMBERS—Kellar club met Wednesday, December 4, at the home of Mrs. Charles Coolidge with Mrs. Sam Young co-hostess. Nineteen members answered roll call by telling what terrifies them most. Present also was one visitor. It was decided to continue holding meetings on the first and third Wednesdays of each month. It was decided that each member should buy her own yearbook. Motion was made seconded and carried that all officers be held over for another year. Mrs. Louis Harley was appointed to take charge of the door prize and money appropriated for gift wrappings. The door prize this time was awarded to Mrs. Clyde Klitz. Appropriate reading were given by Mrs. Louis Harley and Mrs. T. E. Alderson. A clever game was included in the program. Lunch was served.

Regular meeting of symphony chapter 316, Order of Eastern Star, will be Thursday (tonight). Election of officers will be held.
