

Escapes Serious Burns in Accident

CHAMBERS—Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Walter received word that their son-in-law, Jim Kirkland of Burwell, had been involved in a car-truck accident south of Burwell late Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Kirkland, driver of the truck, said he was crowded on a bridge by the approaching car and hit the rail, which punctured the gas tank. The truck went into the ditch. He was pinned in the cab but broke the glass and escaped with only minor burns on head and legs.

Mr. Kirkland was taken to the Burwell hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Walter drove to Burwell Monday.
