Montgomerys Feted on 31st Anniversary

RIVERSIDE—A surprise party honoring George and Joyce Montgomery on their 31st anniversary was held at the Bill Fry home, Wednesday evening, December 11, with 25 attending. Games were played and oldtime Christmas songs were sung. The lunch consisted of two angel food cakes decorated in white with two large and five small white bells and pink bows, salad, cookies, sandwiches, punch and coffee. Duane Hord cut the cake. Valonda Biddlecome served the punch and Algeria Hord poured coffee.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Harvold Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Hoke and Clayton and Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Gunter and Paul had a surprise dinner at the Rold home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Montgomery's wedding anniversary.

Their daughter, Mrs. James Beverly Love, called from Buffalo, N. Y., wishing her parents a happy anniversary that evening.

Manger Scene Reminds Students

The most important word around St. Mary's academy right now is Christmas. All the classrooms were decorated during the past weekend. Some of the girls are even wearing "jingle bells". The large manger scene in front of the school serves to remind of the true meaning of Christmas.

The girls' glee club and the speech class presented a Christmas program consisting of a cantata and a one-act play Friday and Monday evenings. A large audience was on hand both nights in the SMA auditorium. The grade school students will give their program at 8 o'clock tonight (Thursday) in the gymnasium. Each grade will present a selection.

The Cardinals are preparing for Friday's game with their traditional rivals, the Bluejays from St. Joe's. The game will be played on the Atkinson floor.

The Boys' Society is publishing a school paper named The Cardinal. They produced the first issue Monday. They hope to continue the paper through the year.

Two Yankton Students Active

With the beginning of Christmas vacation Friday, December 20, at Mt. Marty college, Yankton, S.D., Miss Kathleen Spitzberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Spitzberger and Miss Eunice an Horn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Van Horn of O'Neill, will return home to spend the holiday season with their families and friends.

Miss Spitzberger is a sophomore teacher training student and Miss Van Horn is a freshman liberal arts student at the college. Both students are members of the Sodality and the chorus.

Miss Van Horn is a member of the Schola Cantorum. Miss Spitzberger is a member of the SNEA and a staff writer on the Angelus.
