

The Gene Terrill family . . . the mother, Mary Arlene, 28, and daughter, Diane, 6, died in Sunday crash. The father and the son David, 4, are hospitalized. The father's condition is "critical".

TV Tower, Booster Equipment Enroute Tragedy Ends Yule

Business Brisk

Postal Receipts are Like 1956

Christmas shopping, off to a slow start chiefly because of mild, Indian-summer-like weather, gained momentum during the untary contributions. past week and will windup with whopping crowds the past few duty receiver-transmission equip-ment, manufactured in Canada, hicles.

Postmaster Ira H. Moss said the postal receipts, usually a barometer of retail spending, will run about the same as 1956. By week's end the postal volume had diminished considerably, suggesting the mail rush was over. Week's weather summary

December 20 December 21 December 22 December 23

Infant Twin Dies Result of Pneumonia

after being hospitalized several Motor Parts, O'Neill Grain Co.

days because of pneumonia. Survivors include: Parents; three sisters and his twin brother; maternal grandfather - Joseph Thramer; paternal grand-parents—Mr. and Mrs. Leo Funk.

8 Stitches Needed to Close Wound

son of Page had the misfortune to be attacked by a boar Sunday evening as she was watering their hogs.

She received a gash in the leg that required eight stitches to close and she is under the doctor's care.

BENEFIT HELD

ATKINSON - Advance ticket sales were "wonderful" for the swimming pool benefit dance held Monday night, a spokesman here declared. The Mullen family orchestra furnished the mu-Funds are being raised in various ways for the proposed pool, which twice during 1957 was was rejected by voters in bond issue elections.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shoemaker received word that the infant daughter of their son and daughter-in-law, A/1c and Mrs. Raymond Gail Shoemaker, had The baby was born Tues-December 17. The Shoemakers are located at Bryan,

Auction Calendar

Friday, January 3: Quarter-section of Holt county land, onehalf mile east of Emmet and six miles north, known as A. V. Fors-berg estate land; Col. Ed Thorin of O'Neill, auctioneer-broker. Tuesday, January 28: Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hansen will hold a farm closeout; Col. O'Connell, auctioneer.

O'Neill's community television fund Monday lacked $23 of atits five-thousand-dollar

Meanwhile, a part-shipment of equipment, including amplifiers, Woodbine, Ia. arrived Friday, according to Ken Werner of Chambers, who holds the contract for installation of Werner said as far as he knew DIANE TERRILL, 6, daughter the antennae towers, manufact- of the Gene Terrills. Most O'Neill stores reported ured in Indiana, and the heavy DUANE McHUGH, 24, of Dunwhopping crowds the past few days.

Because of mild weather, farmers and ranchers kept busy in late November and early December with seasonal work which had been deferred earlier because of wetness and cold.

Shopping sales won't establish many records except in a few instances.

Postmaster Ira H. Moss said

Ment, manufactured in Canada, are enroute by freight. Towers and equipment will be installed in the Fora Knight meadow at the northeast edge of the city. Television viewers will be enabled to see KTIV (Sioux City, channel 4) on channel 13, and KOLN-TV (Lincoln, channel 10) on channel 2. Signals from both stations will be amplified, and filtered.

Micles.

The Otto Terrills left Page immediately upon receipt of the news and went to Council Bluffs, Ia., where their son, Gene 29, and Gene's son, David, 4, were hospitalized.

Gene suffered head and internal injuries and his condition late Monday was listed as "critical". The little boy, hospital attendants said, would recover.

previously announced:

Charles Fox, Earl Dalton, Consumers Power, J. B. Ryan Hay Co., Ray E. Clifton, Harold Humrich, Harrison Bridge, M. L. Sucha, Stella Wallen, Herbert Gydesen, John E. Donohoe, Lulu M. Quig, Gertrude Cone, C. E. Lundgren.

Francis Holz, Rev. Francis Francis Holz, Rev. Francis Holz, Rev. William The pickup went off the road.

Price, Robert V. Kurtz, William G. Kraft, Mrs. Lillian Simonson, Rev. A. S. Gedwillo, Loretta Edmonds of Little Sioux, Ia., were Hynes, Mrs. Emma Lawrence, only shaken. W. S. Kirkland, Otto W. Sprague, Louis Zastrow, A. J. O'Donnell.

DELOIT—Jerry Clarence Funk, five-months-old twin son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Funk died at and Mrs. Clarence Funk died at Claussen, Marvin P. Clouse, R. F. 4 a.m., Saturday, December 21, Strube, Marie A. Strube, O'Neill

BASTILE IS EMPTY

ing, it was predicted late Mon- agent for a hybrid seed corn day by Sheriff Leo Tomjack. "No company. boarders were on hand during the Authorities said an inquest weekend and right now there are would be held. no prospects," the sheriff said.

PAGE - Mrs. Emmet Thomp- Car Hits Train; Woman Is Killed

Western railway freight train at arrest. a crossing here, Friday night.
Charles Rouse, Oakdale town marshal, said Mrs. Pricket was and Arthur Auserod of Bartlett, are at home.

North-Central Nebraska's BIGGEST Newspaper

O'Neill, Holt County, Nebraska, Thursday, December 26, 1957.

Seven Cents

Mother and Daughter Are Killed

Vol. 77—Number 35

Trip for Members of Terrill Family

PAGE-The wife of a former During Past Week John C. Watson, secretary-treasurer of the Chamber of six-year-old daughter were killed Commerce television committee, Sunday afternoon in a three-ve-said the fund has reached $4,977. about 11/2 miles south of Dead are: MARY ARLENE TERRILL, 28, community antennae-twin of Laurens, Ia., wife of Gene Terbooster equipment fianced by vol-untary contributions.

rill and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Terrill of Page.

said, would recover

Donors whose names were not reviously announced:

Investigating officers said the northbound McHugh car started

Mrs. Terrill's parents live at Prairie Home. Her maiden name was Mary Arlene Hall. Mr. Terrill, who was born and reared at Page, met his wife while both attended the Univer-sity of Nebraska. The Terrills sity of Nebraska. sity of Nebraska. The Terrills regularly visited Page and in-tended to spend Christmas near Lincoln, arriving at Page Thursday to spend the day with his The Holt county jail apparently people. Gene's grandmother is will be empty Christmas morn-Mrs. Anna Tegeler.He is state

Jury Again Called for Held-Cooke

OAKDALE—Mrs. Ellen Pricket, 57, of Oakdale was killed when her car was struck by a North alone in the car when it was in asked the court's permission to in collision with the freight train, amend the petition after admisbound from Norfolk to Long Pine.

She was enroute to Neligh at the time of the crash.

In collision with the freight train, bound from Norfolk to Long Pine.

Sion of certain evidence was protested by the defendant's counsel, Julius D. Cronin of O'Neill. Per-Mrs. Pricket's husband died mission was granted by District about a year ago. Survivors in- Judge Lyle Jackson of Neligh clude six children, two of whom and the action was continued until the new date.

Pricket car . . . after hit by train.

View of rail crossing at Oakdale where wo man was killed .- The Frontier Photos.

The Pierces . . . Christmas their golden wedding day.-The Frontier Photo.

Homemade Nativity Scene at Chambers

Members of the senior youth fellowship and young adult classes of the Methodist church at Chambers prepared this homemade nativity scene, which is illuminated nightly. Individuals worked nearly two months on the project, Rev. Harold Bonath, church pastor said. Gleason Grimes was in charge of erection, wiring and installation of musical background. The scene has been lighted since Sunday, December 15.-The Frontier Photo.

her car was struck by a North Held charges Cooke with false Former Secret Service Agent—

Burney to Parleys with FDR seen on the streets. relatively dull chores of selling ed the label was American.

stocks, bonds and securities and his territory is big for Investor's Ivan pay through the nose in a Diversified Services, Inc. Behind the two hundred pounds of native Nebraskan, who appears to have been a gem of a fullback on somebody's football team a or a good book. Mike Burney, who orginated at McCook, is now a resident of Neligh (pending the find of suitable plates made in America and with nousing facilities in O'Neill).

He was a charter member of our own treasury department. e Nebraska safety patrol (1937). n March, 1939, he joined up with the U.S. secret service and was American public, as far as I appointed to the white house de- know, although some of our own the theory. ail keeping vigil on President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Six-footer Mike was on duty the night Ambassador William C. Bullit called FDR from Paris with the news Hitler had marched into Poland, signaling the start of habits, recalls Mr. Burney. World War II.

"The evening Bullitt called," Burney remembers, "FDR tried to locate the globe-trotting Eleanor to relay the news from Europe. Next day I found a memo to the switchboard operator on the floor near the president's desk with this notation: 'Call Eleanor-Los Angeles? Denver? Seattle?'

When Burney was stationed at the executive mansion the secret service detail consisted of 28 men, working approximate eight-hour shifts around the clock. Even more are maintained now. Burney did some globe-trotting of his own, accompanying the FDR to several summit conferences with Churchill and Stalin and went to Potsdam with President Harry S. Truman. "Our detail was badly outnumbered by the Russian counter-

Mike recalls. The Russ usually had a full military company-about 150 men. They wore civilian clothes and full military dress alternately. Very confusing. Sometimes I thought Uncle Joe had brought along the whole red sometimes thought he needed re- Photo.

He's not yet a full-fledged O'- At the various conferences the Neill citizen yet he's frequently Russ counterparts were always did I see Winnie without a glass in in the market for clothes, watch- one hand and a buck-sized Corona-Mike has settled down to the es, suitcases and jewery-provid- Corona, a he-man cigar, in the of Stuart.

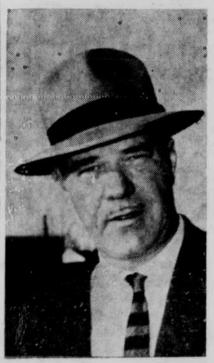

"I had an opportunity to make couple of transactions.

Dark-haired Mike, father of two young teenage daughters, realized later the source of Amerfew years ago, there's material ican money available to. Uncle Joe's crew explained the liberal use of greenbacks.

the same type of paper used by

"Source of the plates and paper never has been disclosed to the secert service agents, got to the bottom of it.'

Luminaries met during the seven-year stretch at the white house varied in eating and drinking

Mike Burney . . . vestibule "The way Joe ended up I've conferences. - The Frontier were ordered to participate in a The Pierces . . . on their Ft. Eustis, Va., arrived to spend

"Churchill loved-and still does -his Scotch and water. Seldom

"Harry Hopkins introduced Winnie to the hot dog. I saw many couple of hot dogs.

"The red's couldn't handle "They made their own from American bourbon and soon the word of declination got around:

Mr. Burney saw a lot of social life at the white house, particulary at diplomatic parties. Among the observations: "The top-dyawer French are grapejuice to water in most "Faye Emerson, then married to one of the Roosevelt sons, put on a couple of good shows in the white house corridors. "Lovely daughters of South American diplomats, normally chaperoned, could shed the trailing matron at a first-class diplomatic party and could have a whee of a time. "Winnie Churchill once tumbled backwards into a hedge and a navy medic and I spent a couple of hours pulling needles out of his rear end. The chap is short and round and we had some difficulty keeping him on the 'operating in the official business. Usually he did not have access to the conferences. His job was to man the door at the president's office or bedroom and insure his safety. Leaving the white house detail. Mr. Burney was assigned to the Detriot, Mich., area. On one ocview of important white house casion he and another operative Continued on page 7.)

Contractors Near Finish on Safeway

Safeway Stores, Inc., has released the list of contractors participating in the remodeling of the Lohaus building for the new Safeway store here. The project is now in the final stages. Opening is planned in late Jan-

General contractor: Beckenhau er Bros., Norfolk. Subcontractors: Northwest Electric Motor Service of O'Neill, electrical; James Davidson & Sons of O'Neill, mechanical; Lincoln Steel Corp., of Lincoln, structural steel and reinforcing steel; Philbrico Sales & Service Omaha, incinerator; Home-Craft-ers Window & Glass Co., of Wisner, glass, glazing and aluminum doors; Johnson Hardware of Omaha, finish hardware; Bestt Decorators of Norfolk, painting and asphalt tile; Donohoe Consstruction Co., of O'Neill, excavation; R. L. White Co., of Lincoln, fire door and hollow metal door and frame; Staudenmaier Sheet Metal of Norfolk, sheet metal, xhausts and stainless steel.

Jacob B. Long

December 23, 1867. In 1884 he came to Holt county from Hastings, Ia., bringing his parents here in a covered wagon. His father had claimed a homestead wait until the following day to cover the county from Hastings, Ia., bringing his parents here in a covered wagon. His father had claimed a homestead wait until the following day to cover hy formy. We wanted to cover here to be a cover to the cover had been decided to the cover had been decided. the year previous.

The Long homestead was located one mile south of Opportun-ity and one mile west. Mr. Long lived on the homestead until 12 Although Mr. Long's health has most of the time. This Week's Issue

48 Hours Early This week's issue of The Frontier went to press Monday night 48 hours ahead of schedule to insure that all subscribers in the O'Neill area would have their paper ahead of the walls belider. yule holiday.

Next week's issue—the January 2 issue—will go to press approximately 30 hours ahead of the normal schedule.

Kliment Home Scene

of Gathering-Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kaiser and son, Pfc. Ivan Kaiser, who arrived Friday from Ft. Riley, Kans., and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Seger were dinner guests Sun-Mrs. Kaiser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kliment, sr. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Soucek and family of Verdigre; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kliment and family of Wausa; Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Kliment, and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Dobias and family, Ivan Kliment, Hattie Nissen, daughter of Lor-Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Dobias and son, all of Atkinson, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dobias, and daughters leaving her mother behind in James Ryan, son of Neil Ryan, Chicago, Ill. lunches carried to Churchill consis- was separated from the air force ting of bottles of Scotch and a Friday, December 20, after serving an enlistment. He was sep-"Stalin loved his vodka, of arated at Parks air force base in course, and caviar. But he was California and arrived to spend no different than the other Rus- the holidays here. He has not made future plans.

LEAVES AIR FORCE

Toys for needy families and cash contributions are being ac-Burney is quite convinced the cepted by the Junior Chamber of Russians love a good party and Commerce in order to cheer uncontends that the latest series of top dogs at the Kremlin support is in charge selves off the ground after the wedding day-Christmas, 1907. the holidays with relatives.

Couple On SamePlace 45 Years

TWELVE

PAGES

This Issue

Frank Pierce, Wife Note 50th Wedding on December 25th

AMELIA-Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce, who have spent the past 45 years on their ranch, two small lakes and a hay meadow nowth of Amelia, Christmas day observing their wedding anniversary.

No formal observance is ned, but their daugnter, and Charles Bligh of Omaha, her husband and daughter, Miss Raedee Wickham, will be present for gift opening and a family dinner. The Pierce ranch, exactly a mile north of town, has been in the Pierce family 65 years. The Pierces are retired-tend a few chickens, a couple of milk cows, and "contract out" their pasture and hay. Both enjoy good at 90th Milestone and hay. Both enjoy goed health.

Mr. Pierce, 79, was born near Cherokee, Ia., a son of William and Laura Pierce. The family came by covered wagon to Hele with his nephew, Walter Young, in the Opportunity locality, Monday celebrated his 90th birthday anniversary.

He was born in Earlville, III., December 23, 1867. In 1884 he came to Holt county from Host cross by ferry. We woundup brother, Carroll Pierce, went on to Amelia to pick up their claims.

Sleep Under Wagons First few nights were spent sleeping under the wagons which not been good the past 18 months, he is able to be "up and around" were nestled in the hills. Forlorn calls of coyotes inter rupted the sleep for the family fresh out of civilized Iowa. Frank was the oldest family. Eight more children along later. The original Pierce homestead was located three miles west of Amelia now bordered by state highway 11.

The homesteading family en-dured the pioneer hardships. But lingering in Mr. Pierce's mind is the hardships of the mailcarrier, Mr. Bliss, who would trek afect to O'Neill to pickup and deliver mail.

"In busy spring and summer seasons, when horses were at a premium, Mr. Bliss would be seen walking the diagonal line umbrella in hand. The round trip would take him three days." The Amelia postoffice was named for the footslogger's wife. Speaking of naming of postoffices, the towns of Pierce, Carroll and Hoskins were acquired through the Pierce family. Mr. Hoskins, Frank's uncle, was in charge of the landoffice at Nor-

The government received permission from the family before naming the towns. Mrs. Pierce's maiden name ens and Catherine Nissen, who had immigrated from Schleswig-Holstein province (her father hunting an out from Bismark's military demands of young men). Her father came to Holt first,

Hattie, second child in the family, was born in a sodhouse four miles north of Amelia. The Nissen-Pierce nuptials took place by candlelight on winds Christmas night, 1907, in Holi Creek Lutheran church (since destroyed by fire). Top Buggy Upsets Rev. William Sprandle, pioneer Chambers pastor, officiated. Something unusual took place after the wedding. The bestman and maid-of-honor, Laurence Nisser and Lillian Pierce, picked them-wind had blown over their buggy. The newlyweds barely escaped a similar fate. Frank and Hattie set out for Lander, Wyo., where distances were too vast, altitude too great and, to be frank about it, Mrs. Pierce became homesick. Six months later they were back in Holt where they have resided continuously and intend to spend the remainder of their days. They lived northwest of Ame lia one year in a brother's place, then spent several years south-west of the town on the place now known as the Bertha Sammons ranch.

Forty-five years ago they moved onto the present ranch. They became the parents di one daughter, Lewine.

Pierce is 69. Their 400-acre ranch has six flowing wells, a sea of haystacks, and they live comfortably within a stone's throw of their home community. They are members of St. Paul's Lutheran church at Chambers. (A tape-recorded interview with Mr and Mrs. Pierce will be heard Christmas morning on the "Voice of The Frontier" pregram, WJAG, 780 kc).

Home for Holidays-

James Schneider of Ft. Leonard Wood Mo., and Tom Schneider of