4-H Winners Vow To Ring The Bell For Safety

DETERMINED TO BOOST THE NUMBER of 4-H members actively participating in safety programs to the million mark in 1958 are these eight national winners in the National 4-H Safety Program. Here, they show Ralph W. Moore, Director of Plant City and Field Relations for General Motors, the dramatic rise from 72,000 4-H participants in safety when GM began its sponsorship of the program awards 13 years ago to the current participation of 825,000 members. Leading 4-H toward the "million in safety mark" next year will be these winners, each of whom received $400 college scholarships from GM. In addition, General Motors provides them and the other state winners all-expense trips to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. Bottom row, left to right are Sylvia McCarty, 18, Myers, Ky.; Leonard Wertz, 17, McClave, Colo.; Marilyn Ellison, 17, El Reno, Okla.; Don Willis, 18, Mendonhall, Miss.; Top row, left to right are Sharon Mitchell, 16, Dixmont, Maine; Carolyn Kay Moore, 16, Fairview, Kans.; Ronald Powell, 16, Clark, Mo.; Christine Pasley, 17, Hillsboro, Ore.
