Janice I. Turner, Robert Lemek Wed in December Rites

Poinsetta and Christmas greens appointed the altar of St. Patrick's Catholic church Saturday morning, December 28, for the wedding of Miss Janice Irene Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Turner of O'Neill, and Robert Lemek, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lemek of Sioux City.

Rev. Francis Price, pastor of the Church of Epiphany in Emmet, officiated at the 10 o'clock double-ring ceremony. Miss Alvara Ramm of Stuart, organist, accompanied Miss Mary Gatz, who sang "Mother Beloved", and "Ave Maria". Acolytes were Masters John Lemek and Joe Lemek, brothers of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a floor-length gown of white chantilly lace over satin and tulle. The bodice featured a sabrina neckline with brief sleeves and was trimmed in seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The gown was complemented with lace mitts.

The skirt featured a lace peacock overskirt forming a bustle effect in the back and fell over scalloped tiers of accordion pleated tulle forming a very bouffant effect. Her illusion veil was attached to a scalloped crown encrusted with seed pearls and iridescent sequins and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Dona Turner, sister of the bride was maid-of-honor and Miss Barbara Lemek, of Sioux City, sister of the bridegroom, and Betty Jo Turner, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore identical ballerina length gowns fashioned of red lace over taffeta trimmed with velvet. White iridescent half hats and white ermine muffs trimmed with sprigs of holly completed their costumes.

Yvonne Sahaaf was flowergirl and Master Russel Dericksen served as ringbearer. They were each dressed in white.

Richard Lemek of Iowa City, Ia., a brother of the bridegroom, served as bestman. Gene Turner, brother of the bride, and Ron Allison of Omaha were ushers and also attended the bridegroom.

The bridegroom and his attendants were attired in light jackets and navy trousers. They wore carnation boutonnières.

Mrs. Turner chose a grey coat dress with white accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Lemek wore a grey and white dress with black accessories. Both wore red carnation corsages.
