

Shirley Butterfield,
Donald Volquardsen
Exchange Vows

ORCHARD—Miss Shirley Butterfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butterfield of Orchard, became the bride of Donald Volquardsen of Omaha in a 7:30 candlelight ceremony at the Evangelical United Brethren church in Orchard, Saturday, December 28. Mr. Volquardsen is the son of Mrs. Mary Volquardsen of Verdigré.

Rev. Duane Lenz officiated. Mrs. Harvey Holbrook, sr., church organist, played the nuptial music and accompanied W. K. Gray, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess style street-length dress of light blue taffeta with front insets of net in the skirt. Her headpiece was of white satin with a grey veil, dotted with tiny jewels. She carried a bouquet of red roses tied with light blue nylon net and silver streamers. Miss Helen Volquardsen of Verdigré, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. She wore a blue sheath dress with white accessories. She wore a blue carnation corsage.

Lawrence Miller of Niobrara attended the bridegroom.

Brent and Brenda Skalberg of Orchard lighted the tapers. Ushers were Glen Volquardsen, of Verdigré, cousin of the bridegroom, Telford Grim of Ewing, cousin of the bride, Lee Skalberg and Robert Utterback, both of Orchard.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the church parlors for relatives. A three-tier wedding cake, a gift of the bride's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pospeshil of Sioux City, centered the reception table. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Pospeshil.

Mrs. Elmer Grim of Ewing, aunt of the bride, poured.

Miss Beverly Linguist of O'Neill had charge of the guest book. The gifts were arranged by Mrs. Telford Grim of Ewing, Mrs. Gordon Volquardsen of Coleridge and Mrs. Louis Pavlik of Verdigré. Janet Pospeshil of Sioux City, Irene Boelter of Lynch and Merna Butterfield of O'Neill served at the bridal table. Mrs. Albert Pospeshil of Orchard and Mrs. Elden Butterfield of O'Neill, aunts of the bride, assisted at the reception table.

Others assisting with the reception were Mrs. Ed Butterfield, Mrs. Herman Wieting, Mrs. Lee Skalberg and Mrs. Robert Utterback. The bride is a 1956 graduate of the Orchard high school. She has been employed in the Bank of Verdigré since graduation.

The bridegroom graduated from Verdigré high school. He served in the army and since his discharge has been employed by the American Smelting company in Omaha. The couple will reside in Omaha.

Harold Pospeshil of Sioux City, cousin of the bride, was photographer.
