Truck Destroyed by Explosion and Fire

The fire was still smoldering Friday afternoon at the Paul Sullivan farm, five miles north of O'Neill, when this picture was taken. A GMC truck owned by Don Adamson was completely destroyed. The truck's exhaust had backfired, setting a straw stack afire and the gas tank on the vehicle exploded. The truck was overturned by O'Neill firemen. No one was hurt and the fire did not spread to the unoccupied buildings on the place in spite of a strong northwest wind. —The Frontier Photo.

Group Gathers at Frank Pierce Home

AMELIA—Christmas day was a very special day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce. Besides being the gala holiday they were also celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary.

Only immediate relatives of the family were present for the dinner. Those present were: their daughter, Mrs. Charles Bligh and Mr. Bligh of Omaha their granddaughter, Miss Raedee Wickham, and her friend, Dick Brau, all of Omaha; Lewis Nissen of Lincoln, and Heram Nissen of Atkinson, brothers of Mrs. Pierce.

In the evening, members of the Helping Hand club of which Mrs. Pierce is a member, and their husbands surprised the Pierces with a visit. They also presented them with a potted plant as a gift.

A luncheon of cake, cookies and coffee was served. Mr. and Mrs. Bligh had the cake baked especially for the occasion.
