Too Late to Classify Dials Supplant Plugs at Orchard

ORCHARD—Miss Maxine Sparrow, Orchard's telephone operator for the past 15 years, Monday morning performed the last manual switching for the 325 subscribers.

General Telephone company, which absorbed Nebraska Continental in 1956, cut over to a dial system. The new equipment is located in a new concrete block building. The conventional switchboard has been in its location at least a half century.

The new automatic equipment is the latest type available.

Phone patrons here will continue to enjoy free service to Walnut, Brunswick, Ewing and Neligh.

At nearly the same time another General exchange—Brunswick—was also converted to dial service.

A banquet in the evening at the American Legion hall commemorated the improvement. Present were Miss Sparrow and Miss Donna Payne, who frequently has assisted the regular operator; Mrs. J. W. Edwards, regular assistant operator; Phil Wake of Albion, in charge of installation of new automatic equipment; Virgil Pier of Spaulding, lineman; T. J. Wozny, Earl Richards, L. M. Johnson, Earl Fouts, all of Columbus; party personnel; Harrison Speck Art Richards of Albion, all of Neligh, local lineman and officials of the village of Orchard.
