Geraldine Delaney Becomes Bride of Former Holt Man

CHAMBERS — St. Raphael's Catholic cathedral in Dubuque, Ia., was the setting of the Saturday, January 4, wedding ceremony uniting Miss Geraldine Delaney and Gerald Cavanaugh.

Rev. Cecil McSweeney officiated at the 8 a.m. ceremony while James Keeney provided nuptial music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Day Delaney of 373 Bluff st., Dubuque, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Cavanaugh of Chambers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Helen Duffy of East Dubuque, Ill.

as maid-of-honor. Donald Cavanaugh attended his brother's best man. Following the ceremony, a breakfast was served at the Page hotel.

Mrs. Cavanaugh was graduated from St. Joseph's academy and is employed by Northwestern Bell Telephone company. Her husband attended Chambers high school and is employed at the Dubuque Packing Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Cavanaugh will make their home in Dubuque.

$50.43 Netted in 'Coffee Hours'

Mrs. Robert Kurtz, chairman of the "coffee hours for polio campaign" reports $50.43 was taken in.

"We wish to take this means of saying thank you to the business firms that made this venture so successful", Mrs. Kurtz said.

Saturday, January 18, the Cub Scouts and older Scouts sponsored a "dime block". Mrs. Neil Dawes served as chairman. The sum of $51.22 was realized.

Last year approximately $1,000 was spent for polio patient care in Holt county. Over 2,000 free Salk vaccine shots were administered, with the Holt local chapter paying the expense.

"A survey shows more will be needed for rehabilitation this year and we expect to give third polo shots in the near future," a spokesman for the Holt chapter said.

Benefit Bouts Planned at Ewing—Ewing—Polio benefit fights will be held at Ewing Saturday evening, January 25. Ewing golden gloves candidates will perform exhibitions.

The showing will be for polio benefit—not sponsored by the American Legion as erroneously stated last issue.

A subdistrict superintendent's meeting was held Tuesday at Consumers Public Power district offices here.
