New Sleds Contact Snow—Finally!

Derickson Hill Is Proving Place

ROCK FALLS — Even though the weekend snowfall was scant, the white stuff enabled some to test their Santa-provided new sleds. Heretofore, the sleds had not been in contact with snow—or much ice—except, of course, for the snow under the Christmas tree!

Partaking Sunday in the sleighing party, on an ideal hill for that sport, at the Sam Derickson home, were Mr. and Mrs. John Schultz and girls and Linda Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Lieb and children and Lester Waterman.

Early darkness ended the fun as the group went indoors to satisfy appetites, sharpened by the outdoor exercise.

From reports there were those who seemed to be nursing stiffened and bruised muscles the following day. It was difficult to determine just who did enjoy it most—adults or children.
