

Cards Win Over Niobrara, Inman

Top Verdigre in Loop Tourney

Coach Don Templemeier's St. Mary's academy Cardinals Friday night pasted Niobrara, 57-53, in a Niobrara Valley conference cage game. The Cards enjoyed a 20-point bulge most of the way.

Larry Tomlinson rolled in 18 points for the winners; Larry Mudloff, 11; Bill Craig and Gale Stevens, 10 each.

The SMA seconds romped easily, 56-23.

Monday evening the Cards were engaged in a whole of a game against the strong Inman Tigers, SMA winning 56-52. Inman came to town with 18 wins and only one loss thus far.

Customers witnessed a tremendous personal contest between Tomlinson and Inman's Ned Kelley. Each hawked the other all evening and both racked up 26 points apiece.

It was 54-48 with 33 seconds remaining.

Inman reserves won the prelim, 47-32.

The next night the Cards disposed of Verdigre, 62-43, in the Niobrara conference tourney at Center. Tomlinson was good for 25.

Semifinals will be played to-night (Thursday) with Center going against Niobrara at 7 o'clock and Spencer tangling with SMA at 8:30. Finals will be Friday night.
