

Sandhills Shrine Club Is Formed

AINSWORTH—In its charter meeting, membership in the Sand Hills Shrine club of North-Central Nebraska was boosted to 22 as eight men joined the organization at the meeting in Ainsworth.

The Sand Hills Shrine club was organized February 2 for all members of the Shrine in the sandhills area. Although under the sponsorship of Tangier Temple in Omaha, the Shrine club is open to members of all temples, according to the officers, and charter memberships will be accepted only until after the spring ceremonies of the temples represented.

Standing committees were appointed by President J. E. O'Halloran of Wood Lake for membership, entertainment, and publicity. In addition special committee assignments were made for Shrine circus, special projects, and uniforms.

The March meeting of the organization will be held Sunday evening, March 30, at the Jordan Hotel in Valentine. The dinner meeting will get underway at 5 p.m., and reports of the special committees will be heard.

Now represented in club membership are Ainsworth, Meriman, Cody, Valentine, Wood Lake, Springfield, Bassett, Atkinson and Mullen.

Loses Finger in Unusual Mishap

VENUS—Arthur Sufficool of Shelton, a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Finch, suffered a painful injury recently when his ring caught in a moving truck.

Arthur lost the ring finger, left hand, at the middle joint. He was taken to the Veterans hospital at Grand Island for surgery and skin graft.

He is employed at a grain elevator at Shelton. His wife is the former Karol Kay Finch.

He was leaving from the truck when his wedding ring caught on the rack.

Bette Havranek, Thomas S. Bishop Exchange Vows

Miss Bette Havranek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Havranek of Hamburg, Ia., and Thomas S. Bishop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Bishop of King City, Mo., were united in marriage Sunday, February 16, at 3:30 p.m. at the Methodist church in Hamburg.

Rev. J. E. McClellan read the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white pom poms and salal. The candleabra were decorated with salal and the pews were marked with white satin bows and salal.

J. Luther Dougan sang "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Irvin Barnett at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gardenia white gown of Douppion silk, styled with a long torso bodice, topped with an alcon lace yoke and long sleeves. The bouffant skirt featured a front panel accented with Alcon lace motifs sprinkled with white sequins and seed pearls. The full gathered back of the skirt cascaded into a chapel train. Her short veil was held in place with a pearl tiarra. She carried a bouquet of white pom poms.

Miss Nancy Dean of Kansas City was maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. James Bishop of Plattsburg, Mo., and Miss Diane Johnson of Hamburg. They wore matching ballerina gowns in romance blue, styled with empire bodice, square neckline, and cap sleeves. The princess line skirts featured a large bustle bow in the back. They carried bouquets of white pom poms.

Little Miss Mary Lynn Asimus of O'Neill, cousin of the bride, was flowergirl. She wore a gown of pink crystalite with a large bustle in the back. Mark Osterlag, nephew of the groom, acted as ringbearer. Mrs. Robert Dooley of Hamburg, was in charge of the guestbook. Gifts were cared for by Mrs. Sheldon Kushner of Hamburg.

James Bishop served his brother as best man. Groomsman were Mick Anderson of Omaha, and Dean Lundy of Kansas City. Ushers were Rex Stuck of Maryville, Mo., and Bennett Spiking of King City.

Mr. Havranek chose beige wool crepe with mauve accessories for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in blue with navy accessories. Both had white pom pom corsages.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Tony Asimus and Mary of O'Neill; Mr. and Mrs. James Havranek, sr., and Mr.

and Mrs. Louis Havranek, all of Atkinson; Mr. and Mrs. Orville Gallop and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stewart, all of Lynch; Mrs. Art Fuhrer, Shirley and Kenney and Edwin Havranek of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Elkins and family of Johnston.

Bernice Foreman Funeral at Orchard

VENUS—Funeral services were held at the Evangelical United Brethren church at Orchard, Tuesday, February 25, at 1:30 p.m., for Mrs. Bernice Foreman of Beatrice. She died Friday, February 21, at her home at Beatrice.

Saves time and money with "go-anywhere" dependability!

The Universal 'Jeep' is at its best when the going is toughest. With the extra traction of its 4-wheel drive and a special low gear range when needed, it gets passengers and cargo through sand, mud, snow and soft earth—on or off the road—in all kinds of weather. For travel at highway speeds it shifts quickly into conventional 2-wheel drive. It hauls heavily loaded trailers, and, with power take-off or hydraulic lift, operates a wide variety of farm implements and industrial equipment.
