Huge Crowd at Jones Sale

This is a partial view of the crowd attending Friday's dispersion sale near Plainview held by W. E. Jones. The crowd (above) is following Col. Dean Mosher of Creighton, auctioneer, during the sale of "excellent" farm machinery. Ninety two-year-old unregistered Angus bred heifers averaged over $275. The Frontier and "Voice of The Frontier" handled the advertising, which produced buyers from 19 counties in Nebraska, South Dakota and Iowa.

Notice is hereby given to all persons interested in said estate that a petition has been filed in said court for the appointment of Joe Thoenel as Administrator of said estate, and will be heard April 3, 1958 at 10 o'clock A.M., at the County Court Room in O'Neill, Nebraska.

Completes Filing
 Kenneth S. Gotobed (above), county attorney for Buffalo county, has completed his filing for the republican nomination for congressman for the Fourth district of Nebraska. Gotobed said: "The people of the Fourth district deserve and need the need for forceful, effective republican representation. Our incumbent congressman has served to the best of his ability; however, repetition of such incidents as the Ft. Randall transmission line rejection and the 'dump Benson' fiasco must be avoided." A graduate of George Washington university in Washington, D. C., Mr. Gotobed was born and raised on a Buffalo county farm, attended a rural school and the Kearney high school; entered the Nebraska State Teachers college in 1942; joined the marine corps in 1943; returned to farming upon his discharge, and in the fall of 1947 enrolled in law school. Married and the father of four children, he is 33. A. L. Miller of Kimball is incumbent.
