Gilg, Rice Address Joint Meeting

ATKINSON—The March meeting of the Holt county American Legion and auxiliary was held Monday evening in the Legion hall at Atkinson with Farley-Tushla as host and hostess. Meeting in a joint session, the groups were entertained by Jim Gilg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gilg of Atkinson, who presented his oration "I Hear America Singing", which won him second place in the district American Legion oratorical contest. Harold Rice, district commander of Ne-light, also addressed the group. Following the joint session, the Legion and auxiliary held separate meetings with Mrs. Laurence Hamik of Stuart, county vice-president, presiding in the absence of Mrs. Robert Lowery of O'Neill, who is county president.

O'NEILL LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. William O'Connor visited Sunday in Royal with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Van Fleet, and daughter, Veronica. Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Grimm and Mrs. Cora Wilkenson of Omaha spent the weekend at the Raymond Wilkenson home and visited other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Duane Miller were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Diehl of Bassett.

A crippled children's clinic will be held Saturday, March 29, at Ainsworth. Registration starts at 7 a.m.

Airman Durre Accorded Honor

EWING—Three highly coveted awards were earned by airmen of the 4321 tactical reconnaissance wing last month at Shaw air force base in South Carolina. One of the recipients was A/Lie Donald A. Durre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Durre of Twing. He is shown in the accompanying photograph receiving a certificate as an honor graduate of the non-commissioned officers' preparatory academy. The presentation is being made by Col. Harold F. Wilson, base commander. Colonel Wilson said: "The air force is in need of men of Airman Durre's calibre."

W. E. Shrader is Guest of Honor

W. E. Shrader, who lives near Ewing, was honored Sunday at a dinner to celebrate his birthday anniversary. The affair was held at the home of his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wetlauffer of O'Neill.

Others present were Mrs. E. W. Shrader, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Shrader and family, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Johnson and family and Alice and Eddy Shrader, all of Ewing.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christon of Denver, Colo., were Saturday callers of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Bridge.
